[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Theodore Roosevelt was elected president of the United States today by a veritable avalanche of ballots.

Neither the president himself nor his campaign managers imagined in their first dreams the extent of the sweep. States which would be considered normally doubtful, belied the aspiration by sending in early reports of great Republican gains.

Mr. Roosevelt has carried New York by a plurality estimated at almost a quarter of a million. Connecticut, New Jersey, West Virginia, Indiana, Wisconsin, Maryland and Delaware—all these commonwealths which were supposed to be wavering, have fallen in under the Republican banner.

Late reports in Greater New York show that Parker will have about 35,000 plurality in the city, and that Herrick, running far above the ticket, will have about 60,000.

The next congress is Republican by an increased majority.

In Delaware it is claimed Addicks has secured the legislature, and his long dream of the senatorship is likely to be realized.

In New York the legislature is comfortably Republican, and the majority of both houses is increased.

Higgins is governor of New York by a plurality of 100,000.

Illinois Surpasses Itself.

Illinois has surpassed itself in casting a Republican vote, and may now be classed with Pennsylvania. In Chicago, where Carter Harrison promised to carry Cook county for Parker, a plurality of approximately 100,000 was given the Roosevelt ticket.

The returns from New Jersey appear to show an equally emphatic victory. McKinley carried the state in 1900 by about 57,000. Estimates, subject to revision, are that Roosevelt will carry it by between 50,000 and 60,000. Mr. Stokes, the Republican nominee for governor, is elected by a plurality probably half that given for the Republican national ticket.

Connecticut has gone for Roosevelt by a plurality largely in excess of 20,000.

Massachusetts has given an astonishing result. The Roosevelt electors are chosen by a large plurality, but William L. Douglass, Democratic nominee for governor, has been elected. This is one of the real surprises of the election. Roosevelt gets the state by 60,000 or 70,000 or more. Gov. Bates is defeated by the Democratic manufacturer by 25,000 or 30,000. Mr. Douglass made his campaign on the labor issue, and on the issue of free raw material.

Even Maryland seems to have gone Republican. In view of the returns the state never would have been in the doubtful column but for the race question. It is estimated that the Republicans will elect four of the six representatives in congress.

Returns from West Virginia indicate it is sharing in the general Republican sweep. On governorship the result at this writing may be considered doubtful, for Dawson, the Republican nominee, was heavily cut.

West Solid for Roosevelt.

The west presents a solid phalanx of states for Roosevelt, beginning at Ohio and Indiana and extending clear to the Pacific slope. The Republican plurality in Ohio is large.

Indiana has gone for Roosevelt by perhaps 40,000. Iowa is Republican by 150,000.

Wisconsin has been carried by Roosevelt and all the northwestern states have given stupendous Republican pluralities.

South Dakota is reported Republican by 16,000.

Colorado is Republican by 30,000, and Gov. Peabody is elected by 10,000.

PARKER HEARD DEFEAT EARLY

News of Republican Victory Reached the Judge in in His Study.

CONGRATULATED PRESIDENT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ROSEMONT, ESOPUS, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker and his family and a few friends from the neighborhood received the election returns in the judge's study at Rosemont. Bulletins were received by telegraph at the temporary station in the lodge, and sent up to the house by messenger. Not many trips had been made up the hillside by the two messenger boys before the trend of the general results of the state and national tickets was known.

It was learned at 7 o'clock that Judge Parker's own election district gave President Roosevelt a majority of 14 votes. Judge Parker received the first election bulletin while he was at dinner with his family. While still at the table he continued to receive dispatchs up to 8 o'clock, when he went to his study.

From Democratic national headquarters word reached him at 8:30 o'clock, conceding the election of President Roosevelt. Judge Parker immediately dictated and sent off the following message:

"Rosemont, Esopus, N. Y., Nov. 8, 8:30 p. m.:

"To the President, Washington, D. C.

"The people by their votes have emphatically approved your administration, and I congratulate you.

"ALTON B. PARKER."

In the village of Esopus there was genuine grief manifested by Democrats, who gathered in the two inns and the railway station, at the discouraging character of the returns, but many had foreseen the result as based upon the returns from the village, which Judge Parker had failed to carry by 14 votes. The bonfire prepared for the occasion was not lighted.

At 10 o'clock Judge Parker received a telegram from President Roosevelt as follows:

"I thank you for your congratulations."

Judge Parker retired at 11:40 o'clock, declining to make any statement beyond that indicated by his telegram to President Roosevelt.

REPUBLICANS ARE NOW CLAIMING TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 8.—At 11 o'clock both Democratic and Republican chairmen the claiming the state. Returns received by the American indicate a majority of 15,000 votes for the Democratic national ticket and perhaps 5,000 less for Frazier, Democratic candidate for governor.

KILLED MAN WHO ACCUSED HIM OF HEINOUS OFFENSE

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Huntington Reynolds, a negro, was shot to death tonight by Charles Blake, also a negro. Reynolds accused Blake of voting the Democratic ticket today and this caused a quarrel.

CORTELYOU MODESTLY EXPRESSES PLEASURE

Not Surprised, but Gratified at Results—Depew Instances Parrot's Wisdom.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Chairman George B. Cortelyou of the Republican national committee said tonight:

"I am gratified, but not at all surprised at the result. In this case the expected has happened. The American people can be depended upon to do the right thing."

Senator N. B. Scott of the Republican national executive committee:

"The American people have spoken and the campaign of slander against the president has been most effectually answered. With the country prosperous; an administration which has accomplished great things; candidates of striking personality, and an opposition with no issue save personal vituperation, how could the result have been otherwise."

Gov. B. B. Odell, Jr., chairman of the Republican state committee:

"The people have said all that is necessary to say, and they have said it where it counts. The election of President Roosevelt has never been in doubt."

The result in New York so far as the state ticket is concerned is gratifying to me. Mr. Higgins has been subjected to the most violent and wicked attacks, without foundation in fact, and my administration has been made an issue. That Mr. Higgins did not run further behind the national ticket under the circumstances shows what the people of the state think of the attacks."

Senator Chauncey M. Depew said: "The Democrats can now appreciate the force of the remark of the parrot after his session with the money: 'Polly, you talk too damed much.' I have nothing to say at this time about the French mission."

Senator T. C. Platt said: "The country is to be congratulated. In President Roosevelt we have a strong man, in whose hands the interests of the people of the United States is safe."

NEW IS JUBILANT.

Mr. Roosevelt's Popular Indorsement Admits of No Mistake, Says Vice Chairman.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Vice Chairman Harry S. New of the national committee spent the evening at national headquarters in a jubilant frame of mind. Said he:

"The anticipated landslide has arrived. The people of the country have 'indorsed Roosevelt's administration in terms that admit of no mistake. He has carried every doubtful state by the greatest majorities ever given a presidential candidate."

VICTORY IN EPITOME.

Parker's Home District Is Against Him, But Oyster Bay Is Loyal to President.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from Ulster county, Esopus township, the Third district, Parker's home district, show that Roosevelt polled 173 votes against 150 for Parker.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Nov. 8.—The Fifth district of the town of Oyster Bay, the district in which the president resides, gave him a majority of 144 over Parker.

DEMOCRATS GIVE UP WEST VIRGINIA

Concede State to Roosevelt, but Claim Governorship. Legislature Republican.

ALSO WIN THE CONGRESSMEN

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Nov. 8.—Republican State Chairman Elliott Northcott has issued a statement based on returns so far received claiming that President Roosevelt has carried West Virginia by 40,000, which is 20,000 more than McKinley received four years ago. The legislature will be Republican by a safe majority, insuring the return of Senator N. B. Scott to the United States senate. Indications point to the election of all five congressmen by largely increased majorities. Chairman Northcott also claims the election of Dawson for governor by 20,000.

W. M. O. Dawson.

The Democrats concede the electoral vote to Roosevelt, but claim the election of Cornwell for governor. He is running ahead of the ticket everywhere, but may lose through the fact that he must overcome largely increased Republican majorities. Gains made for Cornwell in districts that have reported will not be sufficient if the ratio is maintained to elect him.

The counting of the ballots is very slow.

The Democrats made a desperate effort throughout the state to disfranchise the negro vote. In Huntington alone fully 300 people were at the voting places clamoring to vote when the polls closed this evening. The large ballot and the fact that the election commissioners challenged almost every colored man was the cause. Trouble was narrowly averted in many instances. About 20 persons were arrested for violations.

HUNTINGTON, Nov. 8.—Returns indicate the re-election of James A. Hughes, Republican candidate for congress in the Fifth district, by 1,800, Dawson for governor dropping far behind the national ticket in the southern section of the state.

FAIRMONT, Nov. 8.—Indications are

BIG VICTORY IN NEW YORK

Mr. Roosevelt's Plurality Will Reach Quarter Million Votes.

HIGGINS IS ELECTED

Entire State Ticket Is Successful With a Republican Legislature.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.

New York state, contrary to general expectations, was not doubtful about anything political today. It was not doubtful about the presidency, because it will give Mr. Roosevelt a plurality aggregating about a quarter million. It was not doubtful on the governorship, because it has given Mr. Higgins a very large plurality. It has decided to elect the entire Republican state ticket, a Republican legislature by increased majority and to increase the Republican representatives from this city in congress.

The rural counties in this state stood up for Theodore Roosevelt and Frank W. Higgins very much as they stood up for William McKinley and Frank S. Black in 1896 and again for William McKinley and for B. B. Odell, Jr., in 1900. In dozens of counties up the state the McKinley vote of 1896 was exceeded. Monroe county went for Roosevelt by 13,000 plurality. Erie county tossed a plurality of 11,000 into the scale. Catargua, the home county of Mr. Higgins, gave 4,400 plurality. Chatauqua county, which is in Mr. Higgins' district, swelled the Republican flood with more Republican than Democratic votes.

Onondaga county gave Roosevelt 11,500 more votes than it gave to Parker. So the Republican chorus swelled all the way through to New York city. In the farm houses and in the city homes it was the same story. The farmers did not want a change any more than did the workingmen in the cities of the state.

The Democratic vote in New York city literally went to pieces under the charge of the Rough Rider president, and under the remarkable leadership displayed by Gov. Odell, as the chairman of the Republican state committee.

What became of the 125,000 plurality for Parker and Herrick in New York county that Charles F. Murphy was talking of? What became of the 30,000 in Kings county that Patrick H. McCarren was boasting of? What became of the 8,000 or 9,000 that was promised by Joseph Cassidy, the Democratic leader of Queens? Echo answers, what?

The Irish vote appears very largely to have swung to the support of the young president and some of it to the support of the Republican state ticket.

Kings county, before the returns were half in, showed that the candidates for president were running almost neck and neck. Queens county almost dwindled away, and the figures at midnight on the presidency in the city reminded one very much of the returns of four years ago, when McKinley carried Kings county by a small plurality and Bryan had only about 30,000 in New York county.

EMPIRE STATE GAINS.

Republican Majorities Largely Increased in Both Branches of the Legislature.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Republican majorities will be largely increased in both branches of the state legislature. Outside of New York city only one Democratic senator and six Democratic assemblymen are elected. The Democrats lose a senator in Oneida county, where Henry J. Coggshal is elected, and several assemblymen in other upstate counties.

Returns from the New York city districts indicate that several districts in Manhattan, usually Democratic, have elected Republican legislators.

NEARLY A CENTENARIAN, HE VOTES FOR MR. ROOSEVELT

WINSTED, CONN., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—William S. Phelps, aged 98, Winsted's oldest voter, walked to the polls today and cast a straight Republican ballot. Asked if his vote was scratched, he replied indignantly: "That kind of work I consider an insult to an honestly nominated candidate."

CLEVELAND'S POLLING PLACE GAVE ROOSEVELT A MAJORITY

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 8.—The First district poll, in which former President Grover Cleveland voted today, gave Roosevelt a majority of 191 over Parker.

COUNTY WILL GIVE 60,000

Magnificent Majority Is Rolled Up for Republican National Ticket.

EXCEEDS M'KINLEY'S

Vote Indicates Democrats Have Made a Miserable Showing in This Election.

THEY DID NOT WIN ANYTHING

It was a happy crowd that gathered at Republican headquarters last night to hear the news. The leaders had predicted a plurality of 60,000 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks and the returns show that their estimates were correct. Pittsburgh will probably contribute 25,000 as her share of the plurality. The entire state, congressional, legislative and county tickets have been elected. For the first time since 1884, the county will send a solid Republican delegation to the state house of representatives.

The Democrats will apparently make a poor showing in the county. The numerous fusion fights have demoralized what little organization there was in the party. While the Democratic managers hoped for a total vote of 35,000 for Parker, the returns indicate that if the candidate receives 24,000 he will be doing well.

Many voters did not understand how to mark their ballots, and as a result the candidates for state and county offices will run far behind the national ticket. The voter thought that by placing a cross at the head of the electoral ticket, he voted for all of the candidates of his party, while in reality none but the electors received his support. The percentage of loss to the Republicans from this misconception is placed at 15, while that of the Democrats is figured at 18. In some districts as high as 50 men made this mistake in the marking of their ballots.

Names of the Successful Candidates.

Orphans' court judge—William C. Hawkins, Jr.

Congressmen—W. H. Graham, Twenty-ninth district; John Dalzell, Thirtieth district; James F. Burke, Thirty-first district; Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, Thirty-second district.

Senators—David A. Wilbert, Forty-third district; John W. Crawford, Forty-fifth district.

Assemblymen—John R. Murphy, George J. Schad, First district; John Francies, J. H. Henderson, Second district; L. B. Cook, Adolph Edlis, Third district; Henry Godfrey, Jr., Fourth district; John J. Shenkel, E. B. Smith, Charles H. Kline, Charles F. Heselbarth, Fifth district; John P. Moore, Robert McWhinney, Sixth district; James M. Esler, H. I. Riley, Seventh district; James F. Woodward, Eighth district.

Coroner—Joseph G. Armstrong.

Director of the poor—Henry W. Oelse.

The returns indicate that the Citizens were generally voting the Republican ticket.

Statement from Ford.

Thomas J. Ford, chairman of the Republican county committee, made this statement:

The indications point to a majority for Roosevelt and Fairbanks of about 60,000 in the county. We elect every member of the house of representatives, being a gain of one in the Fourth legislative district, where we elect a Republican representative for the first time in years. We elect both members of the state senate, four congressmen and every candidate on the Republican state and county ticket.

The majority for the electoral ticket will exceed that for the state and county ticket. This was due to the misleading change in the form of the ballot, many Republicans supposing that a cross opposite the name of Roosevelt and Fairbanks was a vote for the entire electoral, state and county ticket; whereas, the vote could be counted for the electoral ticket alone, thereby depriving the state and county tickets of a vote which was clearly intended to be cast as a straight party vote. The confusion is due to no act or misconception of duty on the part of any executive officer, but can be attributed solely to the phraseology of the act of 1903 and indicates, to my view, either the need for a change in that law, or perhaps a more thorough knowledge on the part of the voter, which can only be acquired by patient effort on the part of the great mass of voters. In some districts of the East End, and this is a fair sample, the vote shows that 15 per cent of the voters failed to understand the ballot.

Mr. Ford sent this telegram to State Chairman Penrose:

Allegheny county gives Roosevelt and Fairbanks a plurality of 60,000, elects a solid delegation to the state legislature for the first time since 1884 and elects four congressmen.

As Viewed By Mr. Leslie.

M. G. Leslie, chairman of the Republican city committee, said:

The overwhelming majority of the Republican party, both for the national and county ticket in Pittsburgh, is a demonstration of the loyalty of the voters to principles of the party as enunciated by President Theodore Roosevelt and the party leaders.

Future political contests in Pittsburgh will be between the two great parties, Republican and Democrat. The question of results will depend entirely upon the character of the candidates and the platforms upon which they go before the voters. Speak for the Republican party in Pittsburgh. I will say that it will nominate clean, capable men, upon a sound, progressive platform which will mean a stable, safe administration of municipal affairs for the advancement of all the people of this great and growing municipality.

Chairman Leslie sent this telegram to Chairman Penrose:

> Pittsburgh gives Roosevelt a majority of at least 25,000. Henry Godfrey elected from Fourth legislative district, giving solid delegation in the legislature from Allegheny county.

Secretary Charles A. Muehlbronner of the Republican county committee was pleased and proud while the returns were coming in, but he said he was not a bit surprised.

"Of course we worked hard this campaign," Muehlbronner said. "Even though we knew that in the nature of things Allegheny county would give Roosevelt a great majority, we worked like Trojans to make it the greatest a candidate for the presidency ever received.

"And the hard work of the members of the committee and of the workers generally was amply rewarded. Everybody was loyal; there was no sulking. As much enthusiasm was displayed as if the county were a close one and it required herculean efforts on the part of the party to beat the other side even by a small majority."

Wonderful Tribute to Roosevelt.

Ex-Senator William Flinn was at headquarters for a few minutes. When asked for an expression, he replied:

"There is not much to say. The figures tell the story of the desire of the people to retain the Republican party in power. It is a wonderful tribute to Roosevelt. There is no parallel in history since the day of Jackson."

A happy man at headquarters was Joseph G. Armstrong, the coroner-elect. In his home ward, the Twenty-ninth, there was a Republican gain of 235 votes. The gain in Etna, the home of Chairman Ford, was also heavy.

There was great enthusiasm as the returns from the close states came in. There was an equal amount of applause for the great showing made by the party in this county. It was especially gratifying to hear that Henry Godfrey, Jr., had been elected to the assembly in the Fourth district. The last Republican member from the district was G. W. Richards, who served in the session of 1885. Godfrey's majority will be 357.

In some parts of the Thirty-first congressional district attempts were made to defeat James F. Burke by the use of stickers on which was the name of H. K. Porter, the present congressman. The trick was not successful. Porter says he had nothing to do with the scheme.

NEW HOUSE IS SAFELY REPUBLICAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Chairman Babcock tonight announced the house of representatives is safely Republican. He counts on a majority of at least 50 although returns from states received show 64 majority. Figures from the western states are very meager and he permits a discount of 14 members, although some of the districts counted doubtful are assuredly Republican.

NO RECORD FOUND HERE OF HAGERSTOWN NEGRO

Superintendent of Police Wallace yesterday received a letter from Albert J. Long, district attorney of Hagerstown, Md., asking for information regarding Charles Barton, who is under arrest there for the murder of a negro. It is alleged Barton was arrested in 1869 for murder of a ferryman in Allegheny city. Supt. Wallace made an investigation of the case yesterday and no records of a murder of a ferryman appears on the coroner's records or the trial lists of that year.

that Cornwell, the Democratic candidate for governor, has carried Marion county by over 300. Precincts reported are only one-seventh of the total. The county candidates on the Democratic ticket are running slightly ahead of the Republican. One Democrat, Scott Lowe, is far in advance of the remainder of the ticket. Returns are slow because of heavy scratching, Roosevelt being given the preference over Parker.

J. J. Cornwell.

CLARKSBURG, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt's majority in Harrison county is probably 1,000.

WHEELING, Nov. 8.—At midnight it looks as though the Republicans have made a clean sweep in Ohio county, and have increased their majority of 1,900. Cornwall has run ahead of his ticket, but probably has not overcome Republican gains.

MOUNDSVILLE, Nov. 8.—Marshall county has given Roosevelt probably 700 majority.

ELKINS, Nov. 8.—Randolph county, the home of Henry G. Davis, has given a Democratic majority, the increase being from 383 in 1900 to 1,000 approximately.

THE VOTES BY WARDS HAS INTERESTING FEATURES

Totals Show That the National Was Far Ahead of State and County Tickets.

The total of the ward vote cast in the 38 wards of Pittsburgh, as computed up to the hour that this edition goes to press, affords an interesting study. It shows in nearly every instance, both in the Republican and Democratic vote, that the supreme court and the county tickets are behind the national ticket. There was some cutting done—that fact can be seen by a study of the figures—but the greater part of this falling off is due to the fact, apparently, that the voters did not thoroughly understand how to mark their ballots. And this, too, despite all the explanation and warning against the making of what may be said to be a natural error that appeared in the daily papers of Pittsburgh. This same state of affairs holds good in the ward totals returned from the 15 wards of Allegheny.

When the totals of the congressional vote in the four districts embraced within Allegheny county are obtained it is almost certain that that vote will show a corresponding falling off when compared with the presidential vote. Fortunately, however, the vote is so large and pronounced that none of the four Republican congressional candidates are in any danger.

The totals of the ward vote in the two cities follows:

Ward and District.	President.		Supreme Court.		Coroner.
	Theodore Roosevelt, R.	Alton B. Parker D.	John P. Elkin, R.	Samuel G. Thompson, D.	Joseph G. Armstrong, R.	George R. Herst, D.

AVALANCHE, NOT LANDSLIDE

dent. The indications are that even Nevada has swung from the Democratic to the Republican column. All the Pacific slope states are Republican.

Thomas E. Watson of the Peoples party made a remarkable showing in Nebraska, running far ahead of Parker and the Democratic ticket. His showing is the comment of the national headquarters.

The result would seem to indicate the wreckage of the Democratic party as reorganized at St. Louis on a "safe and sane" basis under the leadership of Judge Parker. It would seem that the party was only united on the surface.

To Form New Party.

Democratic successes are confined to the solid south in which Kentucky is included, and Mr. Parker has not carried a single state which did not give its vote to Mr. Bryan four years ago. Unofficial returns indicate that he has lost some of those which the Nebraska candidate held for his party.

Nevada, which was carried by Mr. Bryan four years ago, is Republican, and the indications are that Montana, Idaho and Colorado, also Democratic in 1900, have gone back into the Republican column.

Late tonight came an announcement from Melvin G. Palliser, manager of the campaign for Thomas E. Watson, the candidate of the Peoples party, that as a result of the overwhelming Democratic defeat, steps would be taken to form a new party. To this end Mr. Bryan, Mr. Watson and William Randolph Hearst would hold a conference in New York in about a week.

COUNTRY DISTRICTS POLL BIG REPUBLICAN VOTE

Incomplete Returns Indicate That an Active Interest Was Shown in Election.

Returns from the townships, although incomplete, show that an active interest was taken in the national election. In many districts a large vote was given the Republican candidates.

Killbuck—Roosevelt, 42; Parker, 9; Swallow, 1; Elkin, 33; Thompson, 8; Stevens, 1; Graham, 32; Thompson, 7; Paden, 1; Esner, 34; Riley, 31; O'Donnell, 7; Deerman, 8; Hastings, 1; Anderson, 1.

Stowe—Roosevelt 134, Parker 37.

MONTANA IN LINE.

Republicans Carry the State by 10,000 or More—Heinze May Be Defeated.

BUTTE, MONT., Nov. 8.—Roosevelt carries Monatna by probably 10,000. Twenty complete precincts give Roosevelt 1,721, Parker 1,080, a Republican gain over two years ago of 418. Dixon, Republican, for congress same precincts, 873; Gormley, Democratic, 595, a Dixon gain of 123.

Chairman Mantle says if the same ratio of gain is maintained, which reports indicate, Roosevelt's majority will reach 10,000. Large Republican gains are made in Butte, which is usually strongly Democratic. Few returns have been received on the state ticket, but they show unexpected strength for Lindsay, Republican, for governor, though the re-election of Toole, Democrat, is generally conceded.

In Butte the fight is almost confined to the contest between F. A. Heinze and the Amalgamated Copper Company, and while no returns have yet been received, both Republicans and Democrats claim the defeat of Heinze.

Oregon Smashes All Records.

PORTLAND, ORE., Nov. 8.—Oregon will go Republican by 30,000, almost twice the majority given any president heretofore.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood, cures pimples, eczema and all eruptions, tired, languid feelings, loss of appetite and general debility.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it reliable and giving perfect satisfaction. It takes away that tired feeling, gives energy and puts the blood in good condition." Miss Effie Colonne, 1535 19th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

NORTH SIDE VOTERS LARGELY REPUBLICAN

Returns by Voting Districts Add to Great Showing of Republicanism in the County.

Up to the hour that this edition goes to press the returns from the 88 voting districts embraced in the 15 wards of Allegheny city were as follows:

MUST MAKE WAY FOR A JEFFERSONIAN PARTY

So Declares Populist Tom Watson of the Defeated Democratic Organization.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

THOMASON, GA., Nov. 8.—Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for president, said tonight:

"I am not at all surprised at the election of Mr. Roosevelt. Had the Democrats named a man against him who represented something more than a Republican shadow, the result would have been different.

"The people are ripe for revolt against the Republican party and what it represents. The seed sown by Bryan and other radical Democrats and Populists for the past eight years is beginning to bear fruit, and four years from now the harvest will be ripe.

"There will be a complete and radical reorganization of the Democratic party for the next campaign, or the party will cease to exist, making way for a real, live party representing the Jeffersonian principles of government."

GODFREY IS ELECTED IN FOURTH DISTRICT

Republicans Succeed in Giving Candidate for Assemblyman a Handsome Majority.

For the first time in many years a Republican will represent the Fourth legislative district in the state house of representatives. Henry Godfrey, Jr., has been elected over E. J. Kirby by a majority of 357.

The success of Godfrey was due to the vote given him by the First and Fourth wards. He had the support of Alderman S. J. Toole and Thomas Joyce in his home ward, the First, and in the Fourth the Democrats turned in for him. The vote by districts is as follows:

Fourth Assembly District.

Ward and District.		Henry Godfrey, Jr., R	Edward J. Kirby, D.	Ward and District.		Henry Godfrey, Jr., R	Edward J. Kirby, D.

The total vote was as follows: Godfrey, 1,943, and Kirby, 1,586.

LANDSLIDE WAS BUSY IN THE TUBE CITY

McKeesport Vote Over 7 to 1 in Favor of Roosevelt—McKinley's Majority Exceeded.

More than seven McKeesport electors were for Roosevelt for every one that voted for Parker. A total vote of 4,677 was cast, of which 4,050 were for the Republican and 546 for the Democratic ticket.

Roosevelt's majority in McKeesport was the largest received by any presidential candidate in that city, exceeding McKinley's by about 2,000. The vote of Republican candidates for county offices will fall only a little short of the head of the ticket. Delay in arriving at the exact vote of candidates other than the presidential nominees is delayed by reason of disputed ballots, many having been incorrectly marked.

The presidential vote by wards follows:

Ward.	Roosevelt.	Parker.
First	322	31
Second	475	40
Third	560	29
Fourth	175	51
Fifth	335	63
Sixth	485	59
Seventh	526	158
Eighth	408	47
Ninth	173	9
Tenth	298	27

GRAFT PROBERS ARE IN EARNEST

Attorneys Haymaker and Marron Resent Being Implicated in Bribery Charge.

LIBEL SUITS MAY FOLLOW

The Allegheny graft investigation has assumed another phase. It is probable that District Attorney Stewart and Attorneys Haymaker and Marron will take some legal action today that will be in the nature of an emphatic answer to the publication made in yesterday's issue of the Dispatch of an alleged interview with Attorney Thomas M. Marshall, Jr. Mr. Marshall is the attorney of the Allegheny city officials against whom the graft exposure has thus far been directed. In the interview referred to he was quoted as saying that the district attorney and Attorneys Haymaker and Marron were to be charged with bribery in obtaining testimony.

Mr. Marshall has made denial of what he is credited with saying regarding Maj. Stewart and Messrs. Marron and Haymaker. However, Mr. Marshall admits that he said some action would be taken against certain persons working for the district attorney because of their alleged attempts at bribing those whose evidence is sought by the district attorney.

Question of Veracity Raised.

It is a question of veracity, Mr. Marron says. He and Mr. Haymaker had a long conference yesterday with Charles A. Rook, one of the principal owners and the president, editor and manager of the Dispatch. In response to their demand for the name of the man who wrote the interview, Mr. Rook called in the reporter and allowed Messrs. Marron and Haymaker to question him. The reporter insists that the printed interview with Mr. Marshall was just as the latter gave it verbally. On the result of the decision arrived at in this dispute depends entirely what action shall be taken by Messrs. Stewart, Haymaker and Marron.

"We shall have nothing to say until tomorrow," said Mr. Marron, when questioned. "After talking with Mr. Rook we agreed to wait for 24 hours before doing anything. Mr. Marshall denies speaking as he is quoted, while the reporter declares his story is not erroneous. It is simply a question of who is telling the truth, and we are awaiting until the doubt is removed. What we decide to do will be made public tomorrow."

Mr. Marshall says: "I did not mention the names of the attorneys, and I had no idea that my statement would be so construed. What I did say was that there would be some proceedings against those who are gathering evidence, and that there was evidence that they had offered money to probable witnesses. I do not know when these proceedings will be begun. But I was misquoted, in part, in the story that was printed this morning."

Still Pursuing Sue Williams.

The Allegheny police are to make three more informations against Sue Williams, whose testimony against Capt. James Wilson resulted in the latter being held for court on criminal charges. She is to be charged with selling liquor illegally, selling on Sunday and with keeping a disorderly house. This will be the third charge the police have made against Mrs. Williams since she declared before Alderman Toole that she paid Capt. Wilson $100 for the privilege of opening her house at 62 West Robinson street after it had been closed by the police.

"Will any intelligent person misunderstand the obvious motives of the Allegheny officials in considering their persecution of Mrs. Williams?" asked Attorney Marron yesterday. "They are going to have revenge on one woman because she refused to hide their sins from the public. When the investigation started the Allegheny officials unanimously declared they would welcome it, as they said they had nothing to fear. Does this action against Mrs. Williams give any one reason to believe that they were sincere when that statement was made?"

In contradiction of the statement made by Superintendent Campbell of the Allegheny police that the suit against Mrs. Williams had not been prearranged, Attorney Marshall asserts that he advised such action. This confusion of statements has resulted in a lot of guessing in Allegheny as to whose word should be taken when such disputes arise. Something of this sort was mentioned yesterday to former Recorder John R. Murphy, and he replied, laughingly:

"I wonder who is advising those fellows."

WOMAN ALMOST HANGED.

Mrs. Savage Tells a Story About Her Husband That Suggests He Is Rightly Named.

E. B. Savage, a paintmaker, living at No. 1102 Ivanhoe street, was arrested yesterday on complaint of his wife, who said he tried to kill her by choking her with a rope.

Mrs. Savage told Superintendent McQuaide her husband makes $20 a week and notwithstanding compels her to work as a house servant. She has been for some time in the employ of Judge M. W. Acheson in Amberson avenue. When she went home last Saturday night she says her husband abused her and finally told her he was going to break up housekeeping and that she had better begin to pack up her clothes. She said she got a drygoods box and was putting her clothes in it when he threw a rope about her neck and choked her. While she was in that condition she says he tied the rope around the box and threw it over the banister and she was almost choked to death. Her screams frightened him and Savage left the house and did not return.

The woman showed welts on her neck a half inch thick. She made information against her husband for aggravated assault and battery.

Post-Election News for Men.

As a bit of post-election news we ask men to look over the following items pertaining to correct dress, no matter whether they are in dumps over their favorite candidate losing, or are somewhat hilarious over their favorite candidate winning. In each case the thing to consider is that the greatest assortment is here, as well as finest goods for less prices.

New Styles in Men's Waistcoats.

We start out boldly by saying there isn't a prettier line of Fancy Vests in Pittsburg than is to be seen in the Men's Clothing Department, second floor, East.

There are handsome designs in linens, in cloths, in flannels and in mercerized fabrics—single-breasted and double-breasted. Correct shades in grays and browns, white backgrounds relieved with stripes or figures in perfectly contrasted colors.

Our prices for these late style Fancy Vests, $2.50 and up to $6.00.

NOTE—We pay particular attention to the "matching" of material in these Vests. That is the back will suit the front material perfectly, the buttons will harmonize, the buttonholes will be worked with the correct shade of twist, etc.

Walking Gloves.

Our $1.00 Walking Glove is not surpassed for quality, fit or service—it is a great glove—great in looks, great for being inexpensive, great for being cut after an English style. Shown in the prevailing colors that men wear.

Walking Gloves made in England, especially for us, are sold here for $1.50 a pair.

New styles of Walking Gloves of gray Cheverette, an American production that is unequaled. These gloves have out seams and are embroidered in white and black. The price is $2.00.

Dent's Gloves are sold by us for $1.85 a pair.

Fownes' Gloves are sold by us for $1.50 and $2.00 a pair.

Men's Golf Sweaters.

All-wool imported worsted yarn, fast colors, blue, gray, white—two weights, heavy and medium, $4.00 each.

Neckwear.

Beyond all question we have the most elaborate exhibit of 50c Neckwear ever shown by this store. Fashion says Four-in-Hands, either 2, 2½ or 2¾ inches wide. Of these new styles we are showing a magnificent line and the price is only 50c each.

For men who prefer something finer we refer them to our imported styles for $1.00 and $1.50.

Neckwear and Gloves for Weddings.

Correct Wedding Scarfs in the proper shades of gray, Four-in-Hands, $1.00; Squares, $1.50.

Scarfs made to order from richest quality of imported English silks, $1.75 to $4.50 each.

Light gray Suede Gloves for the afternoon wedding, $2.25 pair.

Nightshirts and Pajamas.

Nightshirts of best grades of flannelette, 58 inches long, pretty colors and patterns, 75c. The heaviest flannelette, $1.00.

Pajamas, two grades, both in a liberal assortment of colors and patterns, $1.00 and $1.50 a suit.

Men's Hats.

Derbies and soft hats, made to our order, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00.

The famous John B. Stetson's hats, $3.50, $5.00, $6.00.

Victor Jay London Hats, $5.00.

Silk Hats, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00.

Imported Opera Hats, with glove pocket, $6.00.

Auto Caps in big variety, $1.50 to $5.00.

Men's House Gowns.

Made to our order in, and imported from, London, and our strongest guarantee goes with them. Of all wool, shown in different weights, $14.00 to $25.00.

New lines of imported wool Bathrobes, handsomest we have ever shown, $20.00 and $25.00 each.

Terry Bath Gowns, French, English and German make, $3.75 and up to $20.00.

Some Words in Favor of Bi-Focal Glasses.

"Put on specs" is Nature's command to people who arrive at the old age of youth—say around 45 or 50. Man is a constituent of Nature and she is an "easy boss," if you treat her becomingly.

If there is anything the average man or woman detests it is the first attempt at using glasses. All sorts of experiments are tried to avoid their use—the favored one being the holding of fine print afar off and squinting. No use, you have to have glasses, and you might as well get them first as last.

To beginners there is no glass so comfortable as bi-focal. If there is anything disagreeable it is to see a person continually putting on and taking off his glasses. Bi-focal glasses do away with that. Part of the glass is just plain, ordinary glass—the lens for near or far sight is what counts, and that should be adjusted properly to your sight. If you are in business you wear your bi-focals constantly, taking them off when on the street—if you want to. No mislaying of glasses, no putting on or taking off every two or three minutes—you simply have two kinds of sight with you always.

In our Optical Department we make a specialty of Bi-Focal Glasses, and can fit anyone inexpensively or as high as they want to go for a pair of glasses.

Wear a pair once and you will never have any other kind. $2.00 and up.

Men's and Women's Umbrellas, 85c Each.

Real Value, $1.25 and $1.50.

Everybody likes a "second" umbrella, and as a rule don't care to pay much money for it. If you are thinking of a new inexpensive umbrella, fill in the niche with one of these we offer at 85c.

For men, 26 or 28-inch, fast black gloria, tight roll. Fine natural handles.

Silk Velvet Hats, Ready to Trim, $3.50.

Hand-made hats in black, brown, navy, cardinal, light blue, gracefully draped on frames, neatly tucked or shirred. There are twelve leading shapes for you to select from. These hats should sell for $5.00, but to gain new friends for the department we place them on sale today at $3.50, the lowest posible figure for first-class velvet hats.

We have other lines in velvet shapes, all good values for the price at $1.50 and $2.50—for the money none is to be had in better style or quality, and none is better made.

Fine Ostrich Plumes.

The most correct trimming for the velvet hat is ostrich plumes. The following low prices are for fine Egyptian Plumes, black or white with French Head.

$1.50 for 12-inch plumes, worth $2.00.

$2.00 for 14-inch plumes, worth $2.50.

$3.50 for 16-inch plumes, worth $4.00 to $4.50.

$5.00 for 18-inch plumes, worth $6.00 to $7.00.

$6.00 for 22-inch plumes, worth $8.00.

Our $4.75 Trimmed Hats.

The collection of hats which we are selling at $4.75 each has proven a most attractive feature of the Millinery Department. They are copies of the French styles, and are worth $8.00 and $10.00. Only the finest materials are used, and they are up to date in every respect.

A New Preparation For Making Rough Skin Smooth.

It is called "Richine."

It is guaranteed to cure all roughness and chap.

It is perfectly harmless, being chemically pure and possibly one of the best preparations ever offered for the skin.

It may be seen at the Toilet Counter. Only 25c a bottle.

The Slaughter of Turkeys

All on Account of Our Fifty-Cent Thanksgiving Turkey Dinners.

Twenty-four turkeys carved Monday, thirty-four yesterday! Thus does an innovation lead at once into popularity.

And the best of it is more men coming to our Restaurant for their noonday meal than we ever saw there. Turkey wins every time.

Today and every day up to and including the 23d of November, Thanksgiving Turkey Dinners, and half-a-dollar is the tax.

Gift Suggestions for November Brides.

One of the most satisfactory presents that was ever tendered to the parties of a wedding is a handsome picture. Such a present is complimentary to both bride and groom, and may always be had to suit the finances of any purchaser.

We are showing some particularly handsome numbers at from $10.00 to $150.00, including oil paintings of real merit, and very artistic photogravures.

Oil Paintings, handsomely framed, $12.00 and up to $150.00. You will be surprised at the really meritorious productions we can show you in oils at $35.00 to $50.00.

Beautiful Photogravures, entirely new subjects, exquisite conceptions in color, $15.00, $20.00, $25.00.

We have decidedly the largest and best collection of framed pictures at $5.00 to be seen anywhere in the country.

The above pictures are all to be seen in the regular picture galleries, fourth floor, West. The following special numbers on the first floor, foot of Mezzanine stairs:

A collection of 25c Pictures. Many of these pictures have been reduced from much higher prices and all were selected with taste.

A collection of Cabinet Frames at 50c each. This is an unusually pleasing line of gold plate frames. A variety of styles.

New Handkerchiefs—for Men and Women.

The men's handkerchiefs will be found in the haberdashery store; the women's handkerchiefs in the regular handkerchief department, first floor, East.

Men's Handkerchiefs from Paris.

We are showing the newest Paris linen and silk and linen handkerchiefs for men, in white and colors. Many novelties that will prove acceptable as Christmas Gifts.

White linen, hand-hemstitched, narrow hems, 75c, 85c, $1.00 and up to $2.50 each.

Block Letter initialed handkerchiefs, 75c each.

Colored silk and linen handkerchiefs, neat or elaborate colors, 50c to $1.50 each.

Women's Imported Handkerchiefs.

We have just received two cases of new handkerchiefs, direct from Belfast, Ireland. The latest designs embroidered on fine, sheer linen. It might prove an economical idea to anticipate your Christmas wants, as there is a large assortment of handsome patterns, which later may cost more than the present price of 25c each.

Women's hand-embroidered initialed handkerchiefs, block or script initial, sheer or heavy cloth, 25c each.

Women's very fine sheer linen handkerchiefs with small block initial, 25c each.

Everything for Every Game in Our Athletic Department.

Our Athletic Goods Section carries one of the most complete lines of Sporting Goods in the greater city. We can rig out a football eleven for less money than the manager of most teams would dare to expect.

In fact, we allow a very liberal discount to all clubs of whatsoever nature—football, basketball, hockey, etc. This also applies to the outfitting of gymnasiums.

Our line of men's and boys' sweaters is far above the standard set by any of our competitors. In proof of which assertion take our boys' $1.00 sweater.

Shaded French Script Visiting Cards.

Just out and shown by us simultaneously with their introduction by the leading Eastern stationers. The very latest style in social cards—

New plate in this new and very beautiful style of lettering and 100 of Crane's best Cards for $4.00.

Estimates for Wedding Invitations and Announcements, Reception and At-Home Cards, in the new shaded French Script style, cheerfully furnished upon application. A postal card or telephone inquiry will bring you the information.

Pennants and Flags.

In the East Basement the Pennants and Flags of all the leading colleges will be found. In felt and in silk. You may want to carry one for the Thanksgiving Football Game.

In the same department we make to order flags and banners of all kinds. We do this sort of work promptly and for very moderate prices.

Two Rug Offers Which Speak for Themselves.

We quote two prices today on room-sized rugs, either of which is far beyond anything offered by other houses in Greater Pittsburg. If you get the same qualities of rugs elsewhere you are almost certain to pay more money for them. If, on the other hand, our prices are met, in all probability the rugs will prove much inferior, $29.00 each, worth $35.00.

Very fine Wilton Rugs, in the size of 12 feet by 9 feet. These are fine enough for any room in the house, not even excepting the drawing-room or parlor.

$48.00 each, worth $65.00.

Imported one-piece German Rugs in the beautiful patterns known to the periods of Renaissance, Louis XV., Louis XVI. and Empire. These are very large rugs, 13 feet by 10 feet. A very limited number of them.

Daintiness for the Thanksgiving Dinner Table.

Sightly Dinnerware, Elegant Cut Glass and Snowy Napery.

For early Thanksgiving preparation this store offers many fine inducements—especially in new dinner sets and new cut glass, and the very best of table linen.

In what follows housekeepers will recognize at a glance something either singly or collectively that they should own. It is especially important to notice the money-saving opportunities presented in this Thanksgiving list.

Dinnerware and Cut Glass.

The designs are new and artistic, and the cut glass, particularly, represents the very newest patterns in these brilliant wares.

Dinner Sets.

American Porcelain Sets of 112 pieces, pretty floral designs, 2 covered dishes and 2 platters, $8.50, worth $10.00.

Charles Field Haviland G. D. A. Sets of 100 pieces, flower decorations, with all handles gilt, 2 covered dishes, at $20.00, worth $30.00.

Charles Field Haviland G. D. A. Sets of 100 pieces, beautiful decorations, with handles gilt, at $25.00, worth $35.00.

Set of Haviland & Co., 112 pieces, in a fine floral decoration, at $50.00, worth $70.00.

New Cut Glass.

Some of the newest things, all richly cut in the latest shapes and the purest blanks. Every one of these prices shows a clean saving:

Water Jugs at $7.50 each, worth $10.00; $8.00 each, worth $11.00; $10.50 each, worth $13.50; $12.00 each, worth $17.50.

Fruit Bowls at $3.00 each, worth $4.50; $5.00 each, worth $7.50; $6.50, worth $9.00; $8.00, worth $12.00; $10.00, worth $15.00; $12.00, worth $18.00; $15.00, worth $22.50.

Jelly Dishes at $1.50 each, worth $2.50; $4.50, worth $6.00; $6.00, worth $9.00; $7.00, worth $10.00.

Punch Bowls, at $39.00 each, worth $45.00; $42.00, worth $50.00; $52.00, worth $60.00; $100.00, worth $125.00.

Water Carafes at $3.50, worth $5.00; $5.00, worth $7.50; $6.50, worth $9.00.

Celery Trays at $3.00 each, worth $4.50; $3.50 each, worth $5.00; $4.50 each, worth $6.00; $6.25, worth $8.00; $8.00 each, worth $12.00; $10.00 each, worth $15.00.

Bonbon Dishes at $1.50 each, worth $2.00; $2.00, worth $3.00; $2.50, worth $4.00; $3.00, worth $5.00; $3.75, worth $6.00.

Flower Vases at $2.00 each, worth $3.00; $2.25, worth $3.50; $3.00, worth $4.50; $6.00, worth $7.50; up to $60.00, worth $85.00.

Flower Centers at $4.50 each, worth $6.00; $5.50, worth $7.00; $13.00, worth $16.00; $16.00, worth $22.50; $20.00, worth $30.00.

Water Tumblers at $5.25 a dozen, worth $9.75; $7.00, worth $10.50; $8.00, worth $11.00; $9.75, worth $13.50; $12.00, worth $16.50.

Napery and Ornamenta Linens.

The books of the Pittsburg Custom House show us to be among the largest importers of linens in the country. Consequently you may be sure of variety.

Tablecloths.

The tablecloths on which we quote prices are all new and handsome designs, which, we take it, is a matter of importance in selecting table linens.

$3.00 each for bleached damask cloths, two yards by three yards.

$4.00 each for bleached damask cloths, two yards by four yards.

$4.50 each for bleached damask cloths, two and one-half yards by three yards.

$6.50 each for bleached damask cloths, two and one-half yards by four yards.

$10.50 each for bleached damask cloths, two and one-half yards by five yards.

$14.00 each for bleached damask cloths, two and one-half yards by six yards.

$27.50 each for bleached damask cloths, two and one-half yards by eight yards.

Napkins.

These are shown in beautiful patterns that match the tablecloths.

$2.50 a dozen for bleached damask napkins, twenty-four by twenty-four inches.

$4.00 a dozen for bleached damask napkins, twenty-five by twenty-five inches.

$5.00 a dozen for bleached damask napkins, twenty-seven by twenty-seven inches.

Ornamental Linens.

We venture to say there is not a larger collection of strictly fine decorative linens in the country than shown in our linen section. And our prices are down to the lowest notch that can be named for thoroughly good qualities.

$1.50 each for hand-embroidered scalloped Table Centers—round, 18x18 and 20x20 inches.

$2.25 for hand-embroidered Table Centers, 24x24 and 27x27 inches.

$4.75 each for Cluny Lace Centers, 24x24 inches.

$5.00 each for Cluny Lace Sideboard Scarfs, 20x54 inches.

$6.75 each for Cluny Lace Table Covers, 36x36 inches.

Duchess Lace Doylies, $25.00 to $175.00 dozen.

Venise Point Lace Doylies, $60.00 to $235.00 dozen.

Venise Point Lace Centers, $35.00 to $100.00 each.

Wednesday, November 9, 1904.

Threats have been made by counsel for the Allegheny officials that prosecution for bribery may be attempted against the attorneys engaged in the graft prosecutions. These threats further discredit the Allegheny police administration. If that organization is as confident in its innocence as Attorney Marshall says it is, the public might expect it to welcome the investigation that has been begun and to co-operate with the district attorney's office in probing the charges to the bottom. That course would have inspired public confidence. The course that has been taken has aroused public suspicion that the charges against the North Side city have been underdrawn.

In Cincinnati yesterday a street car too heavily loaded backed down the hill, collided with another, carried it into a third and forced that one against a fourth. A man clinging to the rear platform of the first car was killed. Other passengers were seriously injured. The "accident" was of a type rather familiar in Pittsburgh, due to taking on a larger load than can be carried safely up steep grades. The remedy is to prohibit passengers from riding on platforms and to compel the street railways to run a sufficient number of cars to accommodate the public. This is a public right, and it will be enforced when municipal governments are so constituted that they perform the duties for which they are created.

The rigid censorship that has been exercised during the present war ought to render the histories of the conflict more interesting reading. Usually war histories become valuable only after time has made it possible for a proper perspective in review, but when the story of the Russo-Japanese struggle is told in volumes it will be comparatively fresh to the ordinary reader as well as valuable to the student of military affairs. There will be some compensating advantage, moreover, in suppressing the rhetorical flights that soar in a description written so as to end with a campaign. There are plenty of trained writers at the front, and when they can learn the meaning of the strategical moves on each side so as to incorporate it with their actual battle descriptions the result ought to be more satisfactory than the ordinary attempt.

Individuals of esthetic taste and the different art organizations in New York city have plenty to criticise just now with the defacement of the beautiful new subway by advertising posters and the attempt to restore the old City hall building. The sign question has not been settled yet and the City hall renovation injuries can never be remedied. It seems that some time ago it was learned that among other anachronisms the old buiding was not connected with the sewer, so repairs were considered imperative. The contract for the work included the entire building, outside and in, and one of the first operations was the use of sand blast to "cleanse" the stains of time from the marble surface. The beautiful building has stood as a landmark for nearly 100 years, so the glaring white had softened to a rich yellow, but the cleaning process scoured it until the exterior looks as though it had been whitewashed. The marble blocks had been delicately tooled to soften the appearance of the surface and the sand has obliterated these precautions, so New Yorkers are thinking of wearing goggles when passing in the vicinity of the building. The renovation is similar to the one taken by the city of Cincinnati some years ago when it thought that the bronze-green shade that the fountain had taken should be scoured off and the shiny copper newness restored.

Harrisburg is just now considering the creation of a park system that will do credit to it as an industrial city and as the capital city of the great state of Pennsylvania. The start has been made on a comprehensive plan, and if carried out with as much intelligence as has been shown in its inception it will afford an example to more pretentious places of what can be accomplished by an active and unselfish civic spirit. The system will, of course, take account of the capitol grounds as a central feature. From that beginning it will extend into other portions of the city. There is much territory in and about the city that will lend itself readily to park improvement, including the swamp along the Paxton creek valley. This land is not now valuable and can be bought cheaply. The city can drain it by forming an artificial lake that will become one of the most attractive features of the park. There are also picturesque slopes along Paxton creek that will lend themselves to the general scheme admirably. The agitation is being forwarded by a civic league, composed of some of the best people in the city, and they contemplate not merely the acquisition of a lot of park land, but its improvement in a manner that will contribute to the enjoyment and health of the people. In this latter respect they might give a few hints to Pittsburgh, which is very slow about making its parks all that they should be.

Election Results.

The Gazette's prediction that President Roosevelt would be elected by the greatest electoral majority and the largest popular majority ever given to a presidential candidate appears to have been abundantly verified. The latest details will be found in our news columns, but the evidences of a great popular landslide are so marked upon the returns as they arrive that there is no doubt of the fact that the Republican victory is the most sweeping the party has ever gained. Even McKinley's splendid majorities are dwarfed by comparison.

The most striking feature of the returns is the stunning force of the people's reply to the issue of personal integrity raised by Judge Parker. The mountain load of condemnation piled upon the use of calumny by one candidate against another will remain as a perpetual monument of warning against a repetition of that offense against the common decencies of life.

The returns further suggest that when a party takes up the issue of imperialism it hangs a millstone about its neck. No man who wants to haul down the American flag in any country where it has been deliberately planted will ever be elected to the presidency.

A feature of great significance is the vast difference between the vote for president and the vote for governor in Massachusetts. The astonishing vote cast for Douglass makes Canadian reciprocity a very live issue.

A result that is yet to be developed, but which is the subject of much concern, is the effect of the election upon the Democratic party. The possibility of a Bryan reaction which will carry the party organization over to the socialistic program which he has outlined for it, must be regarded as imminent. The so-called conservative wing of the party has made a record for incompetency and recklessness that makes Bryanism dignified by comparison. Judge Parker emerges from the struggle with less credit than any man who ever was a serious candidate. In a few days his own party papers will be telling him things which are rightfully coming to him, but which will be such as never before a defeated candidate has had to hear from his own party.

Election Betting.

To read some of the so-called metropolitan papers one might infer that the betting on the presidential election that culminated last night exceeded in volume the wagers laid on any previous contest. Not only professional gamblers, but well-known business men were said to have staked large amounts, while the confidence of brokers in the result was expressed in checks offered on curb or in exchange. In fact, the ratio of bets has been reported as a feature of the dailies and pronounced an accurate indication of public sentiment, except by those who favored the side that demanded odds. They had only to point to the record in 1884, when Blaine was defeated, although a favorite 5 to 1, and to 1888, when the betting was 2 to 1 that Cleveland would be re-elected, and Harrison won.

It is a question whether the stories of betting are not exaggerated, owing to the modern treatment of what some papers call news. A snowstorm that attracted no attention 25 years ago is now described under flaring headlines as a blizzard, and estimates are made of the cost to the city of cleaning the streets. Every hard rain has become a "cloudburst," and the ordinary thunderstorm has been magnified proportionately. Even the more conservative newspapers make such occurrences appear greater than they are by the prominence given them, so all accounts cannot be considered exaggerations. They might better be called symptoms of the times.

It is no doubt true that there are more fortunes than there were and that many of them were gained so easily that the owners are careless about taking risks. There has been an increase, moreover, in the speculative spirit, for the examples of millionaires making fortunes in a turn of the market have become contagious. There is connivance with wagers on horse racing and the disfranchisement of voters who have staked money on the result of an election is seldom attempted. It is this complaisance of officials which makes the enforcement of laws against poolrooms so difficult. But the moral of the question is plain, for an election is a serious matter which should be treated as a sacred right. The closing of the saloons election day is not only to prevent violence but to emphasize the character of the day.

Cuban Conditions.

Americans have reason to read with pride the report submitted to the Cuban legislature by President Palma of that republic, which shows favorable conditions in every department. If a person had predicted ten years ago that this fair island could be freed from yellow fever and made habitable he would have been derided as visionary. But the proof that this great undertaking has been actually achieved is shown by the fact that the only yellow fever case reported was one brought to the island, and this was so quickly segregated that the spread of the disease was arrested. The death rate has been lowered on the whole island, and especially is this evident in Havana, which has been practically made over.

The value of reciprocity to the trade in Cuba is evident from the increase of the exports of the island, which were $16,000,000 in six months, while the imports increased $12,000,000 in that time. There has been a steady gain in the government receipts, but the expenses must necessarily increase, so the president predicts that there is not likely to be a surplus for some time to come. Many public improvements are in process of construction and the debt of the new republic to the soldiers will be a burden for some years.

Claims by these soldiers of the revolution amounting to over $56,000,000 have already been allowed, and it is estimated that the entire amount to be paid will not exceed $57,000,000. But even this is a large amount for the new nation to assume at its very inception. Sentiment controls the disposition not to repudiate such obligations, although the soldiers who fought for the freedom of Cuba can share in the privileges of an independent republic freed from thraldom to Spain. Such a prospect might have kept many from pressing claims against a treasury which would have such a heavy load at the outset. But the argument that these soldiers made the republic possible is used with forcible effect, so that the possibility that the cause might have met defeat were it not for the intervention of the United States is not even considered.

Pittsburgh's Busy Mayor.

At the last moment Mayor William B. Hays signed the ordinances making free grants of the downtown streets to the traction monopoly. The franchises are obviously intended to exclude possible competing lines. It was some slight gratification to the public to believe the mayor hesitated so long over these measures because he was cogitating upon his sacred promises to the people that no more franchises should be given without just compensation. The mayor, however, explains the delay by the sententious remark that he was too busy to give the matter attention until the last moment.

But if the mayor never gave his promises a thought, his declaration that he has been too busy to think about the ordinances contains a suggestion that he has been serving the city in other ways. Other citizens, more or less engrossed in their private affairs, have found time to think about these grants of valuable privileges, for which no return is offered, even good service being denied the public, and many of them have found time to express their opinions. The mayor, slaving in the public service, has been busier than they. He had no moment free in which to read the ordinances or to sign his name three or four times until yesterday morning. Desperately hard put to dispatch the pressing public business, he had not time to hear the talk about a deal between corporate interests to pass these bills and only at the last moment did he find time to give them the sanction of his signature.

The faithful application of this public servant cannot be appreciated too highly. It is worth a great deal. It is worth several hundreds of thousands of dollars to the Pittsburgh Railways Company at the moment. Its worth to the general public is inestimable, until the general public shall learn what questions of moment so fully occupied the chief executive while the ten legislative days were rolling around. It is something, indeed, to console Pittsburgh citizens to know that their chief executive officer is always on duty and busier than anyone among them. They have lost an opportunity to establish the principle that public grants must be paid for, but they may expect that greater things than this have been under consideration.

Legislating in the Open.

Some days ago an alarm was sounded that the new capitol at Harrisburg might not be completed in time for the coming session of the general assembly. The superintendent of public buildings and grounds, to whom will fall the task of furnishing the assembly and committee rooms, showed some concern. Gov. Pennypacker, however, was not perturbed. He simply remarked the legislature might be compelled to meet out of doors, and cited as eminent precedent the fact that the magna charta was signed in the open air at Runnymede. He might have added that William Penn's purchase of his woods was also effected under similar conditions.

This pleasantry of Gov. Pennypacker's leads naturally to a train of thought. Suppose the Pennsylvania legislature was compelled to meet under the trees in capitol park instead of under the ornate dome of the state house. It would be economical. The session would likely be a short one. No doorkeepers would have to be paid where there would be no doors to keep. No bills would get mislaid in pigeonholes in the transcribing rooms. The usual business of committees would not be transacted in the usual way. The snow that ordinarily lies thickly over the green sward between North Third and North Fourth streets in January would be discouraging to snakes if not to the lobby. The gentle Susquehanna zephyrs coming up West State street from the water tower or whistling through the bifurcated branches of South would rival the best blowing that could be done by the fiery orators from the timber tracts near the Forty-first parallel.

With the sessions thus in the open, if there should be any bribery we might expect it to be in cool thousands—one might almost say cold. Skates would probably be frequent on the broad avenues leading to Walnut or East State streets. But the business would be transacted expeditiously. Even in the senate the previous question would be apt to overcome senatorial courtesy and the private secretary to his excellency would lose no unnecessary time in communicating to the august bodies the wishes of his chief. There might be some trouble in maintaining a quorum, and there might be a strong disposition on the part of the members to make an appropriation to shelter the monument of John Harris from the Dauphin county weather, but all things considered, the session would probably be a satisfactory one to all except the members and attaches. The governor's suggestion is indeed a pleasantry.

Huntington (W. Va.) Democrats tried to carry the election by filling the jail with Republican voters. This is not creditable to Grandpa Davis.

Allegheny officials who show such earnest resentment against the attempt to investigate charges of graft in that city do not show good judgment.

This telegram was received by The Gazette early last evening: "Parker house still in Boston. No thought of moving it to Washington."

Do Parker and Hill know, now, what the people think of their personal slanders?

Cincinnati has overloaded street cars that get beyond control on the hills, too.

It was rough in some precincts today, but it's much worse in Manchuria.

Pennsylvania went Republican, just as everybody expected.

Frank Higgins, too. Not a good day for the former judges.

Western university was too much for West Virginia.

Good government in the Philippines will continue.

It is as nearly unanimous as possible.

Who cares for Kuropatkin now?

The noisy night is over.

Talked of in Gotham

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—It was impossible to escape that election feeling today, and there are apparently mighty few free born American citizens who would escape it if they could. Still there was a Sunday calm in most parts of New York and one would hardly know there was an election going on if it were not for the fact the front doors of the thirst palaces are closed on a week day. However, there was no great danger of anyone dying of thirst, as all the side and back doors were open and the bartenders were as busy as upon any Sunday in the year, and that's being busy in New York. In some sections of the city there were a few fights to enliven the occasion and tonight the crowds around the bulletin boards in Park row and Herald square show the intense interest there was in the outcome. The blaze of oratory that wound up the campaign was a revelation to those of us who expected everything to be quiet and unanimous. In New York, however, as in many other of the so-called doubtful states, the interest was mainly in the governorship and the bulletins on the state fight were most eagerly watched. In the closing hours of the campaign the odds on Herrick, the Democratic candidate for governor, went to 2 to 1, which shows the sort of a fight that was made against him. At the same time the odds were exactly as strong the other way on the presidential ticket in the state.

As further evidence of the interest there were the great lines of people waiting at nearly all election places for a chance to cast an early vote. Sometimes as many as 100 voters would be lined up waiting for their turn. In the early morning it was tedious business with a chill breeze blowing, but after the sun came out the crowds became more cheerful and everybody seemed to be happy. As expected, it was found necessary to serve comparatively few of the thousands of warrants issued for illegal voters. Very few men are willing to take a chance on going to jail for the privilege of voting, and it is probable that many a man was thus scared away from the polls against whom there happened to be no suspicion.

Cupid Clogs the Game.

One of the features of the day was when Dan Cupid, the busy little god of love, stopped the grind of illegal voting cases long enough to make a couple of Pennsylvanians happy. Herbert S. Miller and Mary E. Hines of Easton admitted they had eloped, but as both of them are old enough to know their own minds there was no objection on the part of the law to hitching them in double harness. But magistrates and justices were so busy with the election today that it proved difficult to have the little affair attended to. After several unsuccessful attempts to get the knot tied, they reached the Tombs court where fully a score of men were lined up on charges of illegal voting. They were ready to give up in despair when Magistrate Cornell's sympathy was aroused and he delayed the election hearings long enough to clear the skies for the lovers. As the magistrate is not allowed by law to accept a fee, the groom took out a big roll and peeling off a ten spot, ordered cigars for all hands, including the prisoners. Mr. and Mrs. Miller then took a carriage for the St. Regis, where they will remain during their stay in the city.

Women Are Greatly Interested.

Dan Cupid could create only a temporary flurry in the vote market today, however. Even the women were greatly interested in the outcome and predicted the result with as much confidence as the party managers themselves. Returns were received at the rooms of the Women's Republican association, and also the Women's Lincoln Democratic club. The president of each today announced that it was all over but the shouting and each as confidently predicted their choice was a winner with no second in sight. Just the same, both club rooms were filled with members anxious to watch the figures. They couldn't vote, but they could show as much enthusiasm as their husbands and brothers. Tomorrow they will probably also be able to explain fully how it happened.

Truck Driver's Mistake.

When a careless truck driver and an automobile dispute the right of way and one or both of them meet with catastrophe, the ordinary pedestrian usually wastes very little sympathy, because both are inclined at times to make life miserable for the strollers. But one careless driver overreached himself in a way that pleases everybody, since the mayor was the victim, and the mayor is a very careful chauffeur because he believes in obeying the laws. The mayor's automobile was badly damaged and the truck driver appeared in court this morning with an inadequate defense. It therefore cost him at matter of $10 and costs. Hereafter he will look carefully at the occupant of an auto before giving him a bump from a wagon tongue.

She Says They Are Genuine.

Anna Held was given a taste of the dangers of driving in crowded streets today when going to the theater for the election matinee. Her runabout was struck by a car in Fifth avenue near Thirty-fourth street and one of her prize ponies severely injured. Miss Held was only injured in her feelings, which cost her a flood of tears that almost delayed the performance. Incidentally she dropped a bag containing all the jewels with which she bedecks herself at every performance and they are said to be worth $150,000. Her loss was not discovered until a chorus man who was in her company last year arrived at the theater with the bag of wealth thrown over his shoulders. Miss Held had been too busy weeping over the injuries to her pony to think of a little thing like a bag of jewels. Perhaps they are stage property jewels anyhow, who knows?

Economical Bachelor Maids.

Four bachelor maids occupying an apartment together have hit upon the plan of having their weekly day at home at a cost of $2. They rarely serve more than tea and coffee and wafers, but they make up for the lack of luncheon by giving everybody who comes such a good time they don't care. The four girls are unusually bright and they rack their brains all week for novelties in the way of entertainment for their guests. All sorts of clever ideas have resulted and the "at home" of these particular bachelor girls is becoming one of the events of the week looked forward to by their immediate circle of friends. When the story of their wonderful economy gets abroad, perhaps something may happen that will break up this congenial party. You never can tell when Cupid is likely to interfere with one's plans.

Nips of New York News.

A child of three years was burned to death in an election bonfire in the lower East Side today.

An enthusiastic sure-thing man tried to collect an election bet today almost before the polls opened. Instead he collected a pair of black eyes and the magistrate collected the fee.

The body of an infant was found in the rest house in Washington square today. It had evidently been burned to death.

Mayor McClelland has granted 37 licenses in the Tenderloin district for saloons to remain open all night. This is six more than were granted last year.

Now let us forget what has been said about some of the candidates.

The Quiet Observer.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

It comes but once in four years, but it is sure to come. What a good thing it is that it doesn't last the whole year long, as does leap year.

The night following election day is sure to be a wild and woful night, woful to those who want to rest, but wild to those who become wrought up to a high pitch during the closing hours of the campaign.

Naturally the boys and hoble-de-hoys, who are fonder of noise than of quiet, and enjoy a regular hip-hurrah, uproarious, ripsnorting old time more than a political victory, join in heart and hand, with horns and bells and various noise-making devices to lend eclat to the occasion.

You have heard these election night echoes before and maybe cursed them, too, fearing they might never cease ringing in your ears. But they did, and now you are bold to say that you never before heard anything like the racket made around the newspaper offices last night.

How fortunate that we do and can forget.

Blessed the forgetfulness that carries us so far away from noises that once detracted us that we can scarcely call back an echo of them.

How many such nights do you recall?

* * * * *

If you were here during the Hays-Tilden campaign you may be able to recall the long-drawn out turmoil of day after day until the days passed into weeks.

There wasn't as much noise, nor of great variety as in later years, but it was very intense. Men were not only anxious as to their particular candidate, but were fearful as to the final result, for never before nor since have there been such loud and bold charges of corruption as were launched by each party at the other.

Finding there was but small hope of settling the results in the usual way it was decided to leave the points on which the results hinged to a committee of 15, composed of five members of each house of congress and five associate justices of the supreme court.

Upon each of the several contested points the commission voted 8 to 7 in favor of the Republicans, which resulted in giving Rutherford B. Hays a majority of one vote in the electoral college.

This commission was dissolved only two days before inauguration day, March 4, 1877.

Just think of waiting from election day until inauguration day for the final count upon which the results depended. It was something fierce, to say the least.

* * * * *

The fact that the contending parties which were so evenly divided, did not break out into open conflict was a great surprise to the other nations of the world.

And the further fact that the returns showed that a majority of the popular vote was for Tilden, and that he quietly submitted to the decision of the commission, simply amazed foreign rulers.

Indeed, the action of Tilden and his supporters in congress and among the people in accepting this verdict, under protest, showed to the world that such a thing as a political revolt with resort to arms, would be an impossibility in this country.

And then the war feeling was still strong between the north and the south, which tended to increase the danger, particularly as the white vote in the south was practically a unit for the defeated candidate.

Such a political contest as this would not have been settled elsewhere on the face of the earth without bloodshed, and hardly without long continued war.

At the time, and even yet, the Hays-Tilden contest is generally regarded as a political scrap on a large scale, but coming generations will look upon it as a test of the stability of the republic, and the final result as proof conclusive that the people of this country are possessed of an abundance of that highly valuable commodity known as good common sense.

* * * * *

The tin horn was introduced as an instrument of torture on the night after Garfield's election.

A small boy who had yelled his voice to a whisper, and not wishing to be driven from the crowd, rushed into a tin shop in Smithfield street and bought a bunch of tin horns.

There being others who were also hoarse and sore of throat on account of much yelling, the boy quickly disposed of his stock, and rushing back to the tin store he bought all the man had on hand and ordered more.

So great became the demand for tin horns that tin workers were called out of their beds and set to work in several shops, while telegraph orders were sent to towns and cities around about for all the horns in sight.

The boy who discovered the tin horn nuisance made a pot of money out of it, while every tin shop in the city did a rushing business for a day or two.

The craze was taken up again during the following holiday season, and a prime nuisance on account of the plentifulness and cheapness of tin horns; also the plentifulness of buyers and tooters.

Since then the tin horn has been strongly and noisily in evidence on all occasions of public rejoicing or celebrations of any sort.

And why not use an insensible and very cheap tin horn instead of your sensitive throat as an instrument of noise?

* * * * *

Election day belongs to the sovereigns of the land, the voters; but the night thereof belongs to the boys who are yet to become voters.

Nor do they forget it, nor neglect to claim and to exercise their privileges to the fullest extent, as do some who possess the rights and privileges of sovereign voters.

While the fuss and racket of election night is hard on the grown-ups it is the making of the boys.

There can be no doubt that the boys who take part in election jollifications will take more interest in elections when they come to have votes than those who take no interest in such noisy outbursts and stay indoors to save their nerves.

While this noise and racket will have no effect on the results of yesterday's election it will, in some degree, effect the results of elections to be held four years hence, and even a score of years hence.

Therefore let the boy have election night for his very own, so that when he is admitted to the privileges peculiar to election day he will regard it as a promotion, and will feel that he should take part as actively as he did while a member of the election night gang.

You see, there is an eternal fitness in things, even in such discordant noises and wierd displays as greeted the wayfarer on the streets last night.

Caught in Its Ordinary Mood.

Mrs. Philip K. Sheridan has refused to have her illustrious husband buried in the National cemetery at Arlington unless a promise be made to her that she could be buried beside him, and this determination will doubtless result in a complete revision of National cemetery laws.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Gen. Sheridan was buried there more than 16 years ago and this question was already settled at that time. Not only the departed wives, but the sons of general officers are received for interment in the National cemetery at Arlington.—Oil City Derrick.

About the State

Down on the Farm.

A. C. Kellam, the Ridgway gentleman who won fame some months ago by catching numerous skunks that were after his bees on Mount Pisgah, just north of the Ridgway house, is entitled to new honors. He has just harvested two Hubbard squashes from this same mountain, which weighed together 48 pounds—24 pounds each. People who saw the product of Mr. Kellam's skunk farm declared they were certainly "some pumpkins!" It is but fair to add that Mr. Kellam declares he did not himself apply any fertilizer to the ground whatever.—Ridgway Advocate.

John Sell, the well-known Upper Yoder township market gardener, brought to the Tribune office a ripe tomato, grown from seeds procured from the early shipments of the fruit from the south. Mr. Sell has quite a lot of these tomatoes on the vine, but the frosts will prevent many of them from ripening.—Johnstown Tribune.

J. S. Baird of South Huntingdon township, brought to Rhodes & Bradley's grocery on Tuesday the largest pumpkin ever seen in Scottdale. It was raised by him and weighs 90 pounds. The pumpkin will be cut the day before Thanksgiving and sold. Mr. Baird says pumpkins of the same variety have been known to grow to weigh 150 pounds. A turnip weighing 4½ pounds was also brought in by Mr. Baird.—Scottdale Observer.

Nearly all our farmers finished husking their corn last week and some have their corn fodder hauled in and since they have been hauling their winter supply of coal and wood home and getting ready for winter, so when cold weather comes and snow comes they can take it easy and not work out in the cold.—Belleville Cor. Lewistown Gazette.

Up in the Timber Belt.

Some rather strange things have been noticed by different people this fall. Some have told about seeing new birds' nests containing fresh eggs not long ago, and one man has found potatoes that had sprouted and commenced to grow again. Your correspondent has seen some onions that have sprouted and are growing at the present time, also some dahlias that sprouted and commenced to grow again. Some think that such things indicate that we will have no winter, but the weather has averaged rather colder than usual so far this fall, although we have had a few pretty warm days.—Marshland Cor. Wellsboro Agitator.

William Reynolds, Jr., aged 19, of Jersey Shore, went through what was for him an entirely new experience a few days ago. The young man had never before had his hair cut. The pleasure of going to the barber shop and having sweet smelling liquids, etc., poured on his head, which never fails to delight the youngsters, and the "joys" (?) of having hair drop down his neck, had until that never-to-be forgotten day been denied him. He was offered $3 for his hair, which was remarkably long, but refused to part with it. The queer young man had his hair cut in order to join the drum corps, which is organizing there.

Will Stevens, a 17-year-old Susquehanna county lad, recently killed a deer with an old rusty pocket knife. He saw the deer in a swamp and crouched down in a quiet corner with a stone in his hand. As the deer passed he hurled the stone and struck the animal, crippling it. The deer tried to escape, but the boy overtook it and struck the beast in the head with another stone. The deer turned at bay and rushed at the boy. The latter dodged and caught the animal by one of its hind legs. Both went down together and rolled over and over in the struggle. Stevens finally managed to get a grip on the deer's neck and with the pocket knife cut its throat.—Wellsboro Agitator.

York County Triumphs.

J. W. Zortman of Paradise township, York county, raised 130 bushels of corn on one acre.

Mrs. H. H. Wallace of Mulberry, York county, raised a red beet that weighs 13 pounds.

Daniel Mommert of Paradise township, York county, reports an ear of corn so long that he could not put it into a bushel basket.

John M. Brown of Fawn township, York county, raised from one seed 25 good sized and fine pumpkins, aggregating 432 pounds.

Ella N. Ebaugh of Stewartstown, York county, raised on less than a sixteenth of an acre 4,660 cucumbers.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Vigorous Old Age.

At the age of 74, Susan Ritter, who lives near Mt. Joy, assisted in husking corn last month, and proved to be as spry as of old.

Tipstaff Henry S. Shenck, though 91 years old, attends to duty just as of old. His venerable wife and he are in the 65th year of double blessedness.

William B. Ault of Manheim was a soldier in the Mexican war 57 years ago and a Union soldier in the 60's. He is in his 79th year and enjoys good health.

There was a joyous family reunion on Sunday at the home of Hiram Mowrer and wife in Mt. Joy, on the occasion of their golden wedding. Thirty or more of their descendants were present.—Lancaster Inquirer.

Here's an item. That vigorous, old Frosty Son of Thunder, John J. Gumbert of Pine Hill, 73 years old, worked a few days on the road last week and says it did him good. He put in a full good day's work, too, on each of these days. He says the supervisor, Peter Baker, is one of the best he has ever known and wishes he could have charge of all the roads in Brothers valley.—Meyersdale Commercial.

The Busy Hunters.

The first deer of the season were killed on Wednesday in the region of Gum Swamp shanty by Harry Law of Houtzdale and William Boyce of Winburne, each of whom killed one from a drove of five which they discovered. The distance was over 300 yards and the shots perfect.—Clearfield Journal.

Monday evening five wild turkeys were chased from their haunts on Brush mountain by the fire and took up quarters on Lime Kiln hill, near the borough. Their presence was observed by a number of local nimrods who bounced out of their beds Tuesday morning long before the dawn in order to be at their new-found retreat ere the birds sought refuge elsewhere. Merchant L. W. Irwin was the only successful hunter, having bagged a 10-pound gobbler. Councilman Joseph McCloskey came within an ace of getting a shot at three of them, but was unsuccessful.—Bellwood Bulletin.

Pittsburgh Skyscrapers.

While in Pittsburgh we embraced the opportunity to visit some of her skyscrapers, such as the Farmers National bank building and the Frick building. These buildings are worth anyone's time to see. A trip on the express elevators up to the twenty-first story and a view of the surrounding city from the topmost windows is an experience never to be forgotten by one who does not come in frequent touch with such buildings of high altitudes, and to the timid the sensation of being so high up is one of insecurity, a feeling of giddiness accompanied by a sort of fear that the entire structure is about ready to collapse under the weight of one's tread.—Punxsutawney News.

The Excitable British.

The deplorable and inconceivable blunder of certain ships of the Baltic fleet in firing on peaceful trawlers off the Dogger bank has elicited evidence that the English are among the most excitable and unreasoning of people. It is indeed fortunate for the peace of the world that the king and the government have not been carried off their feet by this clamor of another Mafeking mob, or by the inflammatory dispatches of British newspaper correspondents or the hysterical blustering of the naval, military and legal warriors who have, in the columns of a too compliant press, been breathing death and slaughter and thundering impossible reprisals.—New York Herald.

HONORS ENOUGH, SAYS PRESIDENT

Will Not Again Become a Candidate for Executive Office, He Declares.

GRATEFUL FOR INDORSEMENT

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.

President Roosevelt received the news of his election in his family circle tonight, calmly and modestly, and with the public announcement that he would not be a candidate for or accept another nomination for the office. He expressed his deep sensibility of the confidence imposed in him by the American people, and his deep appreciation of the full responsibilities. At the same time he promised to do all in his power to live up to the expectations of his country.

To say he is delighted is but a mild expression of the president's feelings. He did not hesitate to express to his family circle and the cabinet families assembled about him that he was surprised at the result. Later on he expressed himself as astounded at the size of the majority. The president remained in the private apartments of the White House until nearly 10 o'clock and then came over to the executive offices, where he received the Washington newspaper correspondents, a delegation of the District Republicans and the Old Boys' club and the Junior Old Boys' club, which serenaded him in front of the executive offices and appeared in uniform and bearing old fashioned Republican torchlights.

After receiving the congratulations of the newspaper correspondents, the president invited them to his private office, where he made this statement for publication:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the fourth of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

Later on he appeared at the window of the cabinet room in response to hearty cheers from the clubs outside and made this brief speech:

"I wish to thank you with all my heart, and to say that I very deeply appreciate the confidence the American people have shown in me, and that I shall do all that in me lies not to forfeit that confidence." (Cheers and applause.)

President Roosevelt is the first vice president to be elected to the presidency, and is the first citizen of New York to be re-elected at the end of his presidential term.

THE DEATH ROLL

Frank J. Mulholland.

Frank J. Mulholland, aged 46, for 22 years a member of the Pittsburgh bureau of police, and one of the best known officers in the downtown district, died at 3:40 yesterday morning at his home, 294 Forty-sixth street, of appendicitis, after an illness of about four days. For about a year previous to Mayor Hays taking office Mulholland served in the local detective bureau. He had been attached to Central station for nearly the whole time of his police career and patrolled Fifth avenue, between Smithfield and Market streets. During the last season of the exposition Mulholland had charge of the police squad on duty there. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church, Lawrenceville, where a requiem mass will be offered over his remains at 9 a. m. Friday. Mulholland is survived by his widow and two daughters.

Obituary Notes.

Robert Robertson aged 63, died Monday night at Wampum. He was a Presbyterian and an Odd Fellow. He leaves a wife and nine children.

Mark E. Morris, the head of the Mark R. Morris Company at Youngstown, died yesterday. He was born in Youngstown 32 years ago and was the only son of John H. Morris. He was a councilman at 23 and was elected in a Republican ward, although a Democrat. Later he was a candidate for the legislature, but was defeated.

SISTER IS FATALLY HURT ON MISSION FOR DEAD

While Coming to Erect Monument Over Brother's Grave, She Fell Off Train.

While coming from Iowa to this city to erect a monument to her brother, the late Rev. Father Mathew Carroll of St. Andrew's Catholic church, Allegheny, Anna Carroll was injured at Fort Wayne, Ind., and will die.

At Mercy hospital, where she was taken on her arrival here, it was said last night that it was doubtful if she could live till morning. Miss Carroll, who is aged 68, was for over 30 years housekeeper for her brother at the parish house, Beaver avenue, Allegheny, and after his death went to the home of her brother Joseph, at Churdan, Ia. On Thursday last while at Fort Wayne, on her way to this city, she made a misstep while changing cars and fell, dislocating her right hip. She urged that she be brought on to Pittsburgh and was made as comfortable as possible on the train.

When she arrived here Friday morning she was met at the depot by the Mercy ambulance and the physician in charge at once noted that she was in a serious condition, owing to the shock and cold. The fact that she is a suffered from bright's disease and her advanced age made it almost impossible to withstand the shock and exposure and her brother was telegraphed for. He is expected to arrive here early this morning and every effort is being made to keep her alive till he arrives.

Father Carroll's estate was left to his sisters and brothers with the stipulation that a monument be erected over his grave in St. Mary's cemetery. It was to carry out this request that Miss Carroll was coming to Pittsburgh, the monument now being in readiness.

Increased Majority in Vermont.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, VT., Nov. 8.—Roosevelt carried this state today by about 31,000. Roosevelt ran ahead of McKinley's vote in 1900, while Parker ran behind that of Bryan. The only question at issue was the choice of presidential electors. There were four tickets in this field, Republican, Democratic, Prohibition and Socialist.

Arkansas 40,000 Democratic.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Nov. 8.—Advices from all parts of the state bear out the estimates of a plurality of 40,000 for the Parker and Davis electors. The seven congressional districts are Democratic by majorities ranging from 4,000 to 6,000.

KEYSTONE STATE MAINTAINS LEAD

Republican Majority Will Reach the Phenomenal Figure of 346,000, Says Penrose.

PENNYPACKER IS PLEASED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 8.

Chairman Penrose at 10:45 o'clock tonight said the Republican gains, as shown from 16 counties, would give Roosevelt and Fairbanks a majority of 346,000. "It is a great victory for prosperity and an emphatic indorsement by the people of the administration of McKinley and Roosevelt," said the chairman.

Gov. Pennypacker was at headquarters with the state chairman and showed a lively interest in the reports from the various chairmen.

Congressman Lafean is re-elected in the York-Adams district. He carried Democratic York by 1,200 and Adams by 150. Both members of the legislature were elected in York and one Republican in Adams.

John M. Reynolds was elected by a majority of at least 4,000 in the Bedford-Blair-Cambria district. Senator Stineman was re-elected. The Republican candidates for legislature in Cambria and Blair were elected, and the indications point to a similar result in Bedford.

Luzerne county gave a Republican majority of 6,000. This insures the re-election of Congressman Palmer, another of the so-called "doubtful" candidates.

Reports From Different Counties.

Other counties heard from give Republican majorities as follows: McKean, 2,800; Montgomery, 6,000, which is 2,000 above the chairman's estimate; Dauphin, 6,800; Delaware, 10,000; Lebanon, 3,500; Jefferson, 3,000; Center, 700; Cambria, 2,500 for the national ticket; Lancaster, 15,000.

All of the Republican legislative candidates were elected in Erie, a gain of one.

Berks elected two Republicans for the house.

The entire Republican ticket in Potter country was elected by an increased majority. Westmoreland reported a Republican majority of 5,000.

If earlier reports in this city hold out the majority will reach 140,000. Schuylkill gave 5,000 and Congressman Patterson is re-elected.

Gov. Pennypacker expressed his gratification over the result. He said it indicated the satisfaction of the people with the prosperity they have enjoyed because of Republican policies, and that it was a deserved tribute to President Roosevelt.

"Pennsylvania maintains her lead over the other states," said the governor, "a result I fully anticipated."

Roosevelt's majority in this city is at least 140,000. The Republicans have elected 29 of the 32 congressmen.

Knox's Seat Assured.

They also have 25 of the 26 state senators and 175 of the 204 members of the state house of representatives. This gives them control of both branches of the legislature by a large majority, insuring the election of Gov. Pennypacker's appointee, Philander C. Knox, for United States senator to succeed the late M. S. Quay.

John P. Elkin (Rep.) is elected state supreme court judge by a majority almost as great as that cast for the national Republican ticket. Republicans have also carried nearly all the judicial districts in which elections were held for common pleas judges, and the five counties in which associate judges were chosen.

The city of Monongahela has given the entire Republican ticket big majorities in each of the three wards. The vote for president is as follows: First ward, Roosevelt, 243; Parker, 95. Second ward, Roosevelt, 242; Parker, 71. Third ward, Roosevelt, 341; Parker, 87.

From returns so far received it is estimated that Roosevelt and Fairbanks have swept Blair county by 6,000 plurality and the entire Republican ticket is elected. Elkin ran about even with the national ticket.

Reynolds Swamps Thropp.

Reynolds, Republican candidate for congress, has swamped Thropp, the Fusion-Democratic candidate by 3,000 plurality and carried the district by 5,000. In the hotly waged senatorial combat Jacob C. Stineman (Rep.) will have 2,600 plurality over T. H. Greevy, the Fusion-Democratic opponent, in this county and easily 4,000 in the district. For assembly, J. Lee Plummer and W. H. Irwin, Republicans, are winners. The Rev. R. A. Hutchinson and Samuel Stewart, Fusionists. Dr. J. A. Rohrer, (Rep.) of Altoona, is selected county treasurer. J. B. Kurtz is chosen district attorney without opposition, and Harry Pensyl (Rep.) is the choice for poor director.

Cameron county's estimated vote is: Roosevelt 475 plurality; supreme court, Elkins 475 plurality; congress, Dresser (Rep.) 470 plurality. The county in 1900 gave McKinley a plurality of 457, a Republican gain of 18.

The returns from Huntingdon county indicate that Roosevelt will have 2,200 majority. Elkins 2,000; Mahon, Republican candidate for congress in the Eighteenth district, 1,600; Stewart, Republican, for senator in the Thirty-third district, 1,000, and Hager and Schock, Republicans for assembly, 2,000. Joseph M. Woods, Republican, is elected president judge of the Bedford, Huntingdon and Mifflin district. In the county for director of the poor, J. Quincy Dell, for county surveyor; H. H. Swoope and Coroner Dr. F. L. Schum, all Republicans, are elected. The Prohibitionists polled a largely increased vote.

Republicans Carry Mercer County.

Returns at hand from Mercer county indicate the success of the entire Republican ticket in the county by pluralities varying from 1,500 to 3,000.

Partial returns indicate that Beaver county will give Roosevelt a majority of 3,000 to 3,500 over Parker. This is a gain over the last McKinley majority. The vote was light in the county and will poll 10 per cent short of that four years ago. Owing to the form of the ballot Roosevelt will lead the local candidates about 10 per cent, but the entire Republican ticket will be elected by a two to one majority.

From returns received by both Democratic Chairman Arthur W. Gilan and Republican Chairman John T. Pensenger it is known that Franklin county has been carried for Roosevelt and Fairbanks by at least 2,000 majority and the entire Republican ticket elected by majorities ranging from 1,500 to 1,800. Senator Alexander Stewart and George W. Kuhn, the only Republican candidates against whom a fight was waged, are elected by reduced majorities, defeating James F. McFerren and Charles D. Gillan. The other successful candidates are D. Edward Long, Republican, district attorney; S. V. Wingert, county surveyor; Jerome Detrich, director of the poor and W. F. Skinner, coroner. Congressman Mahon carries the county easily over Oliver C. Boers, who made McKinley speeches in 1900. In the second precinct of the Third ward of this town the vote for Senator Stewart and Mr. McFerren was a tie.

Sibley Carries Warren County.

The returns from Warren county indicate a Republican plurality for the head of the ticket of about 2,500. The vote in the county was unusually light, falling behind that cast in 1900, owing to the absence of Democratic opposition for county officers. The returns at 9 o'clock give Sibley, for congress, a plurality of 2,200 in the county. James Braun (Rep.) for assembly, and E. D. Everetts (Rep.) for county treasurer, had no Democratic opposition and received their full party vote. The Republican plurality in Warren borough will be about 500.

Roosevelt and the full Republican ticket carried Corry by 200. Bates carried Erie and Crawford counties and is elected for a third term in congress.

The returns indicate a plurality of 2,500 for the Republican presidential candidates in Venango county. Sibley will have a plurality almost as large and the returns from the other counties point to his election by a majority close to 5,000. Mageo and Osborne (Rep.) are elected to the assembly by a majority of over 2,000. McWhinney will be elected sheriff over Runninger, Democrat and Prohibition candidate, by 1,000 votes. This was the principal fight in the county.

Cooper Has Good Majority.

Returns from Somerset county are coming in slowly. They indicate a large vote with little cutting. The county will roll up its normal majority for Roosevelt. Many votes have been lost for the county ticket through mismarking. The returns so far indicate that Roosevelt will have a majority of from 5,000 to 5,500 and Cooper for congress, from 4,400 to 4,700.

At 10 o'clock tonight the returns from Clearfield county gave Roosevelt a plurality of at least 2,700; Elkin, 1,800 and Irwin (Rep.) for state senator, no opposition. Boulton and Scofield are elected to the legislature by about 1,500 plurality. Dresser, candidate for congress in the Twenty-first district, composed of Clearfield, Center, Cameron and McKean counties, gets at least 2,000 plurality in Clearfield county. The county ticket is Republican by a large majority.

Returns from about one-third of the 167 precincts of Westmoreland county show that the entire Republican ticket is elected. Roosevelt will have a majority of 4,750 greater than McKinley's in 1900. Huff, for congress, will lead the ticket with 5,000 and Seanor and Woods will have about 4,50 for sheriff and state senate. The Democrats sacrificed all their candidates for Clawson and his fight with Hitchman for controller was the only exciting one of the election.

Hitchman Is Leading.

In the larger boroughs Hitchman is leading by about 1,200. The returns from the country districts may change this majority and Clawson has hopes of winning. The assembly ticket was cut at least 500 votes. Rankin is running well for register and Mathews' election as county surveyor is conceded. The total vote will be in the neighborhood of 29,500.

Lackawanna, 33 districts reported, indicates the election of Dale, Republican, over Howell, Democratic candidate for congress. Huntingdon county elected elected entire Republican ticket and gave Roosevelt and Fairbanks 2,500.

Butler Republicans claim from 1,200 to 2,000 for Roosevelt.

It now looks as though the Republicans had gained a congressman, indications pointing to the election of E. W. Samuels in the Sixteenth district, composed of Montour, Clinton, Northumberland and Columbia. The Republicans have carried three of the four counties and Columbia will hardly give more than 100 Democratic majority.

In Northumberland, Godcharles, candidate for state senate, is elected; also candidates for the house by 1,600.

Clinton gave 500 Republican majority and Montour gave a smaller one.

Those Elected in Philadelphia.

The only semblance of a fight in Philadelphia was within the Democratic party, where a faction calling themselves the "Independence party" opposed the regular Democrats on the city and legislative tickets.

The following are the successful candidates, all of them Republicans:

Congress—First district, Henry H. Bingham; Second, Robert Adams, Jr.; Third, George A. Castor; Fourth, R. C. Moon; Fifth, Edward Morrell; Sixth, G. D. McCreary.

County—Judges common pleas courts, Mayor Sulzberger and Robert N. Willson.

Judge orphans' court, William B. Hanna.

City controller, John M. Walton.

Recorder of deeds, William S. Vare.

Clerk court quarter sessions, Thomas W. Cunningham.

State senate—First district, George A. Vare; Third, William H. Keyser; Fifth, C. L. Brown, Seventh, James P. Monicol.

The Republicans also elected Philadelphia's full representation in the assembly.

Roosevelt and Fairbanks ran slightly ahead of John P. Elkins, Republican candidate for judge of the supreme court, the only state office voted for this year.

The indications at 9 o'clock were that Orvis, Democrat, had won in the judgship fight in Center county, which was bitterly contested.

Several of those chosen at the polls yesterday to represent Allegheny county in the general assembly, which convenes at Harrisburg next January, have served in a like capacity before and are familiar with the public work they are called upon to discharge. The new members, those who have not heretofore served at Harrisburg, have the necessary qualifications to make them valuable members, and the Allegheny county delegation can be counted on to hold their own with the talent from any other section of the state.

TAKES EIGHT MEN TO COUNT THE VOTE OF ONE CITIZEN

Ballot of James Thomas, Only Voter in a Gotham Precinct, Entails a Cost of $250—Is Delivered With Ceremony.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—If all votes were as costly to the city as that of James Thomas, superintendent of the William J. Young lumber yard, the expenses of today's election would be in the neighborhood of $100,000,000.

James Thomas enjoys the distinction of being the only voter in the Nineteenth election district of the Twentieth assembly district, and his vote entails a cost of $250. The polling place has the usual quota of clerks, election inspectors and two patrolmen—eight officials in all—whose sole purpose is to enroll the Thomas vote and count it. There is but one name in the four duplicate registry ledges—that of James Thomas, 63 years old, of First avenue and Thirty-first street.

Mr. Thomas, being possessed of genial humor, never lets it be known when he is going to vote. Now and then he walks up to the door of the polling place and winks at the eight expectant officials, asking: "How is the vote coming out?" Then he will go on about his affairs, chuckling. Generally he waits until almost the last moment before casting his ballot, making of the act a ceremony which he performs with the greatest gravity.

This election district was once populous until the houses between First and Second avenues were torn down to make room for St. Gabriel's park. After this was done the only dwelling left in the district was that of Mr. Thomas. This is the last year he will have an entire election district to himself, as there will be a re-apportionment before the next election.

The election board had to meet four days as a board of registration to get Mr. Thomas' name on the registry list.

BRYAN WORKS LIKE BEAVER.

Labors With Disaffected Democrats to Vote for Judge Parker.

LINCOLN, NEB., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—William Jennings Bryan spent a large part of the day today out at Normal, working at the polls for Parker and using his personal influence among the voters there to get votes for the Democratic candidates. Early in the day word was brought Mr. Bryan that at Normal were a number of Democrats, his own friends, who were yet sore over Bryan's treatment at the St. Louis convention, and who had said they would retaliate by voting for Roosevelt. Bryan immediately went to Normal, where he spent several hours persuading the disaffected Democrats to vote the straight ticket.

MOURN OVER DEFEAT OF GOVERNOR BATES

A Real Misfortune, Unmerited and Undeserved, Said Senator Lodge of Massachusetts.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 8.—United States Senator W. Murray Crane tonight said:

"I deeply deplore the defeat of Gov. Bates. He has made an excellent governor, has been courageous and conscientious, and in all his public acts has done what he considered best for the people of the commonwealth. Of course I am, in common with all Republicans, much pleased at the election of President Roosevelt."

United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge said:

"I am profoundly surprised and most deeply disappointed by the defeat of Gov. Bates. Gov. Bates is a brave, honest man. He has made a strong, able governor, and his administration has been an honor to the commonwealth. He has acted up to his convictions and his defeat is a real misfortune, entirely unmerited and undeserved.

"The general result is as I expected. I rejoice greatly in it. It is a splendid and signal vindication of President Roosevelt and the Republican party."

Attorney General Moody said:

"The result is exactly as expected, and although for many months there has been no doubt as to the outcome of the vote throughout the country, the magnitude of the victory exceeds my hopes, and it is a source of intense gratification to me."

Of the Massachusetts election Mr. Moody said:

"If Gov. Bates is defeated, as the figures would indicate, I am very sorry."

SLEMP IS RE-ELECTED.

One Republican Congressional Candidate in Virginia Wins Out.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 8.—The election in Virginia today was absolutely without disturbance so far as has been heard. The Democratic majority on the presidential ticket will be about 25,000. Nine Democratic congressmen out of a total of 10 have been chosen. Slemp, the Republican incumbent in the Ninth district, apparently is re-elected by a majority of about 1,200.

People Prove That They Love Justice and a Square Deal, Says Treasurer Bliss.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Cornelius N. Bliss, the treasurer of the Republican national committee, said tonight:

"The result is magnificent. In this state especially the people proved, as they always will in an emergency, that they love justice and a square deal, and that they condemn the slanders that have been uttered against the president, Chairman Cortelyou, Gov.-elect Higgins and Gov. Odell.

"NO GOOD NEWS," SAID BELMONT

Democratic National Headquarters Were Enveloped in Gloom from Start.

THE COMMITTEE DUMFOUNDED

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Gloom prevailed at the headquarters of the Democratic national committee, from the time the first returns were received there till the doors were closed for the night. August Belmont, William F. Sheehan and Delancey Nicoll took possession of a private room and instructed the sergeant-at-arms not to permit any person to disturb them, and not to send any cards to them.

A few persons gathered in the main committee room to listen to the reading of the returns. Several hundred invitations had been issued, but the majority of those who received them preferred to join the crowds about the newspaper bulletins.

Long before 7 o'clock enough had been learned to make the employes of the committee certain that Roosevelt had been elected, and that nothing remained but to determine his majority in the electoral college. The figures fairly dumbfounded those who had been predicting Parker would win.

Mr. Belmont left the building shortly after 7 o'clock.

"What is the good news?" inquired a reporter.

"There is no good news," was the quick reply. "It looks like a landslide for Roosevelt."

"G. O. P." EXPIRES JUST AS THE POLLS CLOSE

He Was a Famous Coney Island Elephant, Christened by Chauncey M. Depew.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—"The G. O. P." gave its last expiring gasp just as the polls closed at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and there was dismay at Coney Island.

"The G. O. P." was a Coney Island elephant, a familiar beast at Luna park for two years, and a friend and comrade of thousands of little ones from all over the city. It was given its political title when Chauncey M. Depew visited the resort and accepted an invitation to climb into the elephant's howdah and take a ride.

The famous Republican visited the place several times last season, and always brought peanuts. "The G. O. P." learned to know him well, and his cunning eyes gleamed at his approach.

How a Good Wife Can Help

A Sensible Way to Save Money and Maintain a Proper Social Position.

It is a woman's duty to herself and society to see to it that her gowns and furs are always fresh and dainty. If she has a husband it depends chiefly on her whether or not he is always well groomed and well-dressed.

Of course it's easy to do this if you have unlimited money to spend. So few people have that they're hardly worth considering. How about the rest of the world? It's just as easy if you have learned to send your gowns, furs and your husband's clothes to Linnekin's to be cleaned or dyed as the occasion requires. Linnekin's new process is simply perfect in its results and does not injure the most delicate fabric. And Linnekin's prices are so low you will be agreeably surprised.

HIS FRIEND LOANED HIM FIVE

Also Handed the Young Man Some Advice of a Wholesome Character.

HAPPY THOUGH MARRIED.

The Married One Was a Living Illustration of How Far a Dollar Can Be Made To Go.

"Can you loan me $5?" asked a young man of an acquaintance on the street the other day.

The money was quickly handed over. The young man thanked his friend and said:

"How does it happen that you, a married man, can dress so well and still have money, whereas I, a single man, am always hard up for both clothes and money?"

"Don't you know?" was the reply. "Well, I'll tell you. You go to the tailor for your clothes. You pay anywhere from $35 to $50 for a suit or overcoat. I go to the Liberty Clothing Company and get clothes just as good as yours and probably better for a fourth of what you pay. I can buy several suits a year, if I choose, and still have more money than you. Just now the Liberty Clothing Company is selling suits for $7.50 that you couldn't buy in any other store in Pittsburgh for less than $15. And everything else has been cut in price. I advise you to add $2.50 to that $5 and buy a suit."

"I'll take your advice," and the man did. He never went to a tailor shop afterward. Here are a few samples of the big reduction in prices at this store:

Men's fancy Scotch mixture Pants; regular price, $4. Our Sale Price, $1.50.

Men's fancy Check Pants; regular price, $4.50. Our Sale Price, $1.75.

INDIGESTION

Leads to Chronic Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

HOW IS YOUR DIGESTION?

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Digests What You Eat, Sweetens the Stomach and Enables the Digestive Organs to Feed the Body.

(Unsolicited Correspondence.)

Spencer, Ia.—Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it.

Geo. A. Thompson.

Taylorsville, N. C.—It affords me pleasure to bear testimony to the most excellent merit of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have used it in my practice with the most satisfactory results and recommend it as one of the finest digestants known to the profession. Every person suffering with Dyspepsia or Indigestion should use it.

O. L. Hollar, M. D.

Crookston, Minn.—I have used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for a period of nine months, using in all four bottles, and I can say that it has cured me of Dyspepsia completely and I recommend it highly.

J. O. Sether, Traveling Salesman.

Allenville, Mich.—I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say that a dose of Kodol always gives me instant relief.

J. D. Erskine.

New Britain, Conn.—Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this most distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them.

I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here.

HON. JOSEPH SIBLEY.

FRANKLIN, PA., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—At midnight the indications point that Hon. Joseph Sibley, Republican, will be returned to congress from the Twenty-seventh district, with a plurality of from 8,000 to 10,000. His majority over Salem Hellman, Democrat, of Sharon, is estimated at 5,000.

PARKER, PLACID, VOTED QUICKLY

Deposited Straight Ballot After Pleasantly Greeting Neighbors and Polling Officials.

THEN VISITED HIS DISTRICT

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker, the Democratic candidate for president, cast his ballot in Kingston today at 10 a. m., and was given three rousing cheers by a crowd which had gathered outside when he left the polling place. The candidate lifted his hat to the crowd, shook hands with half a dozen persons, and then drove to a dentist's office, when, after having his teeth treated, he returned to Esopus for lunch.

The trip to Kingston was made with Secretary Arthur McCausland behind a fast team of black horses, the judge driving. The air was cool and bracing, and the candidate was in fine spirits, betraying none of the nervousness that a candidate for the highest office in the land could be pardoned for showing on the day of election.

Farmers, knowing at what time the judge would be driving along on his way to Kingston, left their work and lined the side of the road at their farms. At some farms other men, who have known Judge Parker for years, stood with their wives and children, and they cheered and waved handkerchiefs at the candidate. Judge Parker acknowledged all the greetings, saluting some of the farmers by their first names. All the way to Kingston were signs reading: "Don't forget to vote for your neighbor, Judge Parker."

The candidate was lustily cheered as he drove into Kingston, and entered the voting place of the Third district of the Ninth ward at 10:50. A crowd was outside waiting to see him.

"Good morning, boys," he said, cheerily, to the election officers.

"Glad to see you, judge," they answered, and hands were shaken all around.

He was handed ballot No. 147. He said he lived at 30 Pine Grove avenue, Kingston, which is the residence of his son-in-law, the Rev. Charles M. Hall, where Judge Parker formerly resided during the winter.

Judge Parker did not tarry long in the booth, and, coming out, handed his ballot to James Simpson, one of the officers.

"It didn't take you long to cast your ballot," said Simpson. "You must have voted straight."

The judge answered this with a smile.

ALLEGHENY CELEBRATED IN OLD-TIME FASHION

Republican Majority on the North Side Will Be 15,000, According to the Early Estimates.

With the same old-time enthusiasm that was displayed in the days of the Blaine and Logan campaign, the residents of Allegheny turned out last night to give noisy demonstration to their feelings. By the time the polls closed it was known that a big vote, equal to that of the last fall election at least, had been cast on the North Side. With clanging bells, screeching horns, and great bonfires, the city was in an uproar until after midnight.

In every part of the city fires were built in the vicinity of the polling places, and the police got orders to disturb none of these unless the life of the asphalt streets was endangered. The bonfire is a feature of political jollification that has not been seen in Allegheny for almost a decade.

During the day there was no excitement and nothing unusual to mark the advent of a presidential election day. There was a big vote in the early hours of the morning, and before the closing hour there was a rush of those who put off voting until the last minute. At midnight Chairman John H. Henderson of the Republican city executive committee declared that the result would show at least 15,000 majority for the Republican ticket in Allegheny. It is expected that the final count will show that 20,000 votes at least were cast.

Great crowds gathered last night in Republican headquarters, where the returns were received all night. Although there was no doubt as to the result this seemed to make no difference and every bulletin showing Republican gains in doubtful states called forth cheers.

In the first hours that the polls were open numerous mistakes were made by voters, whose ignorance of the new ballot created confusion. This was discovered early by the election boards, and those who voted later received instructions as to how to mark the apparently confusing sheet, so that no mistake would be made. None of the city officials were at Republican headquarters and if they got returns it was at some bulletin board or by the use of the telephone.

The Verdict As To Our Clothing Is Unanimous.

Among all the candidates for popular choice in the clothing field, our suits and overcoats receive the unanimous vote of all those who examine their qualifications. If you have not already investigated the merits of this attire, we would suggest that you do so before buying your fall wear. Right here let us remind you these offerings are

STRICTLY HAND-TAILORED CLOTHES

And are the product of modern organizations which create only garments in good form and of surpassing quality. Hand-tailored means that the coats and trousers will retain their shape, that there is an individuality and character about them which is so desired by every good dresser and which has been heretofore confined only to the very highest priced. These are some of the reasons why "Solomon" clothes are so unanimously chosen by careful clothing buyers who cast their votes in favor of the statement that There Is No Better Clothing Sold Anywhere.

Smart Paddock Overcoats

These elegant coats, as illustrated here from life, are sought after by dressers who wish distinctive style and character. They are garments which to be right must be tailored with utmost care and correctness—they cannot be imitated in inferior grades, and hence are confined only to the highest class of ready-to-wear apparel. Those we show are perfection in their ultra-fashionable lines and modish appearance. The fabrics are chosen from the best of domestic and imported woolens and every detail of workmanship, linings and trimmings marks our superiority of these coats. Most of these come in neat oxfords, greys and blacks, and the prices range from

$25 to $50

Three-Quarter Length Overcoats

A coat that is most favored by conservative dressers is a straight three-quarter length single-breasted overcoat, cut with broad shoulders, full and roomy. There can be no doubt about the serviceable and good test of such a garment, and the man who chooses one from our immense stock is sure to get something that will please him and give absolute satisfaction. Choice of fine kerseys, meltons and oxfords, with the best of linings and most careful hand-tailoring. Unequaled values at.......... $15 to $25

Men's Clever Suits, $15

A most pleasing selection of styles and patterns, in either single or double-breasted sack styles. Made of fancy cheviots and cassimeres, as well as plain colorings. These garments have distinctive style and character, and were never intended to sell at such an attractive price as.......... $15

Long Belted Overcoats.

The long belted coats of fancy materials is probably the most distinctively stylish and exclusive fashion of the season. We show a wide selection of colorings and patterns ranging from large indistinct plaids to small mixtures and oxford greys. The brown effects form a large part of this showing—in fact everything that is new and wanted can be found here. These coats have the broad shoulders, full, gracefully hanging backs and all the details which go to make a cleverly designed garment. These long, roomy overcoats are especially favored by the young men's trade and are just the smart effects which they like. Range of prices run from

Men's Short Topcoats

For present wear and until the real cold weather sets in, there is no garment so useful or fashionable as the short topcoat, made of fine coverts, in tans, olives or greenish shades; also black unfinished worsteds. Tailored with broad shoulders, hand-finished collars and lapels, and cut so as to preserve the smart boxy effect which is so correct. Some full silk lined, and all with satin sleeve linings. Priced from.......... $10 to $25

Men's Stylish Suits, $20.

Your Election Hat Should Come From Us.

Did you bet a hat on the election? If you lost pay your bet with a "Solomon" hat—if you won, tell the other fellow to get it here—and there will be general satisfaction all around. But whether you bet or not—here are "better" hats for the money than you will find elsewhere.

Men's $3 and $3.50 Sample Hats, $1.95

Here is a selection of high-grade hats that are sure to interest the man who appreciates getting a $3.00 or $3.50 hat at $1.95. We were fortunate enough to secure the samples of one of the largest concerns in the hat trade. These we landed away underprice—hence this startling offer. They are derbies and soft hats, in the season's best styles, with imported leather sweat bands, best of silk trimmings and superior finish. Choice of every fashionable color and all dimensions and sizes. This is a rare chance to get $3.00 and $3.50 hats at the low price of one ninety-five.

Men's Highest Grade Hats.

We have just received for the election trade a large shipment of Roelof and Stetson's fine derbies and soft hats, made by these famous hatters, in their best styles for fall and winter wear. SAYS HE CAN WIN ON ALL POINTS

Larkin Claims He Has Law and Also Evidence to Prove Corruption.

NEW ORDINANCE IS EXPECTED

"I can win the filtration bond case on either questions of law or upon the charges of corruption which I have made," said Controller Larkin yesterday. "The decision in the Scranton case, which was published in The Gazette today, is a knock-out blow at the administration," he added. "It establishes a strong precedent, as it is the first time that this point has ever been tested in court.

"It is a coincidence that it was my attorney, George W. Guthrie, who drafted this section of the new charter act. We were confident that we would win on this point if we won on no other, and the Scranton decision makes the law so plain that I cannot see how any other court can hold a different view.

"The administration is up against it, good and hard," said the controller. "It will have to put another ordinance in councils and it will have even a harder time to put it through than it had with the other ordinance.

"I can win this case on all of the three propositions: That the bond ordinance was passed by corrupt means; that the finance committee has no power over the controller and cannot issue the bonds, and on the point decided by the Scranton judge—that all bonds for public improvements must be made payable annually and not every five years, as the ordinance provides."

"The controller is sure to win," said his assistant, E. S. Morrow, "but I believe the administration has gone too far to turn back now. It will go ahead with the case pending in court, even with the certainty of losing, as there are a number of other points raised by the controller besides the one settled in the Scranton case, which are to be determined so that the administration will be in better form to draw a new ordinance. Unless all points raised by the controller were settled by court no person would buy the bonds."

TERMS OF SURRENDER OFFERED TO GARRISON

Gen. Nogi Ignores Gen. Stoessel and Sends Letter to the Latter's Soldiers Direct.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHEFOO, Nov. 8.—The Japanese besieging Port Arthur, ignoring Lieut. Gen. Stoessel, the commander of the Russian military forces there, have offered terms of surrender to the Russian soldiers, according to advices leaving Port Dalny yesterday. In the meanwhile the Japanese are gradually advancing their trenches, which spell inexorable fate to the watching Russians.

A Russian prisoner captured October 26 said the troops composing the garrison of Port Arthur were in want and dispirited. They saw the fruitlessness of the struggle. Hopeless of relief, with food scarce and medicine and hospital supplies insufficient, it was admitted by the Russians that a Japanese victory was ultimately inevitable. The soldiers, according to the prisoner, see no reason to prolong the resistance which brings glory to their officers, but chiefly hardship and death to them.

Upon hearing the prisoner's story, Gen. Nogi assembled his staff, discussed the matter briefly, and then, under the light of a bicycle lantern, drafted a letter to be circulated among the soldiers themselves, the prisoner having promised to deliver it in mercy to his comrades. The letter related Gen. Kuropatkin's retreats and his inability to make an impression on the army of Field Marshal Oyama, to say nothing of breaking through his forces and relieving Port Arthur. The letter also pointed out that the second Russian Pacific squadron has just started on its slow voyage. Continuing, it called attention to the resistless advance of the Japanese trenches, making it a matter of weeks when the Japanese would walk into the main Russian strongholds. In conclusion, the letter offered humane treatment to all who surrender, saying it was in the interest of humanity to prevent further useless slaughter.

In the darkness of the early morning of November 4 several copies of the letter, written in Russian, were given to the prisoner, who regained the Russian lines unobserved by his officers. That night the Russian returned, saying his comrades would answer within a few days. He said the temper of the men seemed to show that while they were mutinous towards fate they also did not like the idea of an unofficial surrender. The letter did much, however, to dispel among the Russian troops the impression, fostered by the officers, that a massacre would follow a Japanese victory. The company to which the prisoner belonged originally numbered 800 and now totals 30 men.

As the Japanese are sufficiently near the summits of the hills to render tunneling highly practicable, much of this work is now being done. The Russians are building counter tunnels. Whichever side finds its tunnel under the enemy's blows up the latter's tunnel. To prevent explosivies being rolled down into their trenches, the Japanese have made ranges or hillocks of earth above the trenches.

Five Russian mine sweeping steamers have been sunk by Japanese shells.

RESERVISTS REBEL.

Russia Has Its Hands Full Checking Violent Disorders in Its Foreign Provinces.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—The government is taking such measures as possible to reconcile the army reserve men who are being called to the colors, including particular pains to avoid harshness. There are many causes of complaint, especially the character of the cars, some of which—ordinary cattle cars—are no longer used.

The disorders in connection with the mobilization have been widespread, notably in the provinces of Vitebsk and Vilna, and there has been considerable violence in western Poland, where troops are reported to have actually fired on the rioters.

Many families of reserve men in Poland are reported to be in great distress. The wives are allowed only 10, and the children 5 cents a day.

Japanese Loan on Market.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The prospectus of the new Japanese loan of $60,000,000 will be issued tomorrow or Thursday. Half of the amount will be offered in New York, and half in London. The price is 90½, with interest at 6 per cent. The loan will be secured by a certain charge on the Japanese customs. Dealings in the loan have already commenced at 1½ premium.

MURPHY IS SURPRISED.

Tammany's Leader Says Defeat Means More to the Party Than to the Candidates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, made the following statement:

Of course I am very much surprised at the result. I do not attempt to account for it. Whatever may have been the cause, it will develop and the party can then deal with it.

"I sincerely regret the defeat of Judge Parker. He was in all respects a worthy candidate. As much can be said for Judge Herrick and his associates on the state ticket. They undoubtedly were the choice of the Democracy, and their defeat is to be regretted more for the sake of the country and the party than for the candidates individually."

Utah Republican by 8,000.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Nov. 8—The heaviest vote ever polled is reported with much scratching. At Democratic state headquarters it is conceded Roosevelt has carried the state by 8,000 plurality.

GREAT CROWDS HEAR RETURNS

The Throng Downtown Quickly Turned Its Enthusiasm Into Ratification of Victory.

THE AMERICUS CLUB PARADED

The crowd that filled downtown thoroughfares last night to hear the election returns turned noisy curiosity into a pandemonium in ratification of Roosevelt's victory before the big bell in City hall tower rang out the hour of 9 o'clock. The tooting of horns and rattle of cowbells was drowned by the hoarse shouts of exulting thousands. Fog horns bellowed, whistles shrieked and bells rang everywhere. Half a million people, it seemed, joined in proclaiming the great Republican victory.

Long after midnight the noise continued. The crowds had grown tired of the bulletin boards early and ran through the streets waving and shouting the good tidings which began to arrive almost the moment the polls were closed. If there were any Democrats who had hopes for Parker's election they were lost in the whirlpool of enthusiasm for Roosevelt.

Never before was a national election so quickly decided. A few minutes after 8 o'clock the New York Democratic newspapers began to concede New York for Roosevelt by a majority ranging in estimates from 200,000 to 250,000, and when these figures were posted upon the bulletin boards the crowds ran wild. Any figures that trailed along later only tended to intensify the enthusiasm of the Republicans.

"Its a 'one-man show' all right," was an expression heard on every side.

When a string of favorable telegrams came from other states that had been considered in the doubtful column, a groan went up—"Oh, they will make fun of the 'big stick.'"

Fakirs Did Big Business.

All the newspapers had made arrangements for the posting of the returns, and at dusk the tinkle of cow bells was heard, the mournful sound echoing through the streets like the passing of a heard of cattle on a country highway. But this semblance to pastural scenes did not continue long. Hot waffle wagons drove through the streets and took their positions in favorable corners downtown. Men with "hot weenies" and fakirs with horns, badges and placards got ready to reap a harvest.

The tinkle of solitary cow bells and the desultory toots of horns became a din. People overflowed the sidewalks and crowded the trolley cars off Fifth avenue. Women joined in the demonstration. At 8 o'clock the noise became terrific. Decisive bulletins were now being received by the newspapers and the waves of enthusiasm radiated from those centers to neighboring throngs.

An hour later the transformation was wonderful. At Oliver avenue and Wood street 3,000 people read The Gazette's announcement of Roosevelt's victory. A mighty cheer went up. Horns, bells and rattles made deafening din. The powerful searchlight which The Gazette had posted up on an adjoining building swept like a giant's arm from the streets to the clouds. "That same old coon" appeared and thousands of hats waved as their wearers shouted the catchword of the night, "Teddy's good enough for me."

Americus Club Paraded.

Republicans gathered early at the Americus club, in anticipation of the glorious victory of Roosevelt and Fairbanks, and every member went on a still hunt for his hat, overcoat and red, white and blue parasol, expecting to celebrate in the good old Americus style, should the promised event be realized.

Maj. T. L. Harper had charge of the preparations at the club and a special wire from the Western Union furnished the returns from all sections of the country. The character of the Republican landslide was realized early and pandemonium broke loose.

About 10 o'clock the condition of affairs became so well known, that the members no longer cared for the individual returns, and, accompanied by the Lone Star band, which had been engaged especially for the occasion, they assembled in Penn avenue, formed in line, and led by Attorney A. E. Best, paraded the principal streets of the city, serenaded the newspapers and made their joy generally known.

Nearly every Republican of any prominence visited the club rooms some time during the evening, and a throng was constantly arriving and departing. Homer J. Lindsey, John F. Steel and J. Smiley Wightman, president of select council, were interested listeners to the returns from the various states, while Mayor Falkenstein of McKeesport, Attorney William P. Schell, Fred Newmeyer, Adolph Adams and many others helped entertain the crowds.

Tariff Club Was Crowded.

The Tariff club in Third avenue held the largest gathering it has had at any election in recent years. Webb Murray, John Bell and other well-known Republicans, read the returns received over a special Postal wire. The news that the administration had been indorsed by such an overwhelming electoral and popular majority, occasioned little surprise, but when all the doubtful states were placed in the Republican column, they were satisfied to go to their homes and wait for fuller returns today.

At 11 o'clock crowds began to diminish. Those who had crowded downtown theaters and listened to returns between acts joined the demonstration, but soon grew weary and hastened to their homes in the suburbs. Only the tried and true remained at midnight, but this element numbered tens of thousands. At 1 o'clock this morning the rattle of bells and the roar of horns continued, but it was evident that arms were growing weak and that lungs were almost exhausted. As the morning grew on the noise died away like the lull of a great battle, until the pastoral tinkle of an occasional cowbell told where some belated enthusiast was seeking rest, after celebrating in a fashion approvingly strenuous.

HIGH CHINESE OFFICER EXECUTED BY JAPANESE

He Was Discovered in the Act of Spying on the Mikado's Troops.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—It is reported here that a Chinese official of high rank was executed by the Japanese on November 2 at the village of Shakhe. The official was discovered in the act of spying on the movements of Japanese troops, it is said, on the order of Theng Chi, the military governor of the province of Skengking.

Several thousand rioters entered Kaifung, the capital of the province of Honan (295 miles north of Hankow), and destroyed ten miles of telegraph wire. The rioters are well armed and serious trouble is feared.

HERALD APPROACH OF THE BALTIC SQUADRON

PORT SAID, EGYPT, Nov. 8.—The Russian consul-general at Cairo and the naval attache of Russia at Constantinople have arrived here in connection with the expected arrival of the Russian second Pacific squadron. Extraordinary precautions are being taken for the protection of the warships. Special guards have been posted on the banks the whole length of the canal.

RYESHITELNI'S CREW ARRIVES AT SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—The officers and crew of the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Ryeshitelni, which the Japanese cut out of the harbor at Chefoo on August 12, have arrived here on the Manjur, with the exception of the commander, who escaped at Woosung. He is probably now homeward bound on a German mail steamer.

United States Attaches Recalled.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—Capt. Carl Reichmann and Lieut.-Col. Walter Schueller, the United States military attaches with Gen. Kuropatkin's army, are returning to the United States, having been recalled by the war department.

Charles H. McSwigan, manager of C. I. Hudson & Co., brokers in the Frick building, read the election returns by special wire to several hundred friends last night. An elaborate luncheon was also served.

FOURTEEN VOTES LOST, BUT THEY BROKE EVEN

Murder Jury and Two Tipstaves Were Unable to Go to the Polls—Stood Seven to Seven on the Presidency.

Fourteen men lost their votes yesterday, but as they were evenly divided between Roosevelt and Parker, it had no effect upon the general results. Twelve of the citizens who lost their ballots were the jurymen in the Harper murder case, and the other two were Tipstaves John Wallace and John End, who have them in charge. Tipstave Wallace is a strong adherent of Roosevelt, while End is a supporter of Parker. It was reported around the court house that the jurymen took a straw vote and were evenly divided, six being for Roosevelt and six for Parker. A rumor that one of the jurymen was a judge of election, was denied.

The jury has been out since 11:40 o'clock Friday morning. It was confidently expected that it would reach a decision in time to get home to vote, but as the afternoon wore away this last hope was lost, as the majority live so far away from the court house that they could not have reached home before the closing of the polls.

Judge McClung was about the court house up to noon, expecting that the men might reach a conclusion, but when they sent out word that they were ready for dinner, indicating that no verdict had been reached, Judge McClung went to his home, leaving word that a telephone message would bring him back in case the jury reached an agreement.

Robert Harper, the Coraopolis policeman, whose fate the jury is to determine, is in the county jail. He is charged with killing Forest Francis Craig, while the latter was attempting to evade arrest during a raid on a disorderly house.

TWO MEN FOUND DEAD IN THEIR HOMES

Identification of Woman Who Leaped from Sixth Street Bridge Was Incorrect.

John Reim, a painter, aged 55, was found dead on the floor of the kitchen at his home, 138 Charles street, Allegheny, at 11 o'clock last night by his wife. She awoke and missed him from his bed. Going in search of him she found his body in the kitchen.

James Farrell, aged 45 years, was found dead in bed yesterday afternoon at 63 Eureka street by his mother. Heart failure is supposed to have been the cause of death.

Enoch Eid, aged 58, fell from a building which was being torn down at Cora and Mulford streets yesterday afternoon, and was so seriously injured he died at the East End Charity hospital at 6:15. A widow and several children survive him.

The coroner was notified yesterday that the woman who jumped off the Sixth street bridge last Thursday was not Virginia McIntyre. It was learned that woman was still alive. It is now believed the woman was Mrs. Ella Hunt of McKees Rocks. Mrs. Hunt has been missing since November 2, and four women called at the morgue last night and were positive in this identification. The officers at the morgue do not believe the woman was Mrs. Hunt.

Emma Schrepp, aged 36, of Etna, died at the Allegheny General hospital yesterday from burns received at her home Monday. The woman was cooking and her clothing caught fire from the stove.

The coroner's inquest was held yesterday into the death of Pasquale Rochette, who was shot and killed by James Gilardi, October 30, in the West End. The jury recommended that Gelardi be apprehended on a charge of murder.

ILLINOIS BREAKS RECORD.

President Carries It by 200,000—Deneen's Plurality Historic—Two Congressmen Gained.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Roy O. West, chairman of the Illinois state Republican committee, made the following statement:

"Illinois has given Roosevelt an unparalleled plurality. The returns indicate that he will carry the state by 200,000. Mr. Deneen is elected governor by the greatest plurality in the history of Illinois. The Republicans have elected 19 congressmen, a gain of two."

Debs Polls Large Vote.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Debs, the Socialist candidate for president, has poled a large vote in Chicago. Estimates on the first 100 precincts indicate 45,000.

W. U. P. WON AND LYCEUM WAS BEATEN

WEST VIRGINIANS WERE VERY EASY

W. U. P. Ran Up a Large Score and Showed Improved Work. Goal Never in Danger.

BIG CROWD AT THE GAME

The shades of night had fallen over Exposition park when the football game between the W. U. P. and West Virginia teams wound up, and it was difficult for the officials, let alone the spectators, to pick out the players on either team. The local boys started out to make a score of 50 to 0, and they succeeded in going that three better, and finished with a tally of 53 to 0, which sent the W. U. P. rooters home in a happy frame of mind.

For nearly three hours a crowd numbering in the neighborhood of 4,000 forgot all about the battle of ballots which was being waged throughout the country to watch the battle between football gladiators. It was hardly as interesting a contest as some of the games already played here, for the reason that the West Virginians, who were being outplayed at all points of the game, tried to cover up their shortcomings by playing for the sympathy of the spectators, and almost every down made by the W. U. P. team was punctured by some one or the other of the West Virginians being laid out on the grass.

This style of work was the cause of much delay and the spectators finally grew tired of it and urged the officials to make the visitors get into the game. Only once did the Wup players cause any delay, and that was in the second half, when Perry had his finger so badly torn that time was required to patch up the injury, and the player pluckily went back to his place. The slow work of the officials also had a lot to do with taking interest out of the game. One of the officials, Thurston of Lehigh, instead of being supplied with the regulation whistle used in football games, carried a small bell such as is found on a school teacher's desk, and his efforts to control the plays with this were laughable.

The W. U. P. rooters, as usual, were out in force, and occupied their accustomed place in the right field bleachers and made noise enough to awaken the dead with their yells and college songs, some of which were new. Over back of the ropes on the side lines was a bunch of half a dozen West Virginia rooters, who did their level best to inspire enthusiasm in their players, and this bunch worked all right for a short time, but after W. U. P. had scored its first touchdown the West Virginians shut up like clams and refused to infuse any more.

Between the halves the W. U. P. rooters, headed by their band, paraded the playing field, and on reaching the visiting players' bench halted and gave three hearty cheers and a tiger for the West Virginians. This was repeated in front of the home players' bench, and the marchers then proceeded to the right field bleachers, where three cheers were given for the supporters of football. The game was attended by quite a number of football experts, among them Malcolm McBride, who was captain and fullback of the Yale team in 1899, and George Stillman, who was Yale's star tackle in 1900.

The game itself was a practical walkover for the local eleven, which put up its best game of the season and every player did his full measure of duty. The work of the line is best shown by the fact that the West Virginians were unable to once get the ball into the W. U. P. territory, and at no time was the local eleven's goal in the least danger. The only spectacular play made by the visitors was in the second half, when a trick play netted them a run of 15 yards, which was their largest gain of the game. In offensive work the display put up by Wup was great. The local players tore all kinds of holes through the visitors' line, and only once during the contest were they held for downs. This was in the first half, and a try for a field goal was made, but was not successful.

The best ground gainers for Wup were Thompson, Schmidt and Mehl, who made end runs almost at will. The most spectacular run of the game was made by Mehl in the second half, when he worked the double pass, and ran 73 yards for a touchdown. Runs of 25 and 30 yards were common for Thompson and Schmidt. Another feature of the Wups' work was the goal kicking of Edgar, who was successful in eight out of nine attempts, and some of the goals were from very ugly angles. The game started out as if it was going to be a slugging affair, and in less than five minutes after the start Quarterback Rugh of W. U. P. was ejected for rough work. This stand by the officials put a check on further rough play.

In the first half the West Virginians put up a very poor display, and there was much fumbling, which was kept up all through the game. The main offender in the first half was Halfback Hinman, who was removed from the game, but this did not stop the poor work. After the game W. U. P. students marched through the streets cheering and brought up at the Duquesne hotel, where the W. & J. team was quartered, and after giving that team three cheers, wound up with a dare for the Washington county eleven to meet their team. The score and lineup:

SHOT AT LIVE BIRDS.

Herron Hill Club Members Put Up Good Scores for Fine Prizes.

The members of the Herron Hill Gun club spent election day on their Davis Island grounds where a shoot was held at clay pigeons and live birds in which 13 traps experts took part and turned in some very clever scores.

In all the events the honors were divided between the three high guns. The events were 4 clay pigeon shoots of 25 and 20 birds, and 3 live bird events at 7, 8 and 10 birds. The best work at clay birds was shown by "Kelsey" and at live birds by Mr. Pontefract and C. A. May. The scores in the live bird shot for the election day punch bowl were:

C. A. May	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	10

SUBSTITUTE PLAYER'S ACT ALMOST CAUSED A RIOT

The football game between the Lyceum and Wash.-Jeff. teams on the Pittsburgh college grounds yesterday afternoon came close to winding up in a riot, and only the timely interference of officials and the police kept an excited crowd of Lyceum sympathizers from doing bodily harm to a Wash.-Jeff. substitute named Morris. The player was roughly handled before the police could get to him, and one spectator went so far as to break a piece of board over his head.

This happened in the second half of the game, when Hurney of the Lyceum team had pushed his way through the Wash.-Jeff line, and it looked as though he had a clear field for a touchdown. It was dark at the time, and Substitute Morris, who was on the side lines, saw a chance to run out on the field and at least check the speed of the man with the ball, thus allowing one of the players on his own team to catch up to him. This was what Morris did and the act was what caused the trouble.

No sooner had Morris regained his place on the side lines than the crowd of Lyceum rooters, who had been eye-witnesses to the act, made for the offending player, and there was a wild scene in which one man used a piece of board. The offending player claimed he was excited and did not know what he was doing at the time, but this did not satisfy the enraged crowd. At this point the police and some of the officials managed to reach the scene and the player was escorted from the grounds to the accompaniment of hoots and derisive yells from the crowd.

W. & J. men in general condemned Morris' act. His move was a violation of college football etiquette and open to censure. The Lyceum rooters remembered the Geneva episode of last year, when Joe Thompson claimed he was tackled by a W. & J. substitute who was sent from the side lines when he was making a run for a touchdown.

PORTERFIELD'S LONG RUN.

Takes Ball to Franklin Goal and Oil City Wins Game.

FRANKLIN, PA., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—With a team weighing 15 pounds to the man more than that of her opponents, Oil City today won from Franklin in the second of the intercity series which will decide the championship of Northwestern Pennsylvania, 5 to 0. The only score was made early in the second half when Porterfield ran 60 yards to Franklin's 4-yard line, the visitors pushing it over from that point. After that neither side menaced the other's goal. Oil City gained more consistently owing to her weight. Walker, Spencer and Porterfield were the stars for Oil City, while Crawford, Brennan, Jobson, Capwell and Aiken excelled for Franklin. Line-up:

Franklin—0.		Oil City—5.

W. U. P. Faculty Entertained Players.

The faculty of the dental, medical and pharmaceutical departments of the W. U. P., together with the football team, captain and coach, gave a theater party at the New Alvin last night to see the Harry Davis stock company in "Gismonda" in celebration of their victory yesterday afternoon with the University of West Virginia. The party occupied four proscenium boxes, which were decorated with the college colors of orange and blue. Between the acts the team gave its familiar college yell. Members of the faculty occupied the lower boxes.

TRAIN RUNS MILE AND A HALF WITHOUT A GUIDING HAND

Explosion Occurs, Killing the Engineer. Fireman Made Fatal Leap.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

STAMFORD, CONN., Nov. 8.—James Foster, a fireman of South Newark, is dead and Angus Drive, an engineer, is injured as a result of an accident on a westbound train at Greens Farms.

A flue blew out, causing the water grates to burst, with an explosion that hurled the fireman from the cab and drove the engineer to seek safety on the top of the cab, where he remained until the steam was exhausted and the train came to a standstill. The train ran without guidance fully a mile and a half, but few of the passengers were aware of the fact. The crew went back along the tracks and found Foster's body. He had fallen on his head and fractured his skull, resulting in his death.

An engine was taken from a westbound freight train and attached to the passenger train.

His Eighteenth Vote for a President.

GREENSBURG, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Henry Null, Sr., this morning cast his 18th vote for presidential candidate. He cast a straight Republican ballot. Mr. Null was born in 1815 and cast his first vote in 1836 for William Henry Harrison, the Whig candidate.

SKINNER'S 30-YARD RUN WINS GAME

W. and J. Half Makes Only Touchdown in Second Half on Lyceum.

CONTEST HARD AND CLEAN

Washington and Jefferson College beat the Pittsburgh Lyceum eleven on the Pittsburgh college campus yesterday afternoon 6 to 0 in one of the hardest-fought and cleanest contests played in Pittsburgh in the past few years.

The game throughout was devoid of slugging, and in the first half honors were even, although W. & J. fumbled when a touchdown seemed imminent. In the second half the collegians showed better physical condition and Skinner got around the Lyceum's right end for a 30-yard run and touchdown. Wright kicked goal.

After the touchdown W. & J. lost the ball on the Lyceum 40-yard line and on the second attempt through the right side of the W. & J. line Hurney, who relieved McAteer, broke through and ran 40 yards, being hauled down in the open by Skinner, who caught him from behind. Hurney got past Neill, who was waiting for him.

Just as Skinner rose from the tackle, Morris, a W. & J. substitute, was seen rushing from the field. Morris was standing on the side line by himself, and when he saw Hurney get past Neill he ran on the field. He, however, was not within five yards of Hurney.

When the Lyceum crowd saw Morris commit this breach of football etiquette they made a rush for him, but he was rescued by the police. Referee Young and Umpire Poe said Morris had not interfered with the play. The affair created much excitement, the Lyceum rooters thinking Morris was the person who had made the tackle.

This escapade happened with less than one minute to play, and after the teams' lined up Jimmy Hoban in two smashes through the line, took the ball to the W & J. 14-yard line, when time was called. This was the nearest Lyceum got to the collegian's goal line.

Lyceum Plays Good Ball.

The game was witnessed by over 3,000 spectators, the Lyceum adherents being greatly in the majority. W. & J. was weakened by the absence of Capt. Gibson, its best ground gainer; Stuart and Simmons. Full back Brassell was easily the star of the Lyceum team in the first half, his line plunges being a feature. Quarterback McAteer and Capt. McInerney did effective work.

Neither team lost the ball on downs in the first half, and W. & J. made 11 first downs to the Lyceum 10. Lyceum, however, lost 20 yards through penalties to W. & J. five. The collegians had the advantage in the second half.

Lyceum set its rooters into a state of excitement by tearing up the W. & J. line at the start of the game, but in mid-field McAteer kicked 30 yards to Neill who ran it back 10. W. & J. started down the field hitting the line and taking occasional end runs by Skinner and Hart. It was forced to the Lyceum eight-yard line where Wright fumbled and Lyceum secured the ball. On the first line up Brassell went through Hawkins and Stoneman for seven yards the Lyceum rooters broke loose. The ball was worked up and down the field after this, W. & J. having it on the Lyceum 25-yard line at the close of the half. In this session Wright out punted McAteer and Neill ran back kicks better than the Lyceum back field men.

W. & J. started the second half by trying the ends, Skinner and Hart making gains of three and five yards.

In mid-field Skinner got clear of the field, but McAteer made a spectacular tackle bringing him down. Logan fumbled and on the first try through the center Brassell again broke through and ran 15 yards in the open field. Wright made a pretty tackle.

Lost on Four-Yard Line.

The collegians worked down the field getting to the four-yard line where Lyceum held for downs. Hoban gained two yards and then McInerney was thrown back to the one-yard line. Brassell kicked 30 yards and Skinner was sent around the end for the touchdown. Dillon, who was substituted on the end, was boxed in, and Skinner, unaided, got away. Wright kicked an easy goal.

Dillon had just got into the game, relieving Hoban who went to full, and instead of keeping out he ran into to smash up the interference, thus giving Skinner a chance to get into the open field.

There was less than five minutes to play, but the Lyceum players showed a never-die-spirit and fought W & J. harder than ever. The rooters believe Morris was responsible for Hurney being tackled, and think the worst they should have had was a tie. The play was made when it was difficult to see distinctly, inasmuch as darkness was rapidly enveloping the field.

Capt. Gibson of W. & J., did not play because of a bad knee received in the State game and Roy, the big tackle, was called to his home in Ohio on account of a relative being near to death. Injuries kept the other players out of the game. The line-up:

W. & J.—6.		Lyceum—0.

Touchdown—Skinner. Goal—Wright. Referee—E. P. Young, Cornell. Umpire—Arthur Poe, Princeton. Time—25 and 20-minute halves.

SHOEMAKER DOUGLAS IS CHOSEN TO GOVERNORSHIP

Democratic Aspirant Defeats Bates in Massachusetts—State Is Safe for Roosevelt.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 8.—Sufficient returns have been received up to 11 o'clock tonight to indicate a Republican victory for Roosevelt and Fairbanks electors, but at the same time a defeat of Gov. Bates for re-election by William L. Douglas, the Democratic candidate. The Republicans, however, elected the rest of the state ticket, at least ten of the 14 congressmen and a large majority of the legislature, which will select two United States senators.

The Democrats elected, besides their candidate for governor, at least three congressmen. Roosevelt's majority is estimated at 82,000.

GREASED BALL FOR YALE TEAM

Coaches Adopt Novel Move to Stop Fumbling—Tigers Are Back to Work Again.

STIFF PRACTICE SESSIONS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 8.—Yale coaches today declined to permit any spectators on the field for a single moment, holding no open practice whatever, although hundreds waited at the gates for more than two hours. The first and second teams were kept hard at drill and some of the players were worked to their limit. Trainer Murphy said none of them are lacking in physical condition. Tomorrow will probably be the final hard scrimmage work before the Princeton game. All of the regulars except Shevlin were played today. The coaches are well satisfied with the team's progress, but regard Princeton as extremely dangerous. Extraordinary means are being tried to teach the men to avoid fumbling. It is said that a greased ball was used today. Veeder is in scholarship difficulties, and unless he can recover them by special examinations will not be permitted to play even as substitute in the Princeton game. His punting ability makes him valuable beyond first substitute rank.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The Princeton varsity squad returned this morning from their short rest in Atlantic City fully recovered from the effects of the West Point game, and ready to begin the final heat of the season. The inactivity of the last few days, however, had the effect of temporarily lowering the quality of their work in this afternoon's scrimmage. The practice which was secret, consisted of two 25-minute halves, the hardest the team has experienced this season. The coaches intend to give them lighter work toward the last of the week, and for that reason made the most of the time allotted to heavy work, putting the team through a whirlwind of work that tested their capacity to the utmost.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Practically all of the regular men were back on the Harvard varsity football eleven this afternoon and the coaches devoted their time to developing the team play of the eleven. Two 20-minute halves were played between the varsity and second elevens, in which the former scored three touchdowns in the first period and one in the second. All of the scoring was done on carrying the ball long distances through the weak second team. Meir, Mills and Hurley were out doing easy work, but none of them went into the lineup. Randall and Montgomery again held down the ends, and they look like the first choice just now. Sperry preceded Nichols in the lineup today in spite of the fact that the latter has fully recovered from his injury.

CAUGHT AN ACTOR.

Police Found Him in Office Building and Are Suspicious—Wife Says She Shipped Goods to Philadelphia.

Detectives Lally and McGough were called to the Westinghouse building yesterday to arrest Frank Somers, an actor. He went up in the elevator to the eleventh floor and walked down, stopping in several offices, it is said, pretending to look for a mythical person. He carried a lot of bills in his hand and was taken for a collector.

A small boy happened to call on his father in room No. 811 and passing in the door saw the man in the ante-room and asked his father who the man was. The father went to see and the man was gone and a hurried examination of the hat rack by the lady stenographer disclosed that her pocketbook had been taken out of her coat. The alarm was given and the man was caught on the fourth floor. The pocketbook was found rifled in a refuse can on the seventh floor.

At detective headquarters Somers told Superintendent McQuaide his home is in Philadelphia, but had been living here for two weeks at No. 1204 Webster avenue. There was $26 found on him and he was locked up as a suspicious character.

The detectives found Julia Somers at the Webster avenue house, who said she was an actress and lived in New York. She said the prisoner's name was Frank Garber. They had been at the world's fair for two months. She admitted she and the man had shipped two boxes of clothing to Philadelphia in the last few days. She was arrested.

Will Admit Parochial Students.

The Homestead school board met yesterday and a fierce contention in the board came to an end with a decision to throw open the C. M. Schwab Manual Training school to parochial and all other pupils who pass the required examination. The majority of the board wished to exclude the parochial students, but found they could not legally do so.

MRS. ROOSEVELT WAS CONFIDENT

Undemonstrative at News of Her Husband's Signal Victory at Polls.

BUT CHILDREN ARE GLEEFUL

By MRS. JOHN A. LOGAN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her family received the election news surrounded by friends. They assembled to rejoice with her over the returns as they were brought in announcing the overwhelming majorities given to President Roosevelt in almost every district north of Mason and Dixon's line.

There was no anxiety manifested by Mrs. Roosevelt. She had every reason to feel sure of her husband's election. She had implicit faith in his lucky star as well as unbounded admiration and appreciation of his genius, courage and stupendous abilities. She was in no sense demonstrative, but in her own quiet way expressed her happiness and pride in her illustrious husband.

The whole country will be glad that so charming, intelligent, gracious and admirable a mistress is to continue to preside over the home of the president of this great republic.

Those most captious have not been able to find anything which could be criticised in Mrs. Roosevelt. Her gentle manners and cordial greeting have disarmed all who have gone into her presence, and though they may have been on mischief bent, they have come away to praise. As wife, mother, first lady of the land and gifted woman, Mrs. Roosevelt stands among the foremost women of her country.

The nation need have no fear but that Mrs. Roosevelt will fill her place with credit to her country and herself. "Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

Miss Roosevelt, naturally more enthusiastic, gave expressions to her happiness in exclamations of delight over her father's election. Theodore Roosevelt is as much a hero to his own family as he is to the people of the nation.

The White House never looked better and its doors will ever swing outward to welcome the multitude of guests while the Roosevelts are the hosts of the executive mansion.

The ladies of the cabinet who are in Washington were at the White House during the evening and watched the returns with keen interest. The children were permitted to stay up beyond the usual hour of retirement and were outspoken in expressing their opinion of the news. When it became certain that their father had been elected one of the boys was heard to shout in great glee: "Pop is all right. The American people know a good thing when they have it."

The noted men and women who overheard the remark were much amused.

ADVISED NOT TO VOTE; TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Aged New Yorker, Thinking His Honesty Aspersed, Kills Himself—Trouble at Registration.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Because he expected that some objection would be made to his voting, it is thought, Anton Herman, 65 years old, a carpenter, killed himself this afternoon by shooting himself in the head. Today he put on his best clothes and went out, telling his wife he meant to vote. He did not go near the polling place, however.

His neighbors declare that some member of a political organization met the old man and told him that he had better not vote. Then he went home and killed himself. At the polling place near his home it was said Herman had experienced some difficulty at the time he registered.

He had lived in the neighborhood for three years and seemed to feel that the inquiry attending his registration was a direct insult to his honesty.

He was a native of Germany, had served in the army during the Franco-Prussian war, and had been in this country 29 years.

POLICE SHAKE-UP.

Braddock Council Makes Several Changes in the Force—Itemized Claim Against the Borough.

Braddock council last evening shook up the police department. The police committee recommended that two new patrolmen be elected, one old officer discharged and two others dropped from the list and the recommendations were acted upon. The discharged officer is Robert T. Smith, who was discharged because he had been absent from his beat on Saturday when the residence of Police Sergeant Victor Ca-Knorr was burglarized. Leo Ulshine was laid off for pointing firearms and Officer Patrick Maley was dropped because of neglect of duty. Samuel Gator, colored, succeeds Smith. Henry Foy succeeds Officer Frank Limbachter, who died.

Clerk Todd read the following letter from Mrs. Quinn, wife of a former constable from the Second ward, Braddock, which staggered the councilmen:

> Gentlemen—I herewith present my claim for damages sustained by me on March 25, 1904, by the cavein of the pavement on Holland avenue in the borough of Braddock at a point about midway between Second and Fourth streets. Said cavein was caused by an old defective water pipe. Said damages are for my clothing, to wit: One suit, $45; one silk shawl, $6; one silk underskirt, $12; one pair stockings, $1; one silk waist, $1; one pair corsets, $3 50; one corset cover, $1 50; one silk umbrella, $7; neckwear, $2; drygoods and groceries, $8 60. Total, $113 10. The list which I have above set forth was entirely destroyed.

> MRS. EDWARD QUINN, JR.

President Lewis F. Holtzman stated that the bill would be referred to the committee on accounts and claims.

George Moore was appointed to succeed G. E. F. Gray, resigned, on the health board.

ESTABLISHED NEW RECORD.

Coal Receipts for One Day at Curtis Bay Piers Broken When 15,413 Tons Were Dumped Monday.

All previous records of coal receipts at Curtis Bay piers, Baltimore, were eclipsed Monday when the Fairmont and Consolidated coal companies dumped 15,413 tons in one day. Only 848 tons were dumped for distribution in the United States, all of which was consigned to Galveston, Tex. The remainder was for foreign markets, with the exception of a small consignment of Consolidated coal billed to California. The boats and tonnage were as follows:

Fairmont coal—
Steamship August Belmont	5,798 tons
Steamship Indiana	4,856 tons
Schooner Lizzie Babcock	812 tons
Total	1,466 tons
Consolidation Coal Co.—
Barge No. 7	1,617 tons
Barge No. 16	1,600 tons
Steamship Heckter	540 tons
Bunker coal	190

FOUR CAUGHT IN CRASH.

Autoing Party Injured When Car Collided With Telegraph Pole.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Losing control of the machine after the steering gear had separated, a party of four Plainfield society folk and their chauffeur were pitched headlong from an automobile, when it crashed into a telegraph pole this morning, all being injured. Mrs. Lewis E. Waring, a daughter of former Mayor Charles J. Fisk of the banking firm of Harvey Fisk & Sons, received a fractured collar bone. Miss May Waring, a daughter of O. T. Waring of the Standard Oil Company, is in a serious condition, the back of her head having struck the telegraph pole. O. G. Waring, connected with a branch of the Standard Oil Company, and Thomas R. Van Bostwick, a New York produce broker, escaped with bruises.

PRESIDENT CAST HIS VOTE EARLY

WEE LEE GROWS PATRIOTIC

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt, arriving on a special train at 9:45 this morning, quickly jumped into a wagon that Mrs. J. West Roosevelt had waiting for him, drove through the village street and at Fisher's hall in East Main street, voted the straight Republican ticket. From the time he left the depot until he came down stairs from the polling place he did not occupy more than five minutes. His ballot was No. 164.

At the railway station to welcome the president was a small crowd of men, women and children, his "neighbors," as he likes to call them. With waving flags and with cheers they greeted him as he was stepping on to the platform, and in response the president raised his hat and smiled broadly.

A way for him had been made with ropes, but the people crowded into it, and "Uncle" Charles Bayliss, a local graybearded character, was made happy when Mr. Roosevelt grasped his hand and shook it heartily. Bunting and flags and a large lithograph of President Roosevelt had been put up under the supervision of Sheriff Jerome B. Johnson.

With a number of secret service men President Roosevelt was hurriedly driven to Fishers hall by Mrs. J. West Roosevelt, Secretary Loeb, Dr. C. F. Stokes of the navy and the secret service agents in other carriages. As the president leaped to the ground another crowd of townsmen greeted him and Wee Lee, a Chinese laundryman, who has a room under the voting place, came to the door and for a flag waved a freshly ironed shirt by way of expressing his patriotism.

Up the stairway into the hall President Roosevelt went at a bound. Giving his name, he was handed a ballot by Ballot Clerk James J. Mills, a Democrat. Then, stepping into a booth, he remained only long enough to mark a cross under the eagle. Coming down stairs he was met by a number of men anxious to grasp his hand, and he did not disappoint them.

When he stepped into the wagon some one called out "three cheers for President Roosevelt," and as they were given twice over he rose and said: "Thank you very much, gentlemen, thank you very much." Turning to a number of carriages he called out to one of the women: "How are the St. Hildas?" "All right," came the answer. This is a woman's club connected with the local Episcopal church.

"Now, let us take a good drive," said the president, and he was whisked away over the country roads. Out to Sagamore Hill, his country home, he went, and by 10:30 was back again to the station ready for the train to take him to Long Island City.

At the station the president held public reception, shaking hands and speaking to everybody who crowded about him. He was especially pleased with the demonstration made by a procession of small boys who carried big flags and waved him a farewell when the train pulled out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt returned to Washington at 6:16 o'clock this evening. Accompanied by Capt. W. S. Cowles, he immediately entered a carriage at the Pennsylvania railway station and was driven to the White House. He cordially acknowledged the greetings of the spectators who had gathered and of the unusually large detail of policemen and detectives who had been sent there to see that no harm befell him.

The president's trip from Oyster Bay to Washington was uneventful. Mr. Roosevelt spent his time chatting with those about him and reading. At Trenton, where the train made a brief stop, a considerable crowd had gathered and there were loud cheers for the president. The latter was at luncheon at the time, but in response to the demands of the people he came out on the platform and in a few words acknowledged their greetings and thanked them for their well wishes. At West Philadelphia also there were a number of people for whose greetings the president bowed his thanks.

ELECTION DAY KILLING MAY PRECIPITATE RIOT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CRIPPLE CREEK, COL., Nov. 8.—With Christopher Miller dead and Isaac Lebo and Edward Doyle seriously wounded as the result of election day fights early today, the feeling is so tense in the Cripple Creek district that a bloody riot may be precipitated at any instant. Almost every man in the district is carrying a gun.

Miller and Lebo were shot at Goldfield by Deputy Sheriff Warford, and Doyle at Midway, by Edward O'Leary. O'Leary and Warford have been arrested. Christopher Miller, who was killed at Goldfield, was a former alderman of that place and a deputy sheriff under Sheriff Robertson prior to that official's forced resignation after the Independence explosion and Victor riot. The shooting occurred at 11 o'clock, while he was sitting on a fence in front of the polling booth in precinct Forty-eight.

Isaac Lebo, a friend of Miller, who was also sitting on the fence, was shot in the shoulder a second later. He fell backward into the yard. Lebo's condition is grave and he may die. The lower part of his body is paralyzed. Lebo claims James Warford shot him. Miller, just before he expired, stated that Thomas Brown fired the bullet which caused his death. Some say that Warford fired both shots. Both Brown and Warford are deputy sheriffs.

HAD THE LAUGH ON FAIRBANKS

Senator and His Sons Wandered Into the Wrong Polling Place.

HE DECAMPED IN CONFUSION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 8.—Senator Fairbanks was greatly confused today when he offered to vote at a polling place that was not in his ward. He took his two sons, Richard and Frederick, with him to show them just how to vote a straight ticket, but before he had proceeded far on his way he discovered that something more was needed than a tendency to do the right thing in voting. He had read in his morning papers that he voted in the rear of 1730 Meridian street, near his home, and he presented himself there at 9:30.

"Sorry, senator, but you don't vote for Roosevelt at this station," announced the Republican poll-book holder.

An extra tinge of color came to the senator's ruddy cheeks, but he was spared further embarrassment, as the Democratic poll-book holder did not offer to challenge him. He took his sons in tow and dodged around a corner as soon as possible, but not before the Democrats had begun to laugh at his expense. He found that he did not even live in the ward, for he had crossed over Sixteenth street from his—the Eighth—into the Third ward. No one knew where his precinct was and he had to head back home to find out.

At 9:50 o'clock the senator presented himself at his voting place, 30 West Thirteenth street. There was no questioning his right or that of his sons to vote there. He found a number of voters in line ahead of him, among them two colored men. He shook hands with all and took his place in line with his sons.

The voting place was a little dwelling that had seen better days. Senator Fairbanks was in the building two minutes, nine seconds, and was in the booth just one minute and 20 seconds.

Raising Money to Fight Licenses.

As the result of a campaign mapped out a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Allegheny County Anti-Saloon league, letters have been sent out in an effort to raise $10,000 to be used in the interests of the league at the coming license court. Liberal subscriptions have already been acknowledged. Supt. C. E. Page left today for Columbus, O., to attend the annual meeting of the National Anti-Saloon league.

EDITOR REID TO GET THE BRITISH MISSION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt will have at least two important ambassadorships to confer at the beginning of his new term. Both Mr. Choate at London and Gen. Porter, at Paris, will retire from the diplomatic service. Mr. Choate, according to common report, is to accept a portfolio in the new cabinet, while Gen. Porter has been anxious to return home since the death of his wife, and has informed the president of his intention to return to the United States as soon as possible.

The successors of these two eminent diplomats will, it is generally believed here, be like themselves, New Yorkers. Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune, is said to be slated for the London mission, while Senator Chauncey M. Depew will, it is felt sure, go to Paris. Since his marriage the New York senator has been particularly fond of the French capital, and Mrs. Depew would like nothing better than to be the mistress of the American embassy there. More than this, the appointment of Mr. Depew would do much to simplify Republican factional factional politics in the Empire state, by making a place for Gov. Odell in the United States senate.

Mr. Reid has had considerable diplomatic experience. He has been minister to France and has been twice entrusted with diplomatic missions to England. He has a liking for this sort of thing and is amply rich enough to accept the British ambassadorship.

Gossip has not yet had time to get busy with the other juicy diplomatic plums, but there will doubtless be a number of other important changes.

The New Sorosis of Pittsburgh

FRONT ELEVATION OF NEW SOROSIS STORE, 214 SIXTH ST.

THE NAME SOROSIS is a favorably well known synonym in use in every household of Pittsburgh. In its common, ordinary sense it denotes a women's club, while at the same time it is the applied name of a famous shoe product for women. In its later scope it has gained almost universal recognition.

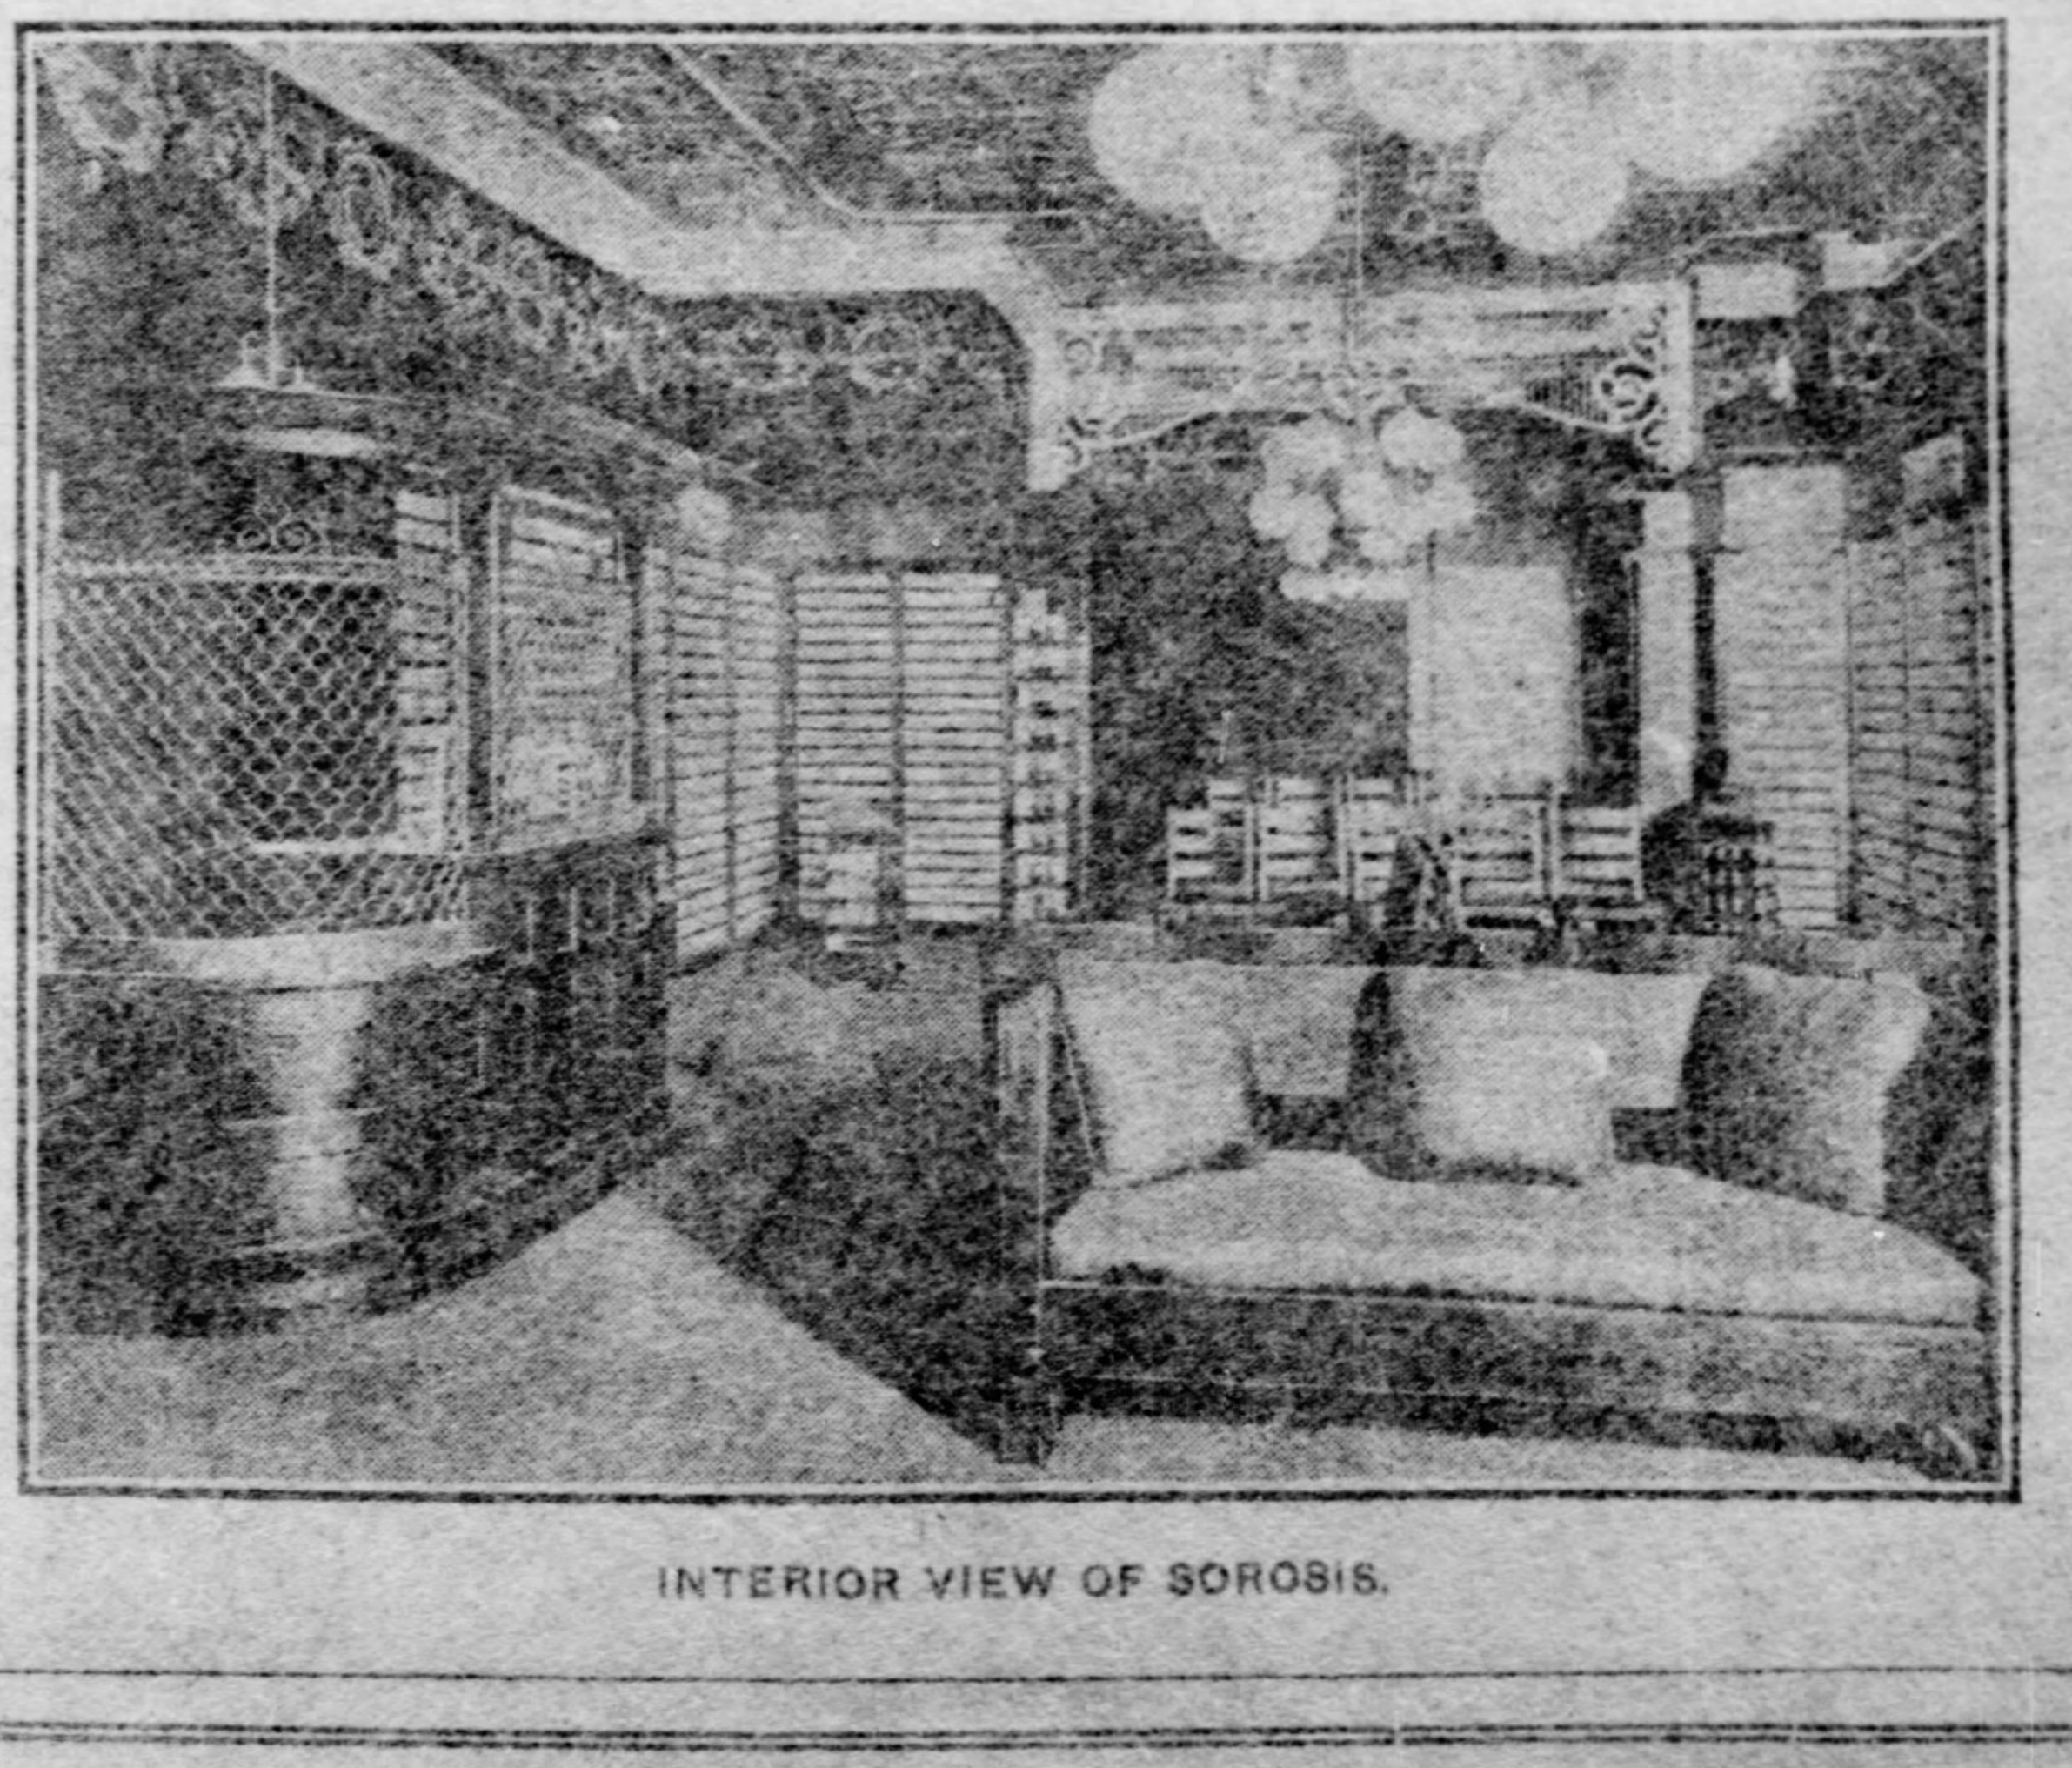
Within comparative few years this celebrated product has won especial favor among the women folks of this city. Today it seems to be preferred to any other quality of shoes on the market.

The steadily growing demand for Sorosis has been so absolutely satisfactory that it became necessary for the manufacturers to open another branch store at No. 214 Sixth street, opposite the Meyer Jonasson store, the original quarters at the corner of Penn avenue and Fifth street being entirely too small and inadequate to accommodate the patrons and visitors which came to this elegant ladies' parlor daily.

To obviate this existing condition The Sorosis Shoe Company decided to give the women's fraternity another parlor, where their wants and desires could be satisfied without stint. In so doing, the City of Pittsburgh was given a shoe emporium in the most central shopping center of Sixth street, that for general completeness is surpassed by none anywhere.

Only four years and two months ago the Sorosis Company opened its first store at Fifth and Penn avenue. This store was then favorably commended by everybody. Its interior and exterior finish was in every sense the very acme of architectural beauty. Its elegance, neatness and commodiousness indeed could not be obtained in any city of the country.

Magnificent as is the first store, the Sixth Street Shoe Parlor is still more magnificent and complete. The latter branch is altogether more modern. It was designed to be more of a women's parlor than a general store, especial care being taken to here install every modern facility for the convenience of women shoppers. At all times they will find this the most pleasing headquarters of the city. The general character of the whole store is so neat and agreeably satisfying that each and every visitor may here feel the ease and rest of perfect home. The management desires to have every woman inspect their elegant new parlor at No. 214 Sixth street. An agreeable and courteous corps of attendants will extend to them every possible courtesy. At the same time it might be well to know something about the superiority of this famous shoe wear—something about the history of the shoes that are worn by the majority of the women in every civilized country of the world.



INTERIOR VIEW OF SOROSIS.

Steel Tires Are Being Bolted on Passenger Locomotive Wheels

A test of bolting steel tires to the drive wheels of passenger locomotives is being made by the motive power department of the Pennsylvania railroad. If it proves successful, as preliminary trials indicate, the plan will be generally adopted. The slipping of the tires has been a source of much annoyance to railroad men for years. Many locomotives in process of construction or undergoing repairs at the Altoona shops are having tires bolted on. The bolts run through the tires and are so ingeniously placed that they are invisible upon the surface. Allowance is made for the expansion of tires, but the motive power experts feel confident the bolts will prevent accidents from expansion. Frequently in applying brakes to a rapidly moving locomotive the tires, becoming heated, expand and sometimes slip off the wheel in other cases they break, and in both instances serious accidents ocur.

International Rail Pool.

The international steel rail pool between Great Britain, Germany, Belgium and France is to last three years, according to the present agreement, and the price is to be $20 60, free on board at port of shipment. Of the output Great Britain is allotted 53.50 per cent, Germany 28.83 per cent and Belgium 17.67 per cent. France is given a small but increasing allotment, being 4.8 per cent for the first year, 5.8 per cent for the second year and 6.4 per cent for the third year. During the first eight months of this year the international pool exported 720,237 tons and the United States 210,321 tons. This gives the United States 29.2 per cent of the total amount exported and shows how important a factor the United States is in the international rail trade.

After Industrial Lines.

The executive officials of trunk railroads are determined to break the hold which the industrial railroads have on them, thereby cutting off their revenue. A committee appointed to investigate reported in favor of discontinuing the payment of 20 per cent of the through rate for the delivery of business to trunk lines. In place of this division of rates it was recommended that the payment be based hereafter on the regular switching charges. By the adoption of the report the compensation which the industrial roads will get for delivering to the railroads cars loaded with the products of the companies controlling them will vary between $3 and $4, according to the distance. This is against a compensation of from $12 to $20 now collected.

Railroad Official Died.

James H. Barrett, general superintendent of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh, died yesterday at Rochester, N. Y. He was well known in local railroad circles and was regarded as an efficient and capable official. He succeeded George E. Merchant as general superintendent several years ago. Mr. Barrett came from the Chicago & Alton to the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh. The last time Mr. Barrett was in Pittsburgh was five months ago, when he accompanied an inspecting party. He was about 55 years old.

Railroad Notes.

H. J. Boothe, traffic manager of the Wheeling & Lake Erie, is in the city on business.

S. M. McLane, the Pennsylvania railroad engineer, is spending a few days at his home in Oil City.

A new coal road is to be built from Tennessee through the southwestern coal regions to tidewater, probably at Norfolk, Va.

The American Bridge Company has been advised by several railroads that plans for new bridges are being made. In anticipating orders the company's works have been put into full operation.

CROP OF RUMORS KEEPS GROWING

Smithfield Street Corner Is Likely to Change Owners at Big Figure.

LATEST NEWS IN BUILDING

The only evidence of activity in the real estate market yesterday was in the increasing number of rumors reported. One of these, which was partly confirmed, was that a prominent corner in Smithfield street has been optioned for $750,000 and is likely soon to pass into the hands of a new financial institution. Last week the same story was current, but was not generally credited. The price said to have been offered will break all previous records for real estate in that street with one exception. Another rumor which gained considerable circulation was that a deal was pending for the Hotel Anderson property. A flattering offer has also been made for a Penn avenue property not far from Sixth street, and a deal is pending for a big lot in the same street near the Union station. A building project which will be or considerable importance to the last named neighborhood will probably be announced this week and will mean the erection of two six-story wholesale business blocks in Penn avenue.

Tenement Company Organized.

Application has been made for a charter for the Glen Tenement Company which will control the Glen tenements now being erected at Sydenham and Elizabeth streets in the Twenty-third ward. The incorporators are Architect Titus de Bobula, who designed the buildings; Cornelius Laurisin and Alexius Holsnyay. Three buildings are to be erected at an approximate cost of $55,000. They will be three stories high and will contain 95 rooms, arranged in suites of from two to four each. The aim of the promoters is to make the building sanitary and convenient so that the apartments may be rented to laboring people at a low cost.

Architect Titus de Bobula has plans for a church for the First Methodist Episcopal congregation of Little Rock, Ark., to cost $20,000.

J. L. Stewart has received the contract for a $10,000 brick house to be built for Frank H. Brooks at Shields.

E. C. Wilcox has the contract for a six-story brick fire proof warehouse to be built for S. Delp's Sons in Soho. The building will cost about $18,000.

Plans are being prepared by Architect Joseph Anglin for two brick houses to be erected in Perrysville avenue, Allegheny, at a cost of $12,500.

Architects Struthers & Hannah have plans for a store building to be built for McCready & Moore on their lot plan at Grove City.

Architect George Hodgdon is taking bids on a 16-room brick residence for Dr. R. H. Fisher to be built at Swissvale.

Nineteenth Ward Lots Selling Well.

The Ingleside allotment in the Nineteenth ward, managed by John A. Sharp, is proving one of the best sellers of the season. The plan was opened in April and of the 204 lots 79 have already been sold at prices averaging $750 each. Twenty-four houses are now under way and two more will be started shortly. The majority of the lots in Graham, Broad, Kincaid and Rebecca streets have been disposed of. The average cost of the houses erected runs from $2,700 to $5,000.

The innovation in sign making is speading. James A. Griffith being the last broker to announce a change of advertising methods in this particulars. On properties which he sells the sign "Sold by James A. Griffith" now appears for a week after the sale is consummated.

Hawkins avenue: The Aronson Realty Company sold for A. F. Huseman to J. C. Reed 75x141 feet in Hawkins avenue, Lincoln park place, for $1,500.

BACK FROM LOW-WATER TRIP.

Capt. W. A. Blackstock Returns from His Down-River Cruise.

Capt. W. A. Blackstock has returned from his low-water trip to Pomeroy and Gallipolis. He made the trip in the Mermaid, taking a tow of 10 empty barges and a loaded flat. His tow drew 26 inches of water going down and he was just able to get through. On the return trip he had but two feet, but got up without difficulty. His observations of the river are interesting and there are few pilots who have had the opportunity presented to them of observing the river at this stage.

Among Capt. Blackstock's observations are the following: Coffer dams for the new dams have been built, one on the right at Salt run, above Wellsburg, and one on the left at Walkers Landing, above the "gravel shore." At the mouth of the Muskingum, at Marietta, two dredge boats are at work, and there is now 8 or 9 feet of water there. The channel has been entirely cleaned out, all the old piles and other rubbish having been removed. The old bar is only 3½ feet high now, and the dredges are taking off another cut, which will bring it even with the Ohio river guide wall.

At Logstown the government has dumped a lot of gravel in the old channel, which makes it lumpy. If these were scraped off boats could come up to Pittsburgh, even in low water. The Merrill dam makes slack water to Wallery. Capt. Blackstock is agitating a movement to have the River Coal Company, the packet lines and others interested raise a fun and put a boat and scraper at work there for two or three days and level off the lumps. This work would result in an open river to Pittsburgh.

At Buffington island the dam has been rebuilt from the Ohio shore to the head of the island and is now much higher than formerly. The government forces are now working back of Marietta island, in the back channel. This work will hold the water over Carpenter bar. At East Liverpool the iron work is being placed upon the piers of the new highway bridge and at Steubenville the wire is being strung on the new suspension bridge. Stacks will have to be lowered in passing under these structures.

The Mermaid was the first boat to pass through the new dam at Merrill, and her crew and owner feel justly proud of this distinction. The trip down and back was made tinction.

The stage of water at Davis island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 2.6 feet and the river was stationary.

AN OBJECT LESSON

In a Restaurant.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from sixty to eighty years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating, you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous sickly looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity, any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly and thus giving the stomach a much needed rest and an appetite for the next meal.

Of people who travel, nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the traveling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full-sized packages and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

Mrs. Mary E. Meserve, of Salisbury, Mass., was cured of Anæmia, a disease in which there is an actual deficiency of the blood, by the use of

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

She says: "The first symptom was an unusual paleness. Later the blood seemed to have all left my body. I had shortness of breath and fluttering of the heart; was depressed, morose and peevish. I suffered for two years. Physicians did me little good but I am now a well woman because I took twelve boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

These pills really make new blood and have cured obstinate cases of rheumatism, scrofula and erysipelas. They are especially useful to growing girls.

MESSAGES SENT TO PRESIDENT

Senator Knox and Congressmen-Elect Wire Congratulations to Roosevelt.

DALZELL DISCUSSES VICTORY

Numerous telegrams were sent from Pittsburgh last night to President Roosevelt. Among those who wired their congratulations were Senator P. C. Knox and James Francis Burke and Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, congressmen-elect. The message from Senator Knox was as follows:

> I congratulate you upon the splendid indorsement of your manly administration. Pennsylvania's magnificent majority justifies her people in their extraordinary rejoicing tonight.

In discussing the victory, Senator Knox said:

> While not surprised, I am more than gratified at the indications throughout the country of an overwhelming Republican triumph. Pennsylvania's contribution to the result was certain, but nevertheless the incoming reports from the state cause the greatest satisfaction. They reassure the country that dependence can always be placed upon Pennsylvania when the right candidate is presented upon a sound platform.

Congressman Dalzell was, of course, not surprised at the result of the election, but the size of the landslide exceeded his expectations. He said:

> It means that the people are satisfied with the present condition of things, and that they were absolutely disgusted with the Democratic campaign methods. I believe not only that Judge Parker was a disappointment to his own people, but that his assault upon the president cost the Democrats thousands upon thousands of votes. Roosevelt's declaration in reply to Judge Parker put the latter in a hole, vernacularly speaking, and gained for our party thousands of votes. If Judge Parker examines his conscience tonight, I think he will feel ashamed of himself.

Was Certain of Victory.

> I never had a doubt as to the outcome of the election, and I campaigned in Ohio, West Virginia, New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island. There was a peculiar feature about this campaign. In many states there were local issues that interfered with the national campaign and somewhat obscured the outcome. In West Virginia the tax question was a burning one. While I was there I found that our people considered the national ticket reasonably safe, and yet felt that the Democrats might elect the governor and legislature. The same condition prevailed in New Jersey; there was a tax question there. I haven't been anywhere where the national ticket seemed to be in the remotest danger. Even in West Virginia, where the feeling was intense, Democratic business men with whom I talked expressed the opinion that things were all right and they saw no reason for a change, therefore, while they would vote for the Democratic state ticket, they would vote for Roosevelt, too.

Barchfeld's Message.

Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, yesterday elected to congress from the Thirty-second district, sent the following message to President Roosevelt last night:

> Accept my hearty congratulations upon your triumphant and overwhelming victory. Clean, honest, patriotic government as exemplified by you has met its just and proper reward by an appreciative nation.

In an interview Dr. Barchfeld said:

> The election of Theodore Roosevelt demonstrates that the American people can be depended upon to do the right thing at the proper time. By his triumph the principles and policies of the party have met a deserved vote of confidence at the hands of an intelligent and enlightened citizenship. Our foreign relations are the most pleasant of any in our history, and while our mission is one of peace, we are the most generally respected nation in the world. Our policy at home is for the development of our country. This election gives our policy of protection to industries and workingmen such an impetus that new enterprises along all the avenues of trade will follow. Decent government, clean politics, honest administration, by our fearless president have been vindicated.

William H. Graham, congressman-elect from the Twenty-ninth district, said:

> The result in Allegheny county and throughout the country is just what I expected. I have been over the country a good bit and from the canvass I made, and from the sentiment of the people, I predicted some time ago that this would be the biggest victory the Republican party has had since the civil war. A majority of 50,000 for our ticket in this county is what I looked for and indications bear me out in my guess. Personally, I shall have at least 14,000 majority in the Twenty-ninth congressional district and would have had a greater majority had there not been so many mistakes made in marking the ballots. I told Chairman Ford in a recent conversation that Roosevelt would have a bigger vote in the electoral college than McKinley did in the last presidential election, and I am certain he will find this to be the case.
>
> In behalf of the War Veterans' association of Allegheny City, William T. Bradberry, Thomas G. Sample and I sent a congratulatory message to the president tonight. We informed him that since his election was assured, the veterans of the country need have no fear that order No. 78, the pension order, would be revoked. I did not send any personal message, as there will be a deluge of them without mine.
> In Connecticut I found many Democrats who were sanguine of Democratic victory, but I found no Republicans who expressed doubt as to our party's success. Senator Platt of Connecticut is a safe, conservative man. He said to me: "There isn't the remotest doubt. Some of our people are putting Roosevelt's majority pretty high, but I am predicting that he will have 15,000 majority, although it may go as high as 20,000."
>
> In Rhode Island the Democrats were sanguine, the Republicans equally so. We lost one of our two Rhode Island congressmen at the last election, and I was assured that we would win the district back.

Could Not Discuss This Question.

Mr. Dalzell said there was one important question that was not brought forward during the campaign, as it could not be discussed with propriety on the stump, and that was the constitution of the supreme court. Our foreign policy had been determined by a divided court, five to four. In the very nature of things there must be a number of retirements during the next four years, Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Harlan being both of such an age that they would likely retire. The election of a Democratic president would have made it possible so to change the court that a distinct backward step might be taken in our foreign policy.

James Francis Burke, congressman-elect from the Thirty-first district, made this statement:

> The election of Roosevelt is a distinct step in the direction of the enforcement of the very highest ideals in American politics. The president's strong individuality, his intense desire for the triumph of truth and his abhorrence of corruption and cowardice promise well for the immediate future of our own national affairs.
>
> His whole life has been an object lesson worthy of emulation by every young American.
>
> With the country's affairs for four more years in the hands of the party which stands for peace, progress and prosperity, the entire industrial and commercial world will manifest new life and an atmosphere of confidence will surround us all.

Mr. Burke sent this message to the president:

> By your election truth has triumphed, Republicanism has been ratified and prosperity perpetuated. I greet you with a vote in congress in support of your policy which guarantees a square deal to all the people.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY DELEGATION IN THE HOUSE OF 59th CONGRESS

WILLIAM H. GRAHAM 29TH DISTRICT
JOHN DALZELL 30TH DISTRICT
JAMES FRANCIS BURKE 31ST DISTRICT
DR A.J. BARCHFELD 32ND DISTRICT

One result of yesterday's elections is that Allegheny county is to be once more represented in congress by a delegation elected as simon-pure Republicans. There will be no question raised as to the right of the men whose faces are presented herewith to take part in the Republican caucus and they can be counted on as stanch supporters of President Roosevelt and of every Republican principle and policy.

THIRTY-TWO SENATORS ARE TO BE ELECTED

Composition of New Body, However, Is Not Likely to Be Materially Changed.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Following are the senators whose terms expire next year and whose successors will be elected by legislature chosen at this election:

Thomas R. Bard of California, Republican. Will be succeeded by Republican.

Thomas Kearns, Utah, Republican. Will be succeeded by Democrat.

Redfield Proctor, Vermont, Republican. Will be succeeded by Republican.

John C. Daniel, Virginia, Democrat. Will be succeeded by Democrat.

Addison G. Foster, Washington, Republican. Will be succeeded by Republican.

Nathan B. Scott, West Virginia, Republican. Will be succeeded by Republican.

Joseph C. Quarles, Wisconsin, Republican. Will be succeeded by Republican.

Clarence D. Clark, Wyoming, Republican. Will be succeeded by Republican.

Present senate—Republicans, 57; Democrats, 33.

Retiring senators—Republicans, 24; Democrats, 7.

The election of Senator Fairbanks as vice president creates an extra vacancy in Indiana.

It is probable that the composition of the new senate will be the same as the last senate.

MARYLAND, TOO, IS IN REPUBLICAN COLUMN

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—While state returns are meager at midnight, the Republican managers are claiming the commonwealth by a majority of from 2,000 to 4,000. While the Democratic managers have not conceded this point, there is every indication that Maryland will cast its electoral vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

Returns from Baltimore city show that Parker has a plurality of about 400, which is so far below the estimates of the Democratic managers that it seems impossible for the Democrats to count on a vote that would swing Maryland into the Democratic column.

The Republicans elected four of the six congressional candidates, with estimated pluralities as follows:

First district, William H. Jackson, Republican, 900; Second district, J. Fred C. Talbot, Democrat, 1,000; Third district, Frank C. Wachter, Republican, 1,200; Fourth district, John Gill, Democrat, 500; Fifth district, Sydney E. Mudd, Republican, 600; Sixth district, George A. Pearre, Republican, 2,000.

CALIFORNIA TO FRONT.

Gives 75,000 Majority for Mr. Roosevelt. Gov. Peabody Will Carry Colorado.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—State Chairman George Stone of California wired Secretary Dover as follows:

"California will give Roosevelt 75,000 majority, and all the congressmen will be Republican."

Chairman Fairlie of Colorado wired:

"Roosevelt and Peabody will carry Colorado. The latter's majority will be smaller than Roosevelt's."

Republicans Sweep Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, WYO., Nov. 8.—Partial returns indicate that Roosevelt has carried Wyoming by 7,000 majority and the election of Mondell, Republican, to congress, and Brooks, Republican, for governor, and the remainder of the state ticket is certain.

Berge Probably a Winner.

LINCOLN, NEB., Nov. 8.—T. S. Allen, chairman of the Republican state committee, said at 10:30: "Early returns indicate the election of Berge, governor, by 10,000. He is making gains in every precinct, and I have no doubt about his election."

BRYAN'S HOOSIER TOUR AVAILED 'EM NOTHING

Democrats Lose Indiana by a Majority Which May Reach 60,000.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—On the basis of returns from Indianapolis and meager reports from out in the state, Indiana has gone Republican by anywhere from 35,000 to 50,000. State Chairman Goodrich of the Republican state committee claims the state by the latter plurality. First returns indicated the Democrats were making slight gains, but within an hour after the polls had closed, Democratic leaders had virtually given up. There was a remarkable unanimity of results in favor of Roosevelt. Almost without exception, each precinct showed gains for Roosevelt over the returns of four years ago, when Indiana gave McKinley 26,479 plurality.

Even the districts where Bryan was supposed to have made a strong pro-Parker impression in his Hoosier state campaign showed the prevailing drift to the Republican side.

Marion county, of which Indianapolis is the seat and which is regarded as sounding the keynote for the state, is pretty sure to give 12,000 for Roosevelt. McKinley four years ago carried the county by less than 6,000. A ratio of this kind maintained throughout the state would show a plurality of 55,000 to 60,000 for Roosevelt. Partial returns from Fort Wayne show a Republican gain of nearly 30 per cent for the head of the national ticket. Other towns make similar report and rural districts keep up the gait.

It is evident from the returns at hand that the party will control the legislature on joint ballot by from 30 to 40 votes, thus re-electing Senator Beveridge and a successor to United States Senator Fairbanks. The return of nine Republican congressmen is certainly assured, and it is possible that they may have elected their candidate in the Twelfth district.

SLANDER WAS FUTILE.

National Committeeman Lowden Congratulates the President on the People's Unshaken Faith.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—National committeeman Frank O. Lowden has sent the following telegram to President Roosevelt:

"I congratulate you and the American people. Your majority is so overwhelming that hereafter no one can say you were not the choice of your countrymen. You owe your election solely to the people of the United States, whose faith in you could not be shaken by slander. It is indeed a great triumph for you, and one full of promise for our common country."

WILD WEST IN LINE.

Washington and Montana Flash News of Republican Triumph to Secretary Dover.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Secretary Dover of the national Republican committee, has received the following telegram:

"Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Democrats concede Washington to Roosevelt by 20,000. We claim by 40,000.

"E. B. PALMER, Chairman."

"Butte, Mont., Nov. 8.—Accept sincere congratulations. It's glorious. Put Montana in the grand triumphal procession.

"LEE MANTLE, Chairman."

PARKER GETS 40,000 IN SOUTH CAROLINA

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 8.—Parker has carried South Carolina by not less than 40,000 plurality. The Democratic state ticket has been elected without opposition. The state legislature is unanimously Democratic. The following Democratic congressmen have been elected: First district, George S. Legare; Second district, J. O. Patterson; Third, Wyatt Aiken; Fourth, Joseph T. Johnson; Fifth, David E. Finley; Sixth, J. E. Ellerbe; Seventh, Asbury F. Lever.

YOUNG MEN'S TARIFF CLUB SENDS MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT

In the rooms of the Young Men's Republican Tariff club last night about 400 members gathered to get the returns. At midnight, when the result throughout the country was pretty well known, a message of congratulation was sent to President Roosevelt. It read, "Delighted," and was signed "Young Men's Republican Tariff club of Pittsburgh, Pa."

M'KINLEY'S MAJORITY IS BEATEN IN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Scattering returns from California indicate that Roosevelt has carried the state by a larger majority than did McKinley four years ago. Of the eight congressmen to be elected the Republicans claim to be assured of seven, with the Second district in doubt. In this district Bell (Dem.) is running ahead of his ticket.

NEVADA JOINS WITH REPUBLICAN VICTORS

RENO, NEV., Nov. 8.—So far as heard from, the Republican state ticket is in the lead and Verington (Rep.) for congress is probably elected over Van Duser (Dem.). The state is conceded to Roosevelt. Norcross (Rep.) for supreme judge is running ahead of his ticket.

LOGICAL RESULT, SAYS FAIRBANKS

Running Mate Wires Congratulations to the President at White House.

COWHERD IS SAYING NOTHING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Among the messages of congratulation received by President Roosevelt was one from his running mate on the Republican ticket, Charles W. Fairbanks. It read.

"Accept my heartiest congratulations upon your well deserved and magnificent victory. Your election is the logical result of your splendid administration. May the four years to come be marked by widespread happiness and prosperity. Mrs. Fairbanks joins me in best wishes to Mrs. Roosevelt and yourself."

The president's reply was conveyed in a personal telephone talk with Mr. Fairbanks in which he congratulated the latter.

National Chairman George B. Cortelyou, to whom the president accords the highest praise for his conduct of the campaign, telegraphed at a late hour as follows:

"The country has given an overwhelming vote of confidence in you and your administration. My associates of the Republican national committee join me in heartiest congratulations."

The president's reply was withheld from publication as it contained some personal references.

The Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican national committee wired:

"My heartiest congratulations. The people show that they love the man who always gives them a square deal."

Among the hundreds of messages tas the following which the president appreciated:

"The sweep is complete and magnificent. The people have rebuked the most disgraceful and dishonest campaign of our memory with an emphasis that will be remembered."

NICOLAS MURRAY BUTLER,
ALBERT SHAW,
WILLIAM N. COHEN.

President Roosevelt is especially pleased that Frank W. Higgins has been elected governor of New York, for he feels that the campaign waged against Mr. Higgins was unwarrantably bitter.

Late tonight, when the returns indicated that the Republicans had carried the house of representatives by an appreciably greater majority than that by which they hold the present house, the president expressed earnest gratification at the result.

At the Democratic congressional headquarters returns were received and read by Chairman Cowherd, Secretary Edwards and other officials and friends. The disappointing news which early came over wires showing the vote in New York state and city, was received philosophically by the Democrats. Chairman Cowherd said he did not expect to have any detailed statement of the complexion of the next house tonight as the returns received were not sufficient on which to base it.

REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE IN WOLVERINE STATE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 8.—Michigan today was the scene of a veritable Republican landslide. Roosevelt and Fairbanks have carried the state by an unprecedented majority, variously estimated at from 100,000 to 150,000; Fred M. Warner and the Republican state ticket are elected; at least 11 of the 12 congressmen from Michigan are Republican, and the legislature is overwhelmingly Republican, insuring the re-election of United States Senator J. C. Burrows.

Returns are very slow in coming in from the state and at midnight definite figures were impossible to give. Fred M. Warner, Republican candidate for governor, was generally conceded a majority of about 35,000, while Roosevelt and Fairbanks' majority was simply described generally as over 100,000. At midnight no returns had been made in Detroit, which, however, has unquestionably given the Republican national ticket a majority of 10,000 or over.

The result of the congressional election in the First district, composed of 12 wards in this city, will not be known until early hours of tomorrow. On the face of the returns from the 2 o'clock count, George P. Codd (Rep.) has defeated William C. Maybury (Dem.) who was a candidate for a fourth term as mayor of Detroit.

RETURNS AT CHURCH.

Members of Sixth United Presbyterian Congregation Received News by Special Wire.

The Men's association of the Sixth United Presbyterian church, Highland avenue, East End, received the returns last night by a special wire which had been looped into one of the rooms in the big building. The chapel of the church was filled with the men of the congregation, and it is not likely that any crowd in the city received the results in more elegant comfort.

It was the regular meeting night of the association. A week or two ago it was feared there would be no turnout at the meeting on account of the election. The association is a progressive one, and, to insure a full turnout, it was decided to cut in a wire and get the returns at the meeting. The plan was a great success and at least 300 men took advantage of the arrangement. A light luncheon was provided and the evening was passed pleasantly.

It seemed to be a Republican crowd all through, as lively satisfaction was expressed at the way things seemed to be going. Prof. G. M. Sleeth, the elocutionist, entertained the audience with a number of selections.

DELAWARE JOINS PROCESSION.

Republican Majority Expected to Reach 4,000—Addicks in Control.

WILMINGTON, DEL., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—It is thought the Republican majority in the state on presidential election will reach about 4,000 and the entire Republican state ticket is elected, although Lea, for governor, is considerably behind in this city. The Democrats have carried several districts in Kent and Sussex counties, and while the legislature will surely be Republican the Addicks men may not have a clear majority. The Addicks Republicans will have a majority in the state senate.

Any Democrats in Iowa?

DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 8.—Returns are slow in coming in, but the indications from well-distributed returns are that Roosevelt's plurality will be 125,000 and the entire state ticket will have about the same number. Republicans elect 10 congressmen, with the Second district in doubt. Wade, Democrat, seems to be holding his own with the vote of 1902, when he carried the district by 1,500.

Republican Gain in Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, OKLA., Nov. 8.—Reports from 8 of the 26 counties show substantial Republican gains over two years ago and indicate Bird S. McGuire's re-election as delegate to congress over Frank Mathews, by about 1,500 majority.

ILLINOIS BROKE ALL PRECEDENTS

Cook County Alone Gave 165,000 Majority for the Republican Nominees.

THANKS DUE THE SOCIALISTS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—With the help of the Socialists, who slashed the head of the Democratic ticket, state and national, Illinois has rolled up an unprecedented plurality for Theodore Roosevelt for president and Charles S. Deneen for governor.

Cook county alone, where the Democrats centered the slim hopes they had, has given 165,000 plurality for the president, and earlier scattered returns from down state indicate the rural counties may present another 100,000. It is evident that the entire Republican national, state, county and legislative tickets have made big gains. Not a single candidate on the Democratic county ticket has been elected. The Cook county delegation in the legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican.

In the Twenty-second congressional district, one of the doubtful districts, Rodenberg (Rep.) is probably re-elected. Preston Harrison, brother of the mayor, is defeated in the Eighth district in this city, normally a Democratic stronghold. Republicans are likely to gain three congressmen.

The indications at 10 o'clock, based on the returns received, were that the Republican national ticket had carried Illinois by about 150,000. The chairman of the Republican state central committee, however, asserted that Roosevelt would certainly have a plurality of 200,000. The Democrats declare that these figures were greatly exaggerated, but admitted that Roosevelt would have a plurality not far from 100,000.

EARLY AT THE POLLS.

New York's Vote Was a Record-Breaker for Rapidity and Numbers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Not only the number, but the rapidity with which the votes were cast, made today's balloting in this city record-breaking. The ideal weather seemed to coax out even the laziest voter and the polling places were confronted with the largest number of prospective voters ever known, as soon as they were declared open.

One-sixth of the total vote of Manhattan and the Bronx was cast during the first hour; by 10 o'clock one-third of the total number of registered had voted in many of the precincts; by noon nearly two-thirds of the ballots had been deposited, and during the last two or three hours, the clerks, inspectors and watchers at the various polling places were idle most of the time.

This eagerness to vote was marked in every part of the city—on the East Side, in the silk stocking upper West Side and in the Bronx.

Will Celebrate Victory.

The James F. Burke Republican club of the Nineteenth ward will celebrate the great Republican victory in its headquarters tomorrow evening. The club meets at Penn and Euclid avenues. A general invitation to the friends of the organization is extended and a rousing time is expected. Mr. Burke will be present and address the meeting, and other good speeches have been arranged.

HAIR HEALTH warranted to Renew youthful color and beauty to GRAY HAIR. Use only Hay's Hair Health. Most satisfactory Hair grower dressing. Stops dandruff, hair falling and scalp diseases. Covers BALD spots. Don't stain skin or linen. Large 50 Cent bottles, at leading druggists.

THE KEELEY CURE has been used successfully for 21 years.
Cures Drink Habit and Drug Users.
The Keeley Institute, 4246 Fifth ave., Pittsburgh.

Well people use Liquozone even more than the sick. Millions use it to keep well. May we buy you a 50c bottle to try?

We who know Liquozone best use it daily in our families, and millions of others do likewise. We use it to ward off germ attacks; to cure the little ills that come. We use it to purify drinking water. And we use it as a tonic; as the best thing in the world for us.

Those who are sick with a germ disease must use it, for there is no other way to destroy the cause of a germ trouble. But those who are well need it, also. Nearly all sickness can be avoided by it; all colds warded off. Liquozone taken in the morning gives one vitality for the duties of the day. Taken at night, it places the stomach and bowels in perfect condition for morning.

Acts Like Oxygen.

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there any alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.

The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter.

There lies the great value of Liquozone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease. It is this fact that gives Liquozone its worth to humanity. And that worth is so great that, after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, we paid $100,000 for the American rights.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

Gazette's Tremendous Gain in Classified Advertising During Past Ten Months

During the ten months ending October 31 The Gazette carried 238,364 agate lines more classified advertising than during the corresponding period last year. The Sunday Gazette gained 88,074 more lines and the Daily Gazette gained 150,290 lines. The reason for The Gazette's great increase in classified advertising patronage, during a period of general business depression, is explained by the fact that the daily average circulation of The Gazette for the past ten months was over 71,000, far exceeding any other daily or Sunday paper in Pittsburgh.

WANTED.

Agents.

AGENTS—Wanted in Pittsburgh and natural gas towns to sell the famous Willtom gaslight burner; it excels all other high-power burners in brilliancy, durability and economy; makes fully 300-candlepower light with one small regular sized 10-cent mantle; last indefinitely. The new Willtom No. 5, just out, is the KING OF LIGHTS for residences and stores; can be used on high or low pressure; either ARTIFICIAL OR NATURAL GAS. Its illuminating power is three times greater than that of the ordinary burner; any mantle or any style globe or chimney can be used. It is a light that never fails. It is the only DUST PROOF light in existence. The airholes are enclosed by a perforated shield which excludes all lint and dust from the burner. It is the easiest regulated of all gaslights. The Willtom side screw regulator is the simplest and best adjustable gas check ever devised. The flame can be regulated from the highest to the lowest point of combustion, thus saving the consumer 25 or 30 per cent on his lighting bills. People who use the Willtom "No. 5" have the satisfaction of knowing that every atom of gas they pay for is turned into light. We are offering special inducements to agents; the best of the season just starting, enabling them to make $5 to $15 a day.

PERSONALS.

TREMENDOUS BARGAINS.
There is not one person in a hundred who appreciates how much a little advertising can be made to do for him. The man who wants to sell a house, hire a servant, find a lost dog, or do any of a hundred other similar things, usually finds before he is through that a "want ad." in a reliable paper is the simplest, easiest and cheapest way of accomplishing his purpose. Those men who have been fortunate enough to place their "want ad." in THE GAZETTE have always found its prices real bargains when judged by the results obtained. It has over 72,000 families on its lists to whom it can appeal for you—that is, you speak to over a quarter million people when you use its columns. No wonder you are certain of results. Look below at some of the bargains offered you.

SOCIETY

THE almost unbroken round of smart social affairs given for Miss Rebecca McCullough Darlington and her fiance, Louis E. Stoddard of New Haven, Conn., came to an end last evening with the dinner given by Dallas C. Byers at his home in Ridge avenue, Allegheny. A huge centerpiece of fragrant American Beauty roses formed the only decorations. The guests included Miss Darlington, Mr. Stoddard, Miss Madeline Laughlin, Miss Marian Chambers, Miss Virginia Bughman, Miss Catherine North of New York, Miss Estelle Barbour of Detroit, Miss Josephine McIlvaine of Philadelphia, Carlos French Stoddard, Harry Darlington, Jr., Murray W. Dodge, Frederick Brewster, G. F. Stillman, Malcolm McBride, Ezekiel Bronson, Thomas W. Farnum, Frank S. Butterworth, Clarke Harvey, Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison Carnegie, Jr., Hugh Inman, Josiah Copley Thaw, Leslie Johnston, William B. Scaife, Eben M. Byers, Mr. Conners, J. Frederic Byers and J. Denniston Lyon.

Election Night Card Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb C. Lee of Oakmont gave an election night card party last evening, their guests being the members of their euchre club. The score cards, which were designed and made by the hostess, were very unique. At the top were Roosevelt and Fairbanks buttons and at each upper corner were tiny American flags. For every lone hand won the flags were punched and for every game the card was punched.

Luncheon for Out-of-Town Women.

At the luncheon which Mrs. Harry Darlington gave yesterday at the Pittsburgh Golf club there were seven Pittsburgh and Allegheny women and seven from out of town. Although Mrs. Darlington had issued the invitations for the luncheon, her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Bennett, presided at the table, as Mrs. Darlington was unable to be present. The guests included Mr. Darlington's sister, Miss Darlington, and Mrs. Joseph R. Coates and her two daughters, the Misses Coates of Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Frank Darlington of Indianapolis, Mrs. Ezekiel G. Stoddard of New Haven, Mrs. Harmar D. Denny, Mrs. Paschall Carr, Mrs. Hermon Griffith, Mrs. Henry Chalfant, Miss Mary Speer and Mrs. Douglas Stewart.

Southern Women Will Receive.

The Woman's Southern society of Pittsburgh will hold a small and informal reception for the members and their friends tomorrow evening at their rooms in the Conservatory of Music in Dithridge street. A musical program has been prepared. The officers of the society are Mrs. Henry J. Ford, president; Mrs. Warren LaRue Thomas, first vice president; Mrs. Maria C. Wolfe, second vice president; Mrs. M. J. Hall, recording secretary; Miss Henrietta B. Costin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William L. Kester, treasurer, and Mrs. G. B. MacFarland, musical director.

Gave a Hygienic Luncheon.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church, Crafton, gave a "hygienic" luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Zahn, Belvidere street, yesterday afternoon, for the benefit of the building fund of the church. These lesson luncheons have become popular throughout the country. Those given in Pittsburgh have been in charge of the Misses Dacey and Hazzard, graduates of domestic science. The proceeds of the luncheon were $50.

Wedding Rehearsal and Dinner.

The rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Helen Franklin Custer and Thomas Kennedy Bishop took place last evening at the bride's home in Sheridan avenue and was followed by a dinner given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Custer. Pearl pins were given by the bride and bridegroom to all their attendants. In addition to the maid of honor and the bridesmaids, Miss Custer will be attended by a little ring bearer, Miss Helen Fisk of Philadelphia, a niece of Mr. Bishop.

Informal Entertainments.

Miss May Woodward of Williamsport, who is the house guest of Mrs. Samuel Seymour of Wallingford street, was guest of honor at a small and informal dinner given last evening by Mrs. Lide Packer Blair of Castleman street, Shadyside.

Mrs. Joseph Jones of South Negley avenue will entertain with a card party on Thursday afternoon, November 17, in honor of her house guest, Miss Eicholtz of Baltimore.

Mrs. Frank W. Smith of Westminster street was hostess at an informal tea yesterday afternoon to meet Mrs. J. M. Oakley of New York. Mrs. James Hay Reed and Mrs. Alexander McKaig assisted.

Notes of the Clubs.

The first meeting of the season was held yesterday afternoon by the members of the Tuesday Musical club.

The first of the winter series of card parties was given at the Brighton Country club last evening under the direction of Miss Alice Ablett and Miss Margaret H. Young.

The Lawrenceville New Century club will hold memorial services for Miss H. Elizabeth Corey, a member of the club, who died recently, on Tuesday, November 15, in the Young Women's Christian association rooms in Fortieth street.

The Woman's club of Ben Avon met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Blaine yesterday. They were entertained by Mrs. Mary Courtney, her subject being "Henry Van Dyke." An interesting paper was read on the same subject by Mrs. O. M. Stauffer. The club will celebrate the tenth anniversary of its organization next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Brown in Ben Avon.

The executive committtee of the County Woman's Christian Temperance union held its regular monthly meeting in the chapel of the Methodist Episcopal Publication building in Penn avenue yesterday afternoon.

WELCOMED DEATH IN INVALID CHAIR

Paralyzed Veteran of the War of the Rebellion Blew Out His Brains.

USED HIS OLD ARMY MUSKET

Desponded because of his crippled condition for 13 years and further disheartened because of a complication of diseases from which he had suffered for several months, Charles G. Sanders, aged 65, of 1118 Sarah street, South Side, a veteran of the civil war, reached from his invalid chair in the kitchen of his home at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and grasping the musket which he had carried and used in many combats during the war, held the muzzle to his mouth and pulling the trigger blew out his brains.

Sanders was a member of Patterson post No. 151, G. A. R., and a well-known resident of the South Side, having lived in the house in which he died for over 30 years. For 13 years he had been confined to an invalid chair, the lower portion of his body having been paralyzed. Yesterday afternoon his wife left him in the kitchen, going to an upper floor, when it appears he loaded his old muzzle-loading army musket with shot, and with the aid of a percussion cap accomplished his purpose, death being instantaneous. Where he procured the ammunition is not known.

Sanders is survived by a widow, two sons, one daughter and two brothers, one of whom, Philip Sanders of South Twelfth street, like his brother, has been paralyzed and confined to an invalid chair for nearly a score of years.

Guests of Texas Oil Country Hotel Burn to Death in Fire of Uncertain Origin.

HOUSTON, TEX., Nov. 8.—The Silver Queen hotel, in the Sour lake oil field, was destroyed by fire today and four people burned to death. The dead are C. E. Lewis, Spindletop, Tex.; Lee Hamilton, Spindletop, Tex.; Jack Smith and wife, New Hanoxer, Tex.

The hotel was filled with guests. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Lost Arm in the Rolls.

Charles Knorr of Swissvale avenue, Rankin, employed at the Rankin plant of the Garland Chain Company, lost an arm yesterday afternoon when the rolls at which he was working caught his hand and drew the arm in. The machine was stopped and three men were required to lift the roll.

FOREIGN FINANCIAL.

American Stocks Strong in the London Market Under the Leadership of United States Steel.

All the domestic markets were closed yesterday, which gave increased interest to the London market. The latter was buoyant for American securities under the leadership of United States Steel, which closed 2⅛ per cent higher for the common and 1¾ per cent higher for the preferred. St. Paul, Ontario and Western, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific were the strongest of the railroads. BELIVES HIMSELF HEIR TO PORTION OF GRAND FORTUNE

Footsore and weary, David Crossmyre was given lodging at the South Side police station last night. He came here from St. Louis to investigate as to his claims to a portion of an $18,000,000 estate. Jacob Baker died and left a fortune, said to have been valued at that amount, and it was said to consist of property in this city and in Philadelphia. Crossmyre's mother was Mary Baker and she had a brother, Jacob, who formerly lived here. The mother had also lived in Pittsburgh once, and Crossmyre was born in Pike street. While working in St. Louis recently he concluded he would come to this city and try to establish his claims to part of the fortune.

Miss Maude Adams at the Nixon.

Charles Frohman will present during the coming week at the Nixon theater Miss Maude Adams, in her original play, "The Little Minister." It was in this play that Miss Adams so firmly gained the good opinion of the theater-going public and has well retained it, and her coming again in this play is calculated to create the impression that she will be given during her engagement receptions cordial in the extreme.

MGR. ELDER'S OBSEQUIES ATTENDED BY THOUSANDS

Impressive Services Mark the Funeral of the Archbishop of Cincinnati. Cardinal Gibbons There.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 8.—The funeral service of Archbishop William H. Elder took place at St. Peter's cathedral, in this city, today. From the beginning, when the long line of clergy—archbishops, bishops and priests—marching in solemn column from the cathedral residence around to the front entrance of the vast auditorium, entered, chanting the Laudes, to the final act, when the five absolutions were given to the dead, one absolution by the highest authority of the church in America, this was the most impressive funeral service for a Catholic clergyman ever held in the United States.

Long before the beginning of the service a crowd of thousands had assembled in the vicinity of the cathedral. When the cathedral doors were opened for those possessing tickets of admission, a steady stream of men and women poured into the edifice, and the seating capacity of the auditorium was soon occupied. Of those outside many remained for the conclusion of the service. All the clergy except Cardinal James Gibbons were garbed in black, with but a bit of purple to indicate the rank of the deceased.

The late archbishop's throne, now rightfuly the place of Archbishop Moeller, was vacant, draped in purple, and over the chair was thrown the cappa magna of the dead archbishop.

The services were conducted by Cardinal Gibbons, assisted by Archbishop Moeler and other dignitaries of the church.

Colds. Their Proper Treatment and Cure.

Commonly, the first symptom of a "cold" is a chilly feeling, accompanied by sneezing, or a tickling in the throat. The most frequent of external causes are draughts, wet or cold feet, or going from hot rooms suddenly into cold ones. More frequently there is an inner cause—namely the stagnation of the blood caused by constipation or biliousness. Almost the first symptom is the feeling of cold in the feet and increased discharge from the nose.

No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. Tonics consisting of large portions of alcohol, iron or cod liver oil do not bring the desired changes in the blood, because they do not enter the system and are not absorbed into the blood, with the exception of the alcohol, which shrivels up the red blood corpuscles when it does come in contact with them. We recommend the botanical extract of Dr. Pierce because it contains no alcohol, and offers a reasonable and scientific method of treating the blood, by improving the nutritive functions of the patient. The "Golden Medical Discovery" accomplishes this, by first restoring the enfeebled digestive organs, so that food, the natural tissue builder, will be digested and assimilated.

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach.

Keystone Oil and Gas Company Has Show for a Producer

The Keystone Oil and Gas Company has tapped the Berea grit in its well No. 1 on the William Kevan property, Beaver county, Pa., and have a favorable showing for a producer. The well will be drilled in today or tomorrow. This company is largely composed of Braddock people.

Very light reports were received from the lower southwest yesterday. The wells reported drilling in the sand or completed for the most part are showing light. About the only exception is the Carter Oil Company's second test on the H. C. Watson farm, in the Wick pool, Tyler county. At 17 feet in the Big Injun it got the pay and is showing for a natural producer, good for 100 barrels a day. This well is about midway between the No. 1 on the same farm, a small well, and the No. 1 on the Snodgrass farm.

North of Cairo, Ritchie county, the Cairo Oil Company has drilled its No. 9 on the J. N. Davidson farm into the salt sand and has a show for a 12-barrel pumper in that formation.

In the Burning Springs district, in Wirt county, G. N. Grow has completed his test on the Phillip McCauley farm and has a duster in the Big Injun at a depth of 1,310 feet.

In the Yellow creek development, Calhoun county, Leonard, Carr & Gilmore have completed a second test on the Richard-Bush farm and have a show for a 60-barrel producer. The same company's No. 1 on this farm is holding up at 100 barrels a day.

Upham, Ralston & Co. have drilled in their No. 14 on the Robert Ferrell farm, and since giving it a shot in the Berea grit have a show for a 25-barrel producer. In the same district the South Penn Oil Company's Nos. 1 and 3 on the H. I. Jackson farm are holding up at 150 barrels a day.

In the Milton district, Cabell county, the gauges of the wells in the producing list are as follows: E. W. Beckett Nos. 1, 2 and 3, 60 barrels; Nos. 1 and 2 Harshbarger, 45 barrels; Nos. 1 and 2 Kilgore heirs', 30 barrels; Nos. 2 and 3 Burns, 10 barrels, and Nos. 1 and 2 Berkley, 10 barrels.

The Rays run district, on the Ohio side, Washington county, shows more activity than at any time in the past three months. In this district the Carter Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the S. E. Hutchinson farm through the squaw sand and got a small showing of oil. It is now drilling to the lower sands, and if nothing better is found it will be shot and tested in the squaw formation.

In the Wolf creek district, Haler & Co. have completed their No. 18 on the Effie M. Burt farm and have a 75-barrel producer in the shallow sand. In the same district Posten & Co. have completed No. 8 on the Joseph Zumbro farm and has a duster.

In the Newport district James Morrison & Co. have drilled their No. 6 on the A. Friedal farm into the Berea grit, and the well is flowing at the rate of 40 barrels an hour. In the same district Stealey & Fertig have completed their test on the Marietta college grounds and have a five-barrel pumper in the Horse Neck sand.

In the Lewisville district, Monroe county, the Pure Oil Company has completed its No. 8 on the C. A. Bishop farm and has a 10-barrel pumper in the Keener sand. In the Adams pool, in Harrison county, Kimmer, Lacy & Co. have completed their No. 3 on the David Welsh farm and have a duster. This is 300 feet north of No. 2 on the same farm.

BONANZA MINES OF ARIZONA

The Most Important Copper Development in the Past Twenty Years.

WILL RIVAL AMALGAMATED

The Calumet & Arizona "family" of bonanza copper mines, located in the Warren district of Arizona, is conservatively stated to be the most important copper development of the past 20 years, and it is predicted by authorities in the trade that within a few years this group will be producing more copper than the Amalgamated Copper Company, which is capitalized at $155,000,000 and is at the present time the largest producer of copper in the world. The new copper mines of Arizona were developed by Michigan and Pittsburgh capital, and their extraordinary success means millions of profits for capitalists in this city and throughout the Lake Superior region.

A history of the development of the properties, prepared for Hayden, Stone & Co. of Boston, contains many facts which will interest stockholders in Pittsburgh.

The Lake Superior & Western Development Company, the parent of the Calumet & Arizona and the forerunner of all the other Michigan-Arizona copper mining and development companies, was organized in March, 1899, just after the culmination of the big copper boom of 1898-99. The capitalization was but $200,000, in 20,000 shares of $10 par, and not all of this was called. The company took a bond and lease, at the price of $500,000, on the Irish Mag and adjoining claims, all lying next to the property of the Copper Queen mine, controlled by Phelps, Dodge & Co., one of the big mines of the world, and, until the development of the Calumet & Arizona, the only producer of the Warren district.

After experiencing the tribulations common to all mining ventures, the Lake Superior & Western Development Company was rewarded by finding a very promising ore body at a depth of 817 feet in the vertical shaft sunk upon the Irish Mag claim, which is next to the Silver Spray shaft of the Copper Queen. Development proving that the ore body was not only very large but very rich as well, the Calumet & Arizona Mining Company was organized two years later in March, 1901. The mine was opened extensively and a smelter built at Douglas, 25 miles from Bisbee, being located there to secure an adequate water supply. One furnace of the smelter was blown in November, 1902, and during the year 1903 the mine made 25,535,857 pounds of refined copper. This is the largest production ever achieved in its first year by any copper mine, placing the Calumet & Arizona tenth among the world's producers, the ore averaging better than 8 per cent copper as smelted, which, also, is the highest percentage secured by any mine making more than a trivial product. It is expected, however, that with the deeper openings now being secured, the Calumet & Arizon will average about the same as the Copper Queen, that is, a little better than 7 per cent blister copper from all ore smelted. No concentration or milling of any sort is employed at any mine in the Bisbee camp, and of the rock hoisted the percentage discarded as waste is trivial. An especially notable feature of the Calumet & Arizona's large production, which is now running at the rate of better than 30,000,000 pounds per annum, is that it all comes from a single shaft. A second shaft, now sinking, is bottomed in ore, and can begin production perhaps within a year. An addition to the smelting capacity is to be made shortly, and when the new shaft is in full operation, say 18 months later, there seems no reason why the Calumet & Arizona cannot make 5,000,000 pounds monthly, or 60,000,000 pounds yearly, which will put it upon a productive parity with the Copper Queen and Greene Consolidated, though smelting a much smaller tonnage of ore than the latter, and giving an annual production infe[illegible] only to that of the Anaconda, Boston & Montana, Calumet & Hecla and Rio Tinto. This forecast of possibilities is conservative and fully warranted by what has been done with a single shaft during the two past years.

The area of the Calumet & Arizona is approximately 160 acres, of which three claims are on the porphyry side of Tombstone canyon, and of only prospective value, leaving a little more than 100 acres of assured mineral land, but the size and richness of the ore bodies render this a much larger property than might be inferred from its area alone. In the single shaft on the Irish Meg claim of 20 acres, not all of which has been opened, and with the shaft still sinking in ore, the depth of which is unknown, ore carrying several hundred million pounds of copper and equal to requirements for six or seven years to come, has been opened and is now available for stoping. The mine is being opened about twice as fast as stoped, which means that if stoping were kept up with opening from now on, this single claim alone could make fully 5,000,000 pounds of blister copper monthly, if given another shaft to raise the ore.

The mining plant of the Calumet & Arizona is small but excellently planned and fully adequate, the powerful hoists and other machinery found in the lake district being unnecessary in Bisbee. The smelter site of 600 acres at Calumet, two miles west of Douglas, is ample for any possible requirements, not only of the Calumet & Arizona, but of all its allied mines and all possible future allies for all time to come. The company has a capitalization of 250,000 shares, par $10, but has issued only 200,000 shares, and it is not likely that any further issue ever will be made. The first dividend was $2 and the company is now paying quarterly dividends of $1.50, equal to $1,200,000 annually. The cash assets of the company, in cash, bills receivable and copper, are a little more than $1,500,000, accumulated simultaneously with the disbursement of dividends aggregating $1,300,000, showing that the company, although paying $6 per share per annum, also is placing nearly or quite as much more in its surplus. Charles Briggs is president, Gordon R. Campbell secretary, and Samuel Parnall, a son of the late William E. Parnall of the Bigelow Lake mines, is general manager. The management, both general and at the mine, is capable, experienced and energetic, and has the implicit confidence of all Lake Superior people. Of the stock, something over half is held in Houghton county, the balance being owned in Pittsburgh, Duluth, Milwaukee, Ishpeming, Marquette, Bisbee and elsewhere. As all improvements are charged direct to operating expenses, and a large surplus has been accumulated within two years, an increase in the dividend rate is but a matter of time.

The Calumet & Arizona group at Bisbee includes four other properties also, these being the Calumet & Pittsburgh, Lake Superior & Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh & Duluth and Junction companies. All have the same officers and the same general manager, but none have smelters, although production can be taken care of when the producing stage is reached by the Calumet & Arizona or Copper Queen smelters at Douglas.

The Calumet and Pittsburgh Mining Company was organized in December, 1903, succeeding a development company of the same name. Organization was perfected upon a much smaller showing of ore than at any of the other mines of the group, being forced by the necessity of raising money to take up the bond falling due upon the company's lands. The property's area is about 250 acres, lying southeast of the Calumet and Arizona and not far from the Lowell shaft of the Copper Queen. Capitalization is $2,500,000, in 250,000 shares, of which 50,000 remain unissued. Its lands were acquired at a cost of $937,451.75. The company has a considerable sum of cash in its treasury, and, if more is needed, can readily raise it by sale of a block of its treasury stock, the shares now selling at about $40. The shaft is very wet and the ore bodies yet opened are small, compared with the other mines of the district, but there are indications that larger ore bodies will be encountered soon.

The Lake Superior and Pittsburgh Mining Company was organized in June, 1904, succeeding a development company of the same name organized two years previously. It has a capitalization of $3,000,000 in 300,000 shares, of which 50,000 remain unissued, the larger capitalization being due to the necessity of providing more money to pay for the lands bought of the South Bisbee Copper Mining and Townsite Improvement Company for $1,200,000. Owing to a quarrel between Bisbee and Los Angeles stockholders of the South Bisbee company, in which the former charged that they were swindled by the latter, Bisbee shareholders refused to ratify the sale of the lands, which were, however, turned over in legal form by the officers of the company, and good lawyers advised that the title was perfect. It was thought best, however, to remove the only flaw from the title, and the Bisbee shareholders of the old company are to be given 10,000 shares of the treasury stock in lieu of all claims of whatsoever nature. This is much the largest in area of any of the Calumet and Arizona group, having 640 acres of land. There are two shafts, the main shaft being about 1,100 feet deep and showing immensely large and rich ore bodies. In my judgment the Lake Superior and Pittsburgh will make the big mine of the Calumet and Arizona group. The property is so near the productive stage that serious consideration is being given the matter of smelting, and a contract may be made with the Copper Queen to treat the ore, until such time as a new smelter can be built, or the Calumet and Arizona smelter nlarger. I am taking no chances whatever in predicting that the Lake Superior and Pittsburgh will make one of the largest and richest copper mines in the world.

The Pittsburgh and Duluth Copper Mining Company, just organized this month, succeeds a development company formed about 18 months ago. Lands are 12 claims, area a trifle more than 200 acres, costing a little more than $1,000,000. Development has been by a drift from the Mag shaft of the Calumet and Arizona and by two diamond drills operated from the 1,000-foot level of the Lake Superior and Pittsburgh. The latter have penetrated a large ore body of very high grade, and the prospects of the property have grown much brighter during the past six weeks. The lands are on the crest of the mountain and will be somewhat difficult of development, but a mine can be opened anywhere, if the ore in sight warrants, as it does in this case. This property practically is without equipment and is the least advanced in development of the group.

The Junction Development Company is the last of the Calumet and Arizona flotations remaining in the chrysalis stage, all the others having been made full-fledged mining corporations. The Junction was organized in 1903, with a capitalization of $750,000, in 50,000 shares, par $15, and holds 14 claims, area about 200 acres, lying near the Calumet and Pittsburgh, on which $581,381 remains unpaid upon the bond. A shaft is sinking on the boundary of the Junction and Calumet and Pittsburgh lands planned to serve both mines. Good ore bodies have been proven by diamond drill borings. The property takes its name from the fact that it lies at the junction of the limestone and porphyry rock strata, which lie upon opposite si[illegible]mbstone canyon. It was generally felt by mining men that the Junction was the least certain of any of the Calumet and Arizona flotations, but it is "making good" just like the others.

BUSINESS H'LTED FOR COUNTING OF BALLOTS

Everybody Waited for the Figures and Local Markets Were Very Dull.

Election day made dull the local markets yesterday. In the grocery line from New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, up until 3 o'clock, there was not a single quotation of any kind on any subject. Prices were as firm as they could be or else there was nothing doing to disturb the serenity of the market in these three big centers. There was no uneasiness anywhere. Everybody seemed to be satisfied that it was going all right, but they were just sort of waiting around until the count was finished.

The greatest novelty in the market yesterday was green corn. This late in the year in this latitude, roasting ears have been an unheard of luxury. They came from Maryland and were selling at 30 cents a dozen by the basket. Each basket held about eight dozen. The Maryland gardeners have struck a new plan. Before the frost comes they pull their corn up by the roots, with well formed ears upon it, and put it in a storage house where the roots can be kept damp, and it will continue to mature. This allows them to put freen corn on the market weeks after all others have quit that line of produce. W. E. Osborne & Co. were handling the delicacy yesterday and it seemed a most popular article.

The supply of potatoes on hand is steadily decreasing and that of apples is on the increase. There were 116 carloads of apples in the yards yesterday and potatoes were down to 107. The winter supply of apples is now coming in rapidly. Shippers are rushing them in for storage before the freezing weather comes. Potatoes are expected to come in lively after this week, although there are many carloads already stored away in this city for the coming winter.

Receipts of fruit and produce yesterday were as follows: Apples, 12 cars, making 115; cabbage, 10 cars, making 92; grapes, 1 car, making 47; pears, 3 cars, making 16; potatoes, 14 cars, making 107; sweet potatoes, 1 car, making 29.

"I TOLD YOU SO," SAYS MR. HEARST

New York Editor Grows Vitriolic in Discussing Parker's Greeley-Like Defeat.

PARTY DISASTER WAS INVITED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—W. R. Hearst's New York American says editorially this morning:

Judge Parker is beaten, overwhelmingly beaten.

The reasons for his defeat are perfectly plain.

Judge Parker simply failed to inspire the earnest, the genuinely Democratic elements of his own party with confidence. They did not feel that in voting for him they would be voting for Democratic principles. And he did not attract Republicans who are tired of the reign of special interests and are ready to come over to Democracy when the Democracy has the courage to be democratic.

The country was prepared for what has happened. Everyone who moves among the people and keeps himself acquainted with the trend of public sentiment was without expectation, from the hour of Judge Parker's nomination, that he could be elected.

That nomination was procured under circumstances which discredited it from the start.

The ante-convention movement in Judge Parker's behalf was led by men in whom the Democratic masses had no faith. For the most part their chief claim to political distinction was that they had abandoned their party in two presidential campaigns. Others among them were as conspicuously identified with the trusts as are Morgan, Rockefeller, Rogers and Baer themselves, and while they worked for his nomination, Judge Parker, about whose views on public questions nothing was known, remained mute, pleading the dignity of his judicial office in explanation of a silence which, on the part of a president aspirant, was unprecedented in the history of American politics.

Democratic Masses Ignored.

It was known that President Roosevelt had angered the trusts, partly by his action against the Northern Securities merger, and his intervention in the coal strike, but chiefly because of his speeches, in which he committed the offense of recognizing the existence of a trust question. His name was cursed in Wall street offices, from which within the past three months large contributions to the Republican campaign fund have come.

Mr. August Belmont and other prominent promoters of the Parker movement were in a position to know all about the feelings of certain enormously rich and influential "captains of industry" and "kings of finance" toward Roosevelt. To their broad intellects it seemed that all that was necessary for Democratic success was to present a candidate whose sobriety of mind and sedate demeanor would offer an impressive contrast to the noisy and swaggering president. Thus would the support of the disturbed and incensed "business interests" be secured.

In this scheme, which was acclaimed as "sane, safe and conservative," the Democratic masses were not taken into account—the masses who want their party above all else to stand against privilege and for equal rights.

Is it surprising that the masses, and others who don't care to class themselves with the masses, view the sane, safe and conservative program merely as an equally sinister and foolish endeavor to win the trusts away from the Republican party and to form a partnership between them and their natural enemy, the Democratic party?

Is it wonderful that when the New York Democratic state convention met, under the complete control of Judge Parker's friends, appointed delegates pledged to him, and adopted a platform obviously intended to give no offense to the trusts, Judge Parker, still silent, should have appeared to the country in the light of a consenting party to the Hill-Belmont program?

And this program was indorsed and applauded by newspapers from the Atlantic to the Pacific which during eight years had served the Republican cause, though retaining the Democratic name—newspapers hated and despised as traitors by the voting rank and file of the Democracy.

When Judge Parker's nomination was secured by the Hills and Belmonts, assisted by politicians who are willing to make any sacrifice of principle for the prospect of success, there was tremendous rejoicing among the men and newspapers which had forfeited all claim upon the party's confidence. The Democracy had "returned to sanity," to its "ancient landmarks," to Clevelandism—in brief, to a state, that is, which could give no alarm to intrenched privilege or hope to the people of rescue from brigandage.

The noise made by the triumphant "sane and safe" conservatives was grotesquely out of proportion to their own voting strength, or their ability to influence the voter of others. There came no rejoicing echo from the millions of Democrats who are not politicians, but who are the party. They felt that their party had been sold out to the trusts and that the American people had been deprived of the right to go to the polls and choose between Democratic and Republican principles and policies.

NUTMEG STATE DOES WELL.

Plurality for Roosevelt Will Exceed That Cast for McKinley—Clean Sweep on State Ticket.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket carried the state in today's election by an overwhelming plurality, which was even larger than the most sanguine of the party predicted. That the Republicans would make a sweep of the state was evident by the first of the returns, and there seemed to be no doubt of the result soon after the polls closed.

It is estimated that President Roosevelt's plurality will reach almost the 25,000 mark, which is several thousand ahead of McKinley's figures in 1900. The state ticket was not far behind, and from Henry Roberts, the candidate for governor, down, there was a clean sweep.

Congressmen in each of the four districts and the congressman-at-large were all re-elected and the legislature will remain Republican by a ratio estimated at 2½ to 1, which is a slight gain over the ratio of two years ago.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP LEGISLATIVE DISTRICTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Returns at 2 o'clock this morning on the legislature were complete, with the exception of a few senate and assembly districts from Manhattan and Brooklyn. They show the Republicans have carried every senate and assembly district outside of New York city, with the exception of six.

HEARST IS STANDING ABOVE THE WRECK

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—With one-half of the election districts constituting Mr. Hearst's congressional district heard from, it is clear that he stands above the wreck. The indications are that his majority will reach 12,000, which is likely to be 6,000 more than any other elected Democratic congressman.

Idaho Contributes Her Share.

BOISE, IDAHO, Nov. 8.—Six precincts out of 16 in Boise give Roosevelt 929, Parker 343. Gooding, (Rep.) for governor 845; Heitfield 457. Roosevelt is conceded to have carried the state by a heavy majority. Gooding runs slightly behind Roosevelt.

ENORMOUS GAIN MADE IN OHIO

Roosevelt's Plurality Not Less Than 125,000, Is Belief of Chairman Dick.

JOHNSON GIVES UP CUYAHOGA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Republican Chairman Dick, at 10:30 tonight, issued a bulletin saying President Roosevelt's plurality in this state is not less than 125,000. McKinley's plurality four years ago was 69,000.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 8.—Mayor Johnson (Dem.) admits there has been a Republican landslide in Cuyahoga county, and that the Republican presidential ticket will have a plurality of from 10,000 to 12,000. The mayor claims a part of the Democratic county ticket has been elected. The count is progressing slowly.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Nov. 8.—Indications are that Columbiana county will give Roosevelt a majority of 7,000. East Liverpool is Republican by 3,000. James Kennedy (Rep.) for congress, is elected by a big majority.

TOLEDO, Nov. 8.—Returns from the Fifth Ohio congressional district indicate Southward (Rep.) is re-elected by 5,000. Roosevelt's plurality in Lucas county is about 13,824.

MANSFIELD, Nov. 8.—At 9 o'clock only 4 of the 43 precincts of Richland county had been reported, but taking them as a basis, the plurality of Parker will not exceed the 460 received by Johnson for governor last year. The city vote was large and showed Republican gains. In the country precincts, strongly tinged with Bryanism, many Democrats neglected to vote. For congress, Webber (Rep.) will run slightly behind the national ticket. Long, his opponent, is a Richland county man, but Webber's election by over 30,000 in the Fourteenth district is assured. It is probable that several Republican candidates on the county ticket are elected.

FINDLAY, Nov. 8.—Hancock county returns are slow, but early indications show a Republican gain for the entire ticket. The vote is enormous with but little scratching. Three precincts outside of Findlay show a Republican gain of 100. Cole, Republican candidate for congress in the Eighth district, will run ahead of the ticket.

STEUBENVILLE, Nov. 8.—Jefferson county gives 3,500 plurality for Roosevelt, the largest Republican plurality ever given. The same plurality is given the state, county and congressional tickets. Congressman Weems, in the Sixteenth district, will have 6,500 majority. Steubenville gives 1,400 plurality for Roosevelt.

MARIETTA, Nov. 8.—The city and county vote is coming in slowly, but indicates that Dawes, Republican candidate for congress in the Fifteenth district, will carry the county by less than 600. Ellenwood (Dem.) will lead the ticket for common pleas judge with nearly 2,000 majority in the county. Roosevelt will carry Washington county by a handsome majority.

RAVENNA, Nov. 8.—Portage county has gone Republican by probably 1,500.

NEWARK, Nov. 8.—The Republicans have made gains in Licking county, but Hurst, the Democratic candidate has probably carried the county by about 200 and the Seventeenth district by 2,000.

YOUNGSTOWN, Nov. 8.—The Democrats elected all the county officers with the possible exception of county commissioner. Reports from the Seventeenth congressional district indicate the election of Judge Smyser (Rep.) by a small majority. Parker carried the county, but Roosevelt gained 600 votes.

YOUNGSTOWN, Nov. 8.—The Republicans today swept the city and county by electing every man on the ticket and giving about 2,000 majority for Roosevelt. Roosevelt has apparently reached about 500 more votes than did McKinley in 1900. The Republican school board was selected by the county committee and there was a protest on the part of some of the Republicans. The Democrats joined with them and a Citizens ticket was nominated. This was beaten by a large majority. The fight of Herman F. Duesing (Dem.) against Will B. Jones (Rep.) for county auditor failed, although he had the support of many Republicans. James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, had a walkover.

The County's New Coroner

JOSEPH G. ARMSTRONG.

This popular South Sider has long been known as one of the most stalwart of Republicans in Allegheny county. Time and time again he has proved his worth as a watchful party leader and worker, particularly so in the part he has had as a member of select council in exposing and thwarting some of the vicious schemes of the Citizens party and the present city administration. The recognition of his worth, not only as a party leader, but as a citizen, given yesterday was well deserved.

GIRLS ENDEAVOR TO CHEER UP MR. PARKER

ESOPUS, N. Y., Nov. 8.—At 9:30 tonight several young ladies from the village joined the group in Judge Parker's study. They cheered the returns from Texas, which gave Judge Parker an increased vote over that received by Mr. Bryan in 1900, and told Judge Parker they believed he would win after all. The judge's laugh rang out above all the others.

North Dakota Increases Majority.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 8.—Roosevelt carries North Dakota by from 20,000 to 25,000. This is an increase of over 60 per cent from McKinley's majority. The state ticket is elected by probably 4,000 less. Of the 140 members in the two houses of the legislature about 90 will be Republican. This will insure the election of a Republican United States senator to succeed Senator McCumber.

MINNESOTA GIVES HIM RECORD-BREAKING VOTE

Roosevelt's Plurality Will Probably Reach 100,000—Democrats May Elect Governor, However.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt received a record-breaking plurality in Minnesota, going far beyond McKinley's margin of 77,000 four years ago. On the face of the returns so far received the Republican electoral ticket will have a plurality of over 100,000. Parker's vote was much smaller than that received by Bryan four years ago, and Roosevelt was especially strong in counties which of old were Populist strongholds.

Despite the tremendous plurality for Roosevelt, the Democrats apparently have elected their candidate for governor, John A. Johnson. At Democratic headquarters Johnson's election was claimed by a plurality of from 20,000 to 22,000. Chairman James A. Martin of the executive committee of the Republican state central committee claimed the election of Robert G. Dunn, the Republican candidate, but admitted that the result would be close. The Republicans elect the balance of their state ticket.

The Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot in the legislature, ensuring the election of a Republican successor to United States Senator Moses E. Clapp.

BOND ISSUE LOST AFTER HARD FIGHT

National Election Was Overshadowed by the Local Question in Duquesne.

RESULTS IN OTHER BOROUGHS

In the fight on the proposed bond issue of $90,000 for public improvements voters of Duquesne borough yesterday allowed the importance of the national election to be overshadowed by the local issue. Of the issue $80,000 was wanted for street improvements and $10,000 with which to erect a garbage furnace. The total vote on the bond issue was 866 against and 510 favoring the issue.

When the result was announced big crowds of men and boys who had been awaiting the announcement formed in line and each polling place was visited. The paraders carried banners on which inscriptions were painted denouncing the proposition to issue bonds. Residents and industrial enterprises in the borough, it is said, have been urging council to improve the town's water system. As none of the money of the bond issue was set aside for the improvement of the water supply a campaign to defeat the bond issue was started.

Senator John W. Crawford and his brothers, James and Edward, both officials of the borough, led the fight for the bond issue, while, it is alleged, the Carnegie Steel Company officials backed the opposition. As a result of the fight Senator Crawford, candidate for re-election in the Forty-fifth district, was cut in the borough.

Ingram—Roosevelt 231, Parker 45; Crawford 149, McMahon 86.

BOTH PARTIES CLAIMING ELECTION OF GOVERNOR

Roosevelt Has, However, Swept Wisconsin by Handsome Plurality.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 8.—It is generally conceded that Roosevelt has carried Wisconsin by a plurality estimated at between 60,000 and 75,000. Both Republican and Democratic state chairmen claim the state respectively for Lafollette and Peck. Republican Chairman W. D. Conner, at 11 o'clock tonight, said:

"From the returns received I figure that Lafollette's plurality for governor is 50,000. In some districts our ticket ran ahead of expectations, and in others behind our calculations. We have nothing to indicate the complexion of the next legislature, which is to elect a United States senator, the interest in the returns for the head of the ticket having overshadowed everything else."

Chairman A. F. Warden of the Democratic committee, said:

"I claim that Peck will be elected by 25,000 plurality. I have no returns on which to make a statement as to the legislature."

The Scofield (Nat. Rep.) ticket received a very light vote.

Three Republican congressmen have been elected and two districts are still to be heard from. In the Third district the race is close between Babcock (Rep.) and Gratophorst (Dem.). The latest returns show the Democratic candidate to have a slight lead. In the remaining district, the Ninth, the returns are still indefinite, but the meager figures show Minor (Rep.) to have a slight lead.

Milwaukee county, in which great interest centered, was carried by LaFollette by a plurality estimated at between 5,000 and 6,000.

CONGRESSMAN PEARRE IS GIVEN RE-ELECTION

CUMBERLAND, MD., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Indications point to Congressman Pearre's re-election by the same majority in the Sixth district as two years ago—about 3,800. Pearre carries Allegany county by about 1,600 majority, Garrett county by 1,000, Washington county by 800, Frederick county by 1,000, with Montgomery probably Democratic by 300.

William Cambell Helped, Also.

The thousands who read Gazette bulletins last night were materially aided by The Gazette searchlight which was placed on the roof of the People's Store, by courtesy of William Campbell. Mr. Campbell said he would do all he could to aid in disseminating the news, and very graciously allowed The Gazette's light to shine from his building.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE PROVERB CONTEST

WILL BE GIVEN BY

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

FOR THE CORRECT OR NEAREST CORRECT SOLUTIONS OF ILLUSTRATIONS REPRESENTING PROVERBS

The contest will consist of a series of Thirty Illustrations, each one of which will represent a well-known English Proverb. The First One of the Series Will be Found on Page 2 of This Paper.

READ THE CONDITIONS CAREFULLY

The conditions governing this contest follow. No answer which does not exactly conform to them will be considered.

All answers must be upon GAZETTE blanks, which will be printed with each Proverb Picture. Only one answer will be allowed on each blank.

ANSWERS MUST NOT BE SENT IN UNTIL THE CLOSE OF THE CONTEST. But all answers must be in The Gazette office within six days after the last Proverb Picture is printed.

The blank forms will be numbered and answers must be neatly arranged in numerical order by the contestants. At the close of the contest answers should be sent by mail, post paid, addressed to Manager Proverb Contest, THE GAZETTE, PITTSBURGH, PA., or they may be left in sealed envelopes at our Business Office, Wood Street and Oliver Avenue, addressed as above.

Do not send the pictures. SEND ONLY THE ANSWER BLANK. The blanks may be filled out in any legible way.

Contestants may send in as many sets of answers as they please, but each set must be in a different envelope. Each set will be treated separately, BUT NO CONTESTANT WILL BE AWARDED MORE THAN ONE PRIZE. Contestants may send in duplicate answers to the same Proverb Problem, but they must be on separate blanks; that is, they may fill out two or more No. 1s or 2s, etc. These duplicates must be kept together in making up the sets of answers.

Contestants may secure assistance from any source. Everybody is eligible except employes of The Pittsburgh Gazette.

The manager of the Proverb Contest distinctly reserves the right to make any change in or addition to these conditions that he may deem necessary for properly conducting the contest.

The thirty proverbs which will comprise the series have been selected from standard authorities, and the list on which the prizes will be awarded has been sealed and placed in the care of Mr. H. C. McEldowney, President of the Union Trust Co., and will not be opened until the time arrives for awarding the prizes.

The proverbs selected for this contest are those in common use and will not be hard to solve, but be careful to get the correct wording and punctuation, and see that each word is spelled correctly. You Will Find This Contest an Education for Old and Young. Enter it at Once.

NOTICE!

We will endeavor to keep on hand back numbers to supply all demands, but in sending for same mention that you want them for "Proverbs." Back numbers for this purpose will be sold at our business office or mailed to any address in the United States or Canada (outside of the city of Pittsburgh) for face price.
